- (a) Beginning with the 2021-2022 school year and each school 5 year thereafter, the following shall apply:
- (1) Whenever an emergency, except an emergency due to an infectious disease, shall arise, which the board of school directors of a school district in the performance of its duties 8 could not anticipate or foresee and the emergency is anticipated 9 to continue for more than five (5) consecutive school days 10 during which the school district is unable to provide in-person 11 instruction of pupils, the board of school directors shall have 12 the power to put into operation some or all of the temporary 13 emergency provisions under subsection (c) by a majority vote of 14 the board of school directors. In no event shall the temporary 15 emergency provisions remain in effect for a period of more than 16 17 sixty (60) calendar days unless an extension is approved by the 18 board. Extensions may be approved for a period of no more than sixty (60) calendar days if all of the following conditions are 19 20
  - (i) The board of school directors approves the extension with a majority vote.
  - (ii) The board of school directors shall hold at least one public hearing prior to the vote to extend temporary emergency provisions.
  - (2) Whenever an emergency shall arise that is due to an infectious disease, which the board of school directors of a school district in the performance of its duties could not anticipate or foresee and the emergency is anticipated to continue for more than five (5) consecutive school days during which the school district is unable to provide in-person instruction of pupils, the board of school directors shall have the power to put into operation some or all of the temporary emergency provisions under subsection (c) by a majority vote of the board of school directors. In no event shall the temporary emergency provisions remain in effect for a period of more than
- 36 37 twenty-one (21) calendar days. An extension and any successive

1 extensions may be approved for a period of no more than twenty2 one (21) calendar days if all of the following conditions are 3 met:

- (i) The board of school directors approves the extension with a majority vote.
- (ii) The board of school directors shall hold at least one public hearing prior to the vote to extend temporary emergency provisions.
- (iii) There is an active local disaster emergency declaration issued by the governing body of a political subdivision under 35 Pa.C.S. § 7501(b) (relating to general authority of political subdivisions) or an active Statewide disaster emergency declared under 35 Pa.C.S. § 7301(c) (relating to general authority of Governor) directly related to the infectious disease resulting in the school district's inability to provide in-person instruction of pupils.
- (b) Upon approving temporary emergency provisions under subsection (a) (1) or (2), the board of school directors shall adopt a written plan for the implementation of the temporary emergency provisions which include, at a minimum:
- (1) An explanation of why the temporary emergency provisions are necessary.
- (2) How long the temporary emergency provisions are expected to be in effect.
- (3) How the school district will provide for the education of all impacted pupils while the temporary emergency provisions are in effect.
- (c) The school district shall publish the written plan under subsection (b) on its publicly accessible Internet website and update the written plan for each approved extension of the temporary emergency provisions.
- (d) Upon approving temporary emergency provisions under subsection (a)(1) or (2), a board of school directors may:
- (1) Keep the schools of the district in session such days and number of days per week as the board of school directors deems feasible, but the provisions of this act requiring a minimum of one hundred eighty (180) session days as a school year shall not be affected by this paragraph.
- (2) Reduce the length of time of daily instruction for various courses and classes.
- (3) Provide instruction delivered in whole or in part using technology that may include the Internet, video conferencing or other electronic means to pupils participating at home or at other locations outside of a school building.
- (e) Any school district, by invoking the powers under this section, shall not forfeit the school district's right to reimbursement by the Commonwealth or other State aid as otherwise provided for by this act.
- (f) This section shall not be construed to prohibit a school district from operating a cyber education program.
  - (g) As used in this section, the following words and phrases
