A RESOLUTION

1 Committing the House of Representatives to the establishment of 2 a special committee to study the problem of radon gas in the 3 environment, to hold hearings, to review scientific data and 4 to make recommendations for legislation.

5 WHEREAS, The problems associated with the presence of radon
6 gas in the environment and, in particular, in the homes and 7 public waters of this Commonwealth have been receiving a great 8 deal of public attention; and

9 WHEREAS, The General Assembly needs to be informed of the 10 latest developments in this area and of legislation which may 11 need to be enacted; therefore be it

12 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the 13 importance of the radon problem and the possible need for 14 legislative action to help solve the problem; and be it further

15 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives commit itself to 16 the appointment of a special committee to study the radon

1 problem and, in particular, the problem of radon in the homes
2 and public waters of this Commonwealth; and be it further

3       RESOLVED, That the committee hold hearings, study scientific 4 reports and data and make recommendations with respect to 5 legislation within six months of its appointment.
