164th of the General Assembly

No. 25

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.s.t.

THE SPEAKER (H. JACK SELTZER) IN THE CHAIR

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. The prayer today will be offered by the grandson of a former member of this House, Albert Foor, and the son of a former member of this House, Percy Foor, the Reverend Alan Foor, of the Beavertown United Church of Christ. He is here today as the guest of Mr. Thomas.

Let us pray:

Our Father, and Our God, We pause here this afternoon at the opening of this session of the House of Representatives to come to You and to remember You and to invite Your presence here today and also to affirm Your presence with us.

We pause to give our thanks to You for Your gift of life, the gift of work. We pause to thank You, our God, for the gift of this day and all of the opportunities that will come our way this day to serve You and to serve mankind.

We thank You for this great country of America that we are privileged to live in, and this great State of Pennsylvania which has been a great pioneer and instrument of leadership for this great nation.

We pause this afternoon to recognize Your greatness, to recognize that You are our Father, our help, Father of all peoples—of all places—and as You have guided and delivered mankind throughout all time, we affirm that You will still guide and direct us of today.

We ask Thy blessings, Thy strength, and Thy direction to the Governor of this Commonwealth and to his family.

In this state House of Representatives today, we thank You for these men and women who have set their hand to the task of providing the laws of this state for the safety, the rights and the good of all of its citizens.

O God, may Thy strong hand of wisdom, grace, and love rest upon these leaders of this House and each and every member of this House of Representatives today. Guide them in their awesome decisions and responsibilities that they must make and fulfill. Yes, help each of us to always seek to know what is right to do - and to do it - even in the face of criticism.

Forgive us; be merciful to us when we fail and do wrong in Thy sight, and help us to always honor You and to know the blessing of Thy love and the blessing of Thy mercies.

May each one know that they are special to You. May Your anointing holy spirit abound in this chamber today and every day, in Christ's name and for His sake we pray. Amen.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REMARKS ON VOTE

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Murphy, rise?

Mr. MURPHY. On the previous vote on HB 1986, Mr. Speaker, my switch did not work. I would like to be voted in the affirmative.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's remarks will be spread upon the record.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION CONTINUED

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 1993, PN 2790, entitled:

An Act amending Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for certain arrests.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Mr. WHITE offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 8901), page 2, line 9, by striking out all of said line and inserting committed in the officer's view, or where the officer has reason to believe an offense was committed, while the officer is within the territorial limits of his political subdivision.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. White.

Mr. WHITE. The original intent of the bill is to permit a police officer in one district to exercise arrest powers in an adjacent district if he, while in his district, sees a crime occurring in the adjacent district.

The purpose of the amendment is to clarify this in the language of the legislation and to exert clearer language to make it all possible. The problem with the current language is that it is too vague and may permit police officers to engage in making arrests while both the offense and the officer are outside the police officer's district.

The language in this amendment had been discussed in the Subcommittee on Crime and Corrections. I believe that the sponsor of the legislation has indicated that he has no problem with it, nor has the chairman of the Subcommittee on Crime and Corrections expressed any concern for the amendment. I would hope that we would have an affirmative vote from the House on this particular amendment, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fisher.

Mr. D. M. FISHER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. White, is correct. I reviewed this amendment with both Mr. White and Mr. Wilson 2 weeks ago, and I believe that Mr. White's amendment does nothing more than clarify the original intent of the act, that the police officer, to be authorized to make the arrests across the boundary line, would at least have been in his political subdivision when he viewed the commission of the offense. For that reason I urge the adoption of the White amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The following roll call was recorded:

The Chair asks the joint leadership to retire to the rear of the House to escort the new members to the well of the House.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED

The SPEAKER. The Chair has asked that a former distinguished member and newly elected judge of the Courts of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, the Honorable Anthony Scirica, give the oath of office.

HONORABLE ANTHONY SCIRICA. Will you please hold the Bible in your left hand and raise your right hand?

Do you solemnly swear, or affirm, that you will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth, and that you will discharge the duties of your office with fidelity?

If so, answer "I do."

(Members asserted oaths.)

HONORABLE ANTHONY SCIRICA. Let me be the first to congratulate you. If you enjoy your years in this House half as much as I did, I can promise you a very exciting and rewarding career. Best of luck.

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes all of you into this distinguished body and knows that each and every one of you will be just as distinguished as the rest of us indistinguished people.

The Chair would like at this time to put the House at ease and suggests that members of the immediate families who would like to come down and take pictures of their favorite legislators, please feel free to do so at this time.

WELCOME

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the balcony Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stavovy and their son, Michael, and daughter, Susan, and Ms. Jo Ann Grinarm, who are here today as the guests of the minority whip, Mr. Manderino.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, it is not my intention to call up any further bills for consideration today, but rather suggest that the Republicans retire to the caucus room for the purpose of caucusing on the calendar. Tomorrow we will come into session at 9:30, break probably sometime around 3 or 4 tomorrow afternoon, and that will be it for the week's schedule.

There are a number of bills that I have been asked to consider, bills and resolutions, and I would call for a meeting of the Rules Committee upon adjournment today.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Zeller.

Mr. ZELLER. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you and the majority leader for calling this resolution to the floor for vote, but I would like to, at this time, request that we revert back to the prior printer's number, a motion to revert back to the prior printer's number, which is PN 2506. That would be the first move, to revert back to the prior printer's number.

We agree that since it was amended, that it should probably be caucused on. The majority leader agreed, and we will hold it until tomorrow if it is all right with the Speaker and the members of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman. Without objection, HR 154 will be passed over.
