

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1989

SESSION OF 1989

173D OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 37

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (JAMES J. MANDERINO) IN THE CHAIR

PRAYER

REV. CLYDE W. ROACH, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Almighty God, we come this morning seeking Your favor as we grapple with the affairs of our beloved Commonwealth. We confess, Lord, that so often we become tired and weary of the tediousness and the burdens of office. Sometimes we grow weary and tired of struggling to advance the interests of Your people. There are days when we feel misunderstood by both our colleagues and our constituents. In times like these, Lord, make us to know that You will never leave nor forsake us. Remind us that as our days, so shall our strength be.

And, Lord, bless and keep our new member of the House, Your servant, Timothy Pesci.

In Your dear name we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT MEMBER-ELECT

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints the majority leader, the gentleman from Philadelphia, the Honorable Robert W. O'Donnell, and the minority leader, the gentleman from Delaware County, the Honorable Matthew J. Ryan, to escort Representative-elect Pesci to the rostrum for the purpose of taking the oath of office.

Will the escort committee pause in the well of the House. The swearing in will take place in the well of the House.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED

JUDGE DOYLE. Congratulations, Representative Pesci.

The SPEAKER. Would the escort committee usher the Representative to his seat.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the minority leader.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, you will notice I did not help take the gentleman back to his seat, because I was going to move him over in this direction, and O'Donnell said that if I wanted to do that, I was not permitted to join him.

The SPEAKER. Your gesture is certainly understandable.

Mr. RYAN. I knew you would understand, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker, on behalf of the members of the House and the Speaker himself, takes this opportunity to congratulate Representative Pesci and also to congratulate his family and to welcome them and to welcome his friends from Armstrong County who are with him today.

WELCOME

The SPEAKER. With us today viewing the ceremony, I would like to welcome to the hall of the House Donna Livengood, the wife of the late Representative Livengood.

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Let me say briefly to the new Representative, ahead there will be many challenges. Our role in government grows, and each day it grows more complex. It is a role that can be described in lofty terms, lofty terms of public policy, but it is also a role that brings great rewards in the ability to help people - help people at the grassroots level, where we serve in most cases as the people's sole link to that giant of State Government.

You are surrounded, Representative Pesci, by colleagues with many different philosophies, by colleagues who come from every variety of community possible, but we all live and work here with respect for the rule of law, with respect for one another and one another's points of view. We know that you have brought with you a dedication to do the very best for the people in your district and for the people of this great State.

I am sure that you will find that the members of this House from both sides of the aisle will give you their very best cooperation and support.

Once again, congratulations and welcome to the House.

REPRESENTATIVE PESCI'S FAMILY AND FRIENDS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. There are members of Representative Pesci's family here today that I would like to recognize on behalf of the House. Representative Pesci's two daughters are here - Lori Pesci and Rebecca Pesci. Will they please stand.

The sister of Representative Pesci, Mary Donelly, is here along with the Representative's niece, Anne Donelly. Will they please both stand.

And a group of Armstrong County friends and supporters who are in the back of the hall, welcome to the hall of the House.

REMARKS BY MAJORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER. The majority leader, Representative O'Donnell, is recognized at this time for appropriate remarks.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is my pleasure to introduce to you the newest member of the legislature, Tim Pesci, and I would like to take the opportunity to share a little bit of his background with you.

A local newspaper editorial recently described Tim as having a record of working for the little guy, and I think that description cuts to the heart and soul of how Tim has conducted his life as a public servant. He grew up in Freeport, a small town in the heart of Armstrong County. He left there to serve as a member of the Air Force in Vietnam, but when his tour of duty was completed, he went home to Freeport, where he dreamed of holding office to represent the best interests of his hometown. He was first elected to Freeport's borough council, and for the last 14 years he has served as Armstrong County controller.

Early on in his career, Tim met the late Henry Livengood, who would become not only his mentor but, more significantly, his friend. Henry, as you know, held high the ideals that Tim also shared, mostly notably that individuals can make a difference and a life of public service was a life dedicated to that standard. Henry would be very proud today to know that Tim has not lost sight of that ideal, and we can be proud to welcome Tim into the Pennsylvania legislature. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the majority leader.

REMARKS BY MINORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the minority leader, Matthew Ryan, of Delaware County.

Mr. RYAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I will be very brief. I want to join with you and the majority leader in welcoming Tim to the hall of the House of Representatives.

This will be a happy day, I suspect, for you, because there is very little of controversial nature that you will be voting on on your first day. You will have an opportunity to see us in action. You will have an opportunity to see where the Republican switches are so that when in doubt, you will know how to vote.

More seriously, though, you are replacing a man who was not just a Representative but rather he was a good friend of the members of this House on both sides of the aisle, a man that was a friend of mine. I considered him a friend as did many others, and I feel that with a person like this in front of you, you have got to prove yourself and you have got to prove yourself in a way that you are going to be acceptable and admired not only by the people back home but the people here. From the reports I have had on you, Tim—and we had a number of them in the past several months—I think you are going to fill that bill, and I congratulate you on your win, with a tear in my eye, and welcome you to the hall of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the distinguished minority leader.

THANKS EXTENDED TO JUDGE DOYLE

The SPEAKER. The Chair wants to extend the thanks of the House to Judge Doyle for his part here today in the swearing-in ceremony on this very auspicious occasion, and he invites Judge Doyle, who is returning to the House here for a few moments, to address brief remarks to the House.

REMARKS BY JUDGE DOYLE

JUDGE DOYLE. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

First, let me say, I am really delighted to be here on this happy occasion to bring your membership up to full fighting force, but there are some things, I suppose, that never change, although it has been approximately 10 years since I have sat in a seat. I just noticed that you are still debating the Philadelphia wage tax, and just this morning, if I take from the article in the Inquirer, you are still being accused of making right wrong. That, as I say, never changes.

But in all seriousness, I do want to extend congratulations to the newest member of your body, Representative Tim Pesci - congratulate him and his family and friends and supporters - and advise that he will now begin one of the most interesting and rewarding tasks and professions that anyone could ever hope to aspire to. In the 8 years that I served here, I have seen members kneeling down in the center of this well, on their knees, praying before they cast a vote on the taxes. I have seen members with tears in their eyes explaining a vote, knowing that after they cast it, it will mean their sure defeat at the polls, and it did occur.

So all the profiles in courage are not written in Washington, and I congratulate you and the members of this House for the legislative duties that they perform in the interest of everyone in the Commonwealth.

Thanks for inviting me back.

WELCOME

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the hall of the House this morning Emily Josephs, who is the niece of Babette Josephs, seated to the left of the Speaker. Will Emily Josephs please stand.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Mr. MORRIS called up HR 119, PN 1854, entitled:

Recognizing June 1989 as "Lou Gehrig Tribute Month."

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On the question of adopting the resolution, the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Morris, has asked for recognition. The gentleman is recognized.

Mr. MORRIS. Mr. Speaker, I want to make sure that the record and the Journal show that the creator of this resolution is really Representative Geist. I am not quite sure how I came to be the prime sponsor, except through his kindness and generosity and because I had a very dear friend who was a victim of this terrible disease or affliction. I think that we have received so many members wanting to be on the resolution since it was introduced that we should really include all members present and voting as sponsors of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has indicated that members wanting to sponsor the resolution must communicate that information to the bill clerk.

The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The following roll call was recorded:

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

WELCOMES

The SPEAKER. The Chair is happy to welcome to the hall of the House, on behalf of Representative Freind, Doug Alder of Fayetteville, Tennessee, a sophomore at the University of Tennessee. He is a houseguest at the home of Representative Freind, and he is seated in the balcony today. Will he please rise.

The Chair also welcomes to the hall of the House Diane Attrill, Miss Lehigh Valley; and Edward and Nancy MacLellan. They are the guests of Representative John Press-mann, and they are also seated in the balcony. Will they please stand.

The Chair is happy to welcome to the hall of the House the Levittown Knights of Columbus senior citizens. They are here as the guests of Representative Tony Melio.

BILLS REMOVED FROM TABLE

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the following bills be removed from the tabled calendar and placed on the active calendar:

HB 68;
HB 255;
HB 501;
HB 663;
HB 763;
HB 837;
HB 838;
HB 839;
HB 1009;
HB 1180;
HB 1207;
HB 1300;
HB 1308;
HB 1373;
HB 1397; and
HB 1548.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to.

BILL REMOVED FROM TABLE

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that HB 5, presently on the tabled calendar, be placed on the active calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the minority leader, Mr. Ryan. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, I cannot hear a word you are saying. I have a squawk box in front of me, and I cannot hear you.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is entirely correct. There is entirely too much noise in the hall of the House. Members have no regard for the business that is going on in the House. Those few members who do have some regard and want to pay attention are distracted by other members who continuously converse in loud tones on the floor of the House. It is almost impossible to conduct business or to hear what is going on in the hall of the House even using microphones. The gentleman, Mr. Ryan, is entirely correct, and the level, the decibel level, of the noise on the floor of this House must be lowered.

I will begin calling names of people who continue to converse in the front row, in the back row. Will the gentlemen please cease the conversations. When the Speaker asks for order in the House, you have already tried the patience of the Speaker, and yet I can look down and the people who are violating others' rights by causing them not to be able to hear just continue with their conversations in the same tones as if they do not hear what is going on. I hate to embarrass members, but I will begin calling names of members who apparently cannot hear unless they are addressed by name. They will be addressed by name so that they can hear when the Speaker asks that there be order in the House and that members take their seats and members clear the aisles and that members pay attention to the proceedings in the House.

The Chair thanks the gentleman, Mr. Ryan, for allowing us this moment when most of us are paying attention.

BILL RECOMMITTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority leader.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that HB 5 be recommitted to the Appropriations Committee for the purpose of a fiscal note.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?
Motion was agreed to.

Lord, we do not know Your will or Your way, but we understand, Heavenly Father, that one day we will understand it better, by and by. Cause us, Heavenly Father, who live now to remember that and take action that we will do all possible to prevent this kind of disaster.

Bless us, keep us, and sustain us. By Thy grace we pray. Amen.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

The SPEAKER. HR 127 is called up by the minority leader, Matthew Ryan.

The clerk will read the resolution.

The following resolution was read:

House Resolution No. 127

A RESOLUTION

Congratulating and honoring Mike Schmidt.

WHEREAS, Mike Schmidt, one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game, has announced his retirement from baseball; and

WHEREAS, He is the all-time Phillies Club leader in home runs, grand slams, RBI's, at-bats, walks, intentional walks, extra-base hits, total bases, runs, sacrifice flies and games played; and

WHEREAS, He started at third base for the National League in eight All-Star Games, was selected for the All-Star Game eleven times and has won ten gold gloves; and

WHEREAS, He has received the Silver Slugger Award for offensive excellence at third base six times and has been ranked as the 13th greatest player of the 20th century by the Bill James Historical Baseball Abstract; and

WHEREAS, He ranks seventh on the all-time list of home run hitters; and

WHEREAS, He was the 1980 World Series MVP, won back-to-back league MVP honors in 1980 and 1981, and was awarded the honor again in 1986; and

WHEREAS, His career rankings will live forever in the record books, and his excellence in playing the game will always be cherished by his family, friends, teammates and fans; and

WHEREAS, Mike Schmidt's abilities, professionalism, perfectionism, dedication and competitive instincts, which he consistently maintained during the 16 years that he played with the Phillies, will serve as new standards for the game of baseball; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives congratulate and honor Mike Schmidt, one of the greatest players in Phillies' history, for his contribution to excellence in baseball, and for the inspirational gift he has bestowed on us all by showing that, with dedication, dreams can come true; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Mike Schmidt and his family.

Matthew J. Ryan
Robert W. O'Donnell

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the distinguished minority leader, Matthew Ryan, is recognized.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank you for referring to me as the distinguished minority leader. I think today I am distinguished principally by reason of the fact that Mike Schmidt, one of the all-time greats in baseball, is a constituent of mine.

Although I have not had the pleasure of really meeting him, he has lived in my district for many, many years and it is a great source of pride to my neighbors, friends, and constituents that they can count Mike Schmidt as one of their neighbors.

I was driving up from the shore on Monday night returning from the weekend, and I had station WCAU on and heard Mike Schmidt's news conference on his retirement. I am sure it took many Pennsylvanians and Americans by surprise as it took me by surprise. I, however, on reflection probably should not have been so surprised. Here is a man who apparently settled with himself that when the day arrived that he did not feel he could do his utmost, then that was the day to retire. It is perhaps a feeling many of us should also adopt.

The resolution I have prepared has been signed by myself and by Mr. O'Donnell, and there is plenty of room on it for any additional sponsors that would care to join in the resolution.

I asked, Mr. Speaker, that it be suspended so that I could forward it to the Phillies for whatever purpose they want to make of it prior to the Saturday game when Mr. Schmidt will be honored. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The question was determined in the affirmative, and the resolution was adopted.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Wright, from Bucks County is recognized.

Mr. J. L. WRIGHT. May I suggest that the names of all of the members be included as sponsors and cosponsors on the resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair has indicated that members must communicate their willingness to serve as cosponsors of bills and resolutions by personally adding their name with the bill clerk. We have had too many complaints of members who do not want their names added with someone else's motion.

The gentleman from Philadelphia, Representative Linton, is recognized.

Mr. LINTON. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I sought the attention of the Chair at the time that Minority Leader Ryan was speaking. I just want to commend him on his efforts for regionalism, and we in the city of Philadelphia support his efforts in introducing the resolution on behalf of Mike Schmidt.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Today is the day for congratulations - on someone's well-earned retirement; on a new member - and while we are congratulating, let me, on behalf of the House, congratulate another rather new member from Erie County, Thomas Scrimenti, who this past Saturday entered that blessed state of matrimony.

I want to remind all the members that we are hosting a luncheon in honor of the swearing in of Representative Tim Pesci. The luncheon is to be held in the majority caucus room immediately upon the call of the recess.

STATE GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. A committee meeting is to be called by the State Government Committee. Would the gentleman from Philadelphia, Representative Oliver, announce the meeting.

Mr. OLIVER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

A meeting of the State Government Committee will be held immediately in the rear of the House.

The SPEAKER. Immediately upon the declaration of the recess, the State Government Committee will meet in the rear of the House.

The Judiciary Committee chairman, Representative Caltagirone, has indicated that he wants to call a meeting. Will the gentleman please announce the time and place of the meeting.

The gentleman, Mr. Caltagirone, indicates that the Judiciary Committee has met. They are simply waiting for a reprinting of amendments.

The Chair intends to recess the House until 2 o'clock, at which time he will receive reports of any committees wanting to report at that time. There will be no other business to be taken on the floor of the House.

REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Ryan, is recognized.

Mr. RYAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I am just reminding the members of our Policy Committee that there will be a meeting at 12:30. Lunch will be served, so you can get two lunches this way. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Is there any further business to come before the House from the majority party? Any from the minority party?

RECESS

The SPEAKER. This House will stand in recess until 2 o'clock, at which time the Representative from Armstrong County, Representative Tim Pesci, will place an adjournment motion that this House adjourn until Monday, June 5, 1989, at 1 p.m., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

If no business is to come before the House, this House stands in recess now until 2 p.m. this afternoon.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.
