4 (e) Filing of audit.--All horsemen's organizations that 5 receive funds under this section shall file annually with the 6 appropriate commission and the board an audit prepared by a
7 certified public accountant of all funds received. Such filings
8 shall be open to public review. The horsemen's organizations 9 shall maintain adequate records concerning receipt and 10 distribution of funds allocated to them. All distributions under 11 this section, except for those for health and pension benefits
12 for the members of horsemen's organizations, shall be suspended 13 for any horsemen's organization that has not filed an audit as 14 required under this subsection within six months of the end of 15 the horsemen's organization's fiscal year. Any such 16 distributions suspended are appropriated to the Department of 17 Agriculture.
