4 their nearly 45,000 students are leading an educational 5 revolution, bringing new perspectives and innovative ideas to 6 education; and

7 WHEREAS, Charter schools are exciting and innovative schools
8 which are changing and improving educational opportunities in 9 this Commonwealth and across the nation by giving parents more 10 choices in their children's education; and

11 WHEREAS, Communities oversee charter public schools, thereby
12 empowering parents, teachers and communities to custom-design 13 unique educational programs to increase student achievement and 14 meet the specific needs of students; and

15 WHEREAS, Charter public schools encourage competition and are 16 accountable to the localities that establish them in order to 17 foster innovation and serve as models for other public schools;

1 therefore be it

2 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the 3 week of May 1 through May 7, 2005, as "National Charter Schools
4 Week" in Pennsylvania in proud celebration of these innovative 5 schools, and urge parents, teachers, students and communities to 6 support the charter public schools in this Commonwealth.
