

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

MONDAY, MARCH 13, 2017

SESSION OF 2017

201ST OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 8

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (MATTHEW E. BAKER) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. KAREN BOBACK, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in Him.

May God bless us as we embark on this day and be reminded that our days in this chamber will directly impact our Commonwealth. As we discuss legislation, may we hunger and thirst for righteousness, be open-minded, and respect the fact that we are a diverse State, that we represent a diverse constituency, and may we be blessed with the art of compromise for the good of the whole. And as we govern, may we be ever mindful that we represent You first, dear Lord, then those who entrusted us to public office.

May this day be the best day in our lives thus far, and may our tomorrows be even better.

In Your name we humbly pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the approval of the Journal of Wednesday, February 8, 2017, will be postponed until printed.

The SPEAKER. There are 194 members present, so a quorum has been reached.

Members, please take your seats. We are going to go to visitor recognition at this time, and some members have requested the opportunity to speak. So I am going to ask that all members please take their seats. All staff members, please take your seats or if you have to have a conversation, I would ask you to please have it off the floor of the House.

WOODS SERVICES INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Frank Farry is recognized under unanimous consent.

And I am just going to welcome a group from Woods Services, located in Langhorne, and they are the guests of Representative Farry. Will they please rise. Please rise. So great to have you here. Members, please give them a large round of applause.

And to hear their story, I would ask all members to please take their seats. Members, please take your seats.

Representative Farry, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I appreciate this opportunity.

I rise in recognition of an exceptional group of individuals who have taken the time to travel to Harrisburg today to exercise their democratic rights to raise the awareness of sheltered workshops. As many of you may know, there was a large rally held in the rotunda earlier this morning where individuals from across this Commonwealth came forward to drive home the issue of sheltered workshops. Chairman DiGirolamo just hosted a committee hearing on that same issue.

This group is from Woods Services, and Woods Services is a leading advocacy and service organization for people with exceptional challenges and disabilities. Mollie Woods founded Woods Services over 100 years ago, and I have a very special connection there as my grandfather spent his career working there as a carpenter and my mom's first job was at Woods Services. Woods provides innovative and comprehensive health, education, workforce, behavioral health, and case management services to individuals and children with intellectual and developmental disabilities. They also serve people that have traumatic brain injuries, brain trauma, and child welfare issues.

Collectively they serve over 4,000 people.

Woods is based in my hometown of Langhorne, PA, where this group traveled from. At the Woods' campus in Langhorne, 630 people of all ages and levels of care who reside there are provided educational or health-care opportunities. This includes our sheltered workshops. Sheltered workshops provide a very vital opportunity for people with different degrees of disabilities to have meaningful employment, where they actually receive a fair wage and then they have the opportunity to make a difference and work amongst their peers. These workshops are throughout the Commonwealth. There are 511 of them. We have a House resolution coming forward in the coming weeks, HR 148, that recognizes the job that is taking place in these workshops across this Commonwealth.

I want to thank Representative DiGirolamo for his hearing today, Representative Nelson for organizing the rally, and the men and women on both sides of the aisle that joined us in this rally today. And if you are not familiar with the sheltered workshops, please see either Representatives DiGirolamo and Nelson or myself so we can explain the great work that they are doing.

So for the folks from Woods, thank you for coming out today and exercising your democratic right to have your voice heard. And to the staff that works at Woods, I want to say thank you for the great job you do in serving the residents of our community. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Farry.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Located to the left of the rostrum, the Chair welcomes Brooke Smith, who is shadowing Representative Nelson for the day. Please rise. And she is here with her parents, Curt and Michelle. Great to have you here. Thank you so much.

And located to the left of the rostrum, we welcome Samantha Lamont. Samantha, will you please stand. She is interning with Representative Madden for the semester. She attends East Stroudsburg University and has been serving in the Pennsylvania National Guard since 2014, and listen to this, she will be commissioned in May 2018 as a United States Army officer through Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps). It is an honor to have you here today.

To the left of the rostrum, a very good friend of mine from back home, a great family, small business owner, Gary Matson from the Pine-Richland area. Gary, great to have you here. Thank you so much.

In the rear of the House, a great friend of Representative Rosemary Brown is here. We welcome Alfred and Alice Fariole – I think I am saying it correctly – and Alfred is a retired State constable. As I said, he is here with his wife, Alice. Please rise. Thank you so much for being with us today.

In the rear of the House, Representative Lewis has brought with us one of his district office staff, Nick Deminski. Nick, please rise. Great to have you here today. Thank you, Nick.

And in the well of the House, we welcome guest page Brody Johnston. Brody, please stand. He attends Elizabethtown Area High School and is a guest of Representative Dave Hickernell, Chairman Hickernell.

JORDAN GEIST PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Brian Ellis is requested to come to the rostrum for an important citation.

I would ask all members to please take their seats.

We are going to let the group exit before Representative Ellis proceeds.

Members, please take your seats.

Representative Ellis, you may proceed, sir.

Mr. ELLIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, today I rise to recognize a talented young athlete from back home in Butler who has broken the national and world high school records in the shot put event. He is not a small individual from Butler County. He is a great athlete. He is here with his father and mother today, James and Judy Geist.

Jordan Geist, during his last indoor track and field meet in 2016, broke the national and world high school indoor shot put record with a throw of 68 feet 4 inches with a 16-pound shot. To put that in perspective, he would have come in fifth in the Olympics. Ranked as the number one high school shot put thrower and weight thrower in the nation, Jordan also holds the WPIAL record with a throw of 72 feet 7 inches and the PIAA record with a throw of 74 feet 3.5 inches. Now, Mr. Speaker, sometimes when we prepare these speeches for our guests, we do it ahead of time. We did this one a few weeks ago, and since then he has broken that record with a shot of 76 feet 10 inches.

Jordan was named the 2016 Gatorade Track and Field Athlete of the Year and has distinguished himself as a two-time Penn Relays Champion. We all know about that.

Colleagues, please join me in congratulating Jordan for his great athletic accomplishments, his many noteworthy achievements, and his investment of skill and effort as a Pennsylvania student athlete.

Congratulations, Jordan, and best wishes in all future endeavors.

The SPEAKER. Jordan, that is amazing.

Representative Ellis, thank you for sharing that with us.

We are looking forward to seeing you in the next Olympics, right?

Mr. ELLIS. Japan Olympics.

The SPEAKER. Japan Olympics. We are ready to see you. Thank you.

SUN VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Krueger-Braneky is invited to come up to the rostrum at this time for the purpose of presenting a citation to an outstanding school organization. I am going to leave it to her to introduce her guests.

Members, please take your seats. Members, please take your seats. This is an important announcement.

Representative Krueger-Braneky, how far have your guests traveled today? How long?

Ms. KRUEGER. 2 hours.

The SPEAKER. About a 2-hour drive?

Ms. KRUEGER. 101 miles.

The SPEAKER. 101 miles.

So this is important. These folks made a long trek to be here in the State Capitol with us today.

Members, please take your seats. Members, please take your seats. All staff members, please take your seats. Any conversations can occur off the House floor.

Representative Krueger-Braneky, please proceed.

Ms. KRUEGER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am also joined today by Representative Brian Kirkland because we both serve this district.

And I would like to take a moment to recognize an outstanding group of young adults from Delaware County who are visiting us here today. Today we are joined by the Sun Valley High School Marching Band in Aston, Delaware County, under the direction of Tim Pry.

For the second year in a row, Mr. Speaker, 2 years in a row that they are here with us, they have won first place in the State championships, the American Open Class Division of the 2016 Cavalcade of Bands. In addition, this year they also received special awards for high visual performance, high music, and high general effect. The motto for the Cavalcade of Bands is "Education Through Musical Involvement." This is especially true since it has been shown time and time again that students who participate in music programs tend to be more successful throughout their academic careers.

I am especially proud of what these students were able to accomplish, and I look forward to hearing more about the successes they surely will have going on and on. At this rate, Mr. Speaker, I believe we may just be welcoming them back around this time next year to celebrate a third consecutive first-place finish.

And I would like to recognize the leaders who are with us here today. Behind me is band director Tim Pry.

The SPEAKER. Good to see you.

Ms. KRUEGER. Drum major Catherine Olshefski.

The SPEAKER. Catherine, great to have you here.

Ms. KRUEGER. And in the back we have instructional staff member Mike Stadnicki and then the esteemed student leaders, Andrew Gill, Maya Jacyszyn, Austin Jester, Angelica Lara, James Leo, Matthew Lynn, Walter Magello, Daria Mariotti, Hayley Moore, Justin Schappelle, Ryan Schmidt, Kimberly Taylor, and the rest of the marching band. So, colleagues, please join me—

The SPEAKER. Please stand, the whole band.

Ms. KRUEGER. Welcome.

Thank you, colleagues, for joining me in honoring now 2 consecutive years in a row State championship winners, the Sun Valley High School Marching Band, from Aston, Pennsylvania, in Delaware County.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

The SPEAKER. Members, we are going to be doing a condolence resolution for a former member.

We are going to give the marching band an opportunity to exit here before the condolence resolution.

Representative Mike Sturla is going to offer that today, our condolence resolution.

Mike, just give them a few moments and then we will be ready.

At this time our clerk will read the condolence resolution, a summary thereof, and then we will proceed to the actual presentation.

The following resolution was read:

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania wishes to honor the memory of the Honorable Marvin E. Miller, Jr., a former member of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania serving the 96th Legislative District, who passed away at the age of seventy on September 30, 2016; and

WHEREAS, Born in Lititz, Mr. Miller was the son of the late Arlene L. Geibe and Marvin W. Miller, Sr. He graduated from Manheim Township High School in 1963 and attended the University of Hawaii until he enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1964. He was honorably discharged from military service in 1968, after which he attended Temple University. Mr. Miller was first elected to the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania in 1972, and he was re-elected to eight successive terms. During the eighteen years he served in office, he held many legislative committee chairmanships and memberships, and he was also appointed to the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency, serving from 1978 to 1990. Mr. Miller served this Commonwealth honorably before retiring from legislative service on December 31, 1990. Following his retirement, he worked in the field of governmental affairs, and he retired from his second career in 2015, which allowed him to dedicate an increased amount of time to his interests in carpentry, millwork, antique furniture and folk art. Mr. Miller was a Federal Aviation Administration-certified commercial hot air balloon pilot, and he cofounded the Susquehanna Valley Balloon Company and the Lancaster Balloonport at Lancaster Airport, with which he was affiliated for nearly thirty years. He was appointed to the Board of the Lancaster Airport Authority in 1992 and served as its Chairman from 1997 until his passing. A lifelong member of the Lititz Moravian Congregation, Mr. Miller was happiest spending time with his family; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania proclaim with enduring sorrow the passing of the Honorable Marvin E. Miller, Jr.; and extend heartfelt condolences to his wife of twenty-six years, Margaret Concannon Miller; son, Russell Hamilton; three grandchildren; and many other family members and friends; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution, sponsored by the Honorable P. Michael Sturla on November 3, 2016, be transmitted to Margaret Concannon Miller.

P. Michael Sturla, Sponsor
Mike Turzai, Speaker of the House
ATTEST:
David Reddecliff, Chief Clerk of the House

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Thank you.
The Sergeants at Arms, please close the doors of the House.
Representative Sturla, you are invited to the rostrum, sir.
Mr. STURLA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

We are joined today by Meg Miller, Marv's wife, and his son, Russ, whom many of you know as someone who served in the House as a staff person for many years and now serves over in the Senate, and his wife and several grandchildren.

I am looking around the House and there are not many people that actually had a chance to serve with Marv that are still here. I actually never had the privilege of doing that because I was his successor, but you know how when you first get elected and you get here and your colleagues say, "Oh, who did you replace?" And I would say, "Marv Miller." I will say I never once got a disparaging remark. It was always, "Oh, he was a great guy. I hope you can live up to that."

Marv was a member's member, who worked on both sides of the aisle and worked diligently for the citizens of Lancaster that he served.

And so it is with great sorrow that we mark the passing of Marv Miller and wish the best for his family as they move forward. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Sturla.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Before I say some remarks myself, I would just at this time like to ask all those in favor of the resolution to please rise and remain standing as a mark of respect for the deceased former member, the Honorable Marvin E. Miller, Jr., a former member of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, serving the 96th Legislative District.

(Whereupon, the members of the House and all visitors stood in a moment of silence in solemn respect to the memory of the Honorable Marvin E. Miller, Jr.)

The SPEAKER. The resolution has been unanimously adopted, and, members, you may take your seats.

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. We extend our heartfelt condolences to Representative Miller's wife of 26 years, Margaret Concannon Miller – Margaret – and son, Russ, a good friend to many of us. Russ, great to see you here. Thank you so much. God bless. Three grandchildren. Are they here today? Please stand with your mom. Thank you so much for being with us today. It is so great to have you here. We are so honored to honor your grandfather.

And I just want to say that everyone spoke so highly of Representative Miller. Our Parliamentarian has indicated that we believe – and correct us if we are wrong, Russ – your father served at the same time that his father was serving – is that right? – which I think is, at least in any significant time of history, the only time that we know of, and that is just really quite, quite an honor to be able to serve with your father.

And we knew what a leader he was not only for the United States and his service in the military but also for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the role that he held here as a legislator but in also many of the agencies that he also served, including PHEAA, and how he served Lancaster County and the communities therein.

Just an outstanding gentleman, and we are so blessed that you could be with us today, and upon your sorrow, we, all of us, on behalf of all of us, we are so pleased that you could be here for this condolence resolution. God bless.

The Sergeants at Arms will open the doors of the House. Thank you.

Thank you, Representative Sturla.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

The SPEAKER. At this time each of the makers of those resolutions has requested the opportunity to speak. We are going to go in the order of the numbers. This will be the order so that everybody is ready and prepared to speak: Representative Pashinski will speak on HR 79, Representative Hill-Evans will speak on HR 106— Excuse me. Representative Schweyer will go second. He is recognized to speak on HR 102. Third will be Representative Hill-Evans on HR 106, and then Representative McClinton will speak on HR 110.

STATEMENT BY MR. PASHINSKI

The SPEAKER. Representative Pashinski, you may proceed. Members, please take your seats.

Mr. PASHINSKI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to thank my fellow legislators for recognizing the vital importance that music plays in our educational system by designating March as "Music in Our Schools Month."

I think many of you know that I spent many years as a music teacher and choral director at Greater Nanticoke Area School District, and I am proud to say my hometown. I have seen firsthand the countless benefits music education can impart on our students. Every child is special, each unique in their creation, and every single child has been endowed with certain talents and attributes that will define them throughout their lives. But so many children never get to realize their full potential because they lack the confidence and personal understanding to unlock those gifts and begin to grow. Music is that very special power that can unlock and open children's minds, which in turn gives them confidence to participate, experience, and grow.

The benefits to music education expand beyond simply learning how to read music, to play a drum or a clarinet, because countless studies have proven that those students who receive appropriate music education have improved language skills, self-esteem, listening and math skills, creativity, and they also are high achievers.

Key fundamentals of music education can be applied in so many other aspects of our students' lives. The benefits continue outside of an academic sense and can give students a sense of joy, excitement, energy, and discipline while teaching teamwork, hard work, and discipline. That is why it is upsetting to hear that certain school districts throughout the country are being forced to cut the arts programs. In Pennsylvania, however, we have a constitutional obligation to provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of public education to serve the needs of our State. I believe this thorough and efficient system of education most certainly must include music education.

The power of music can transcend so many of the barriers that prevent people from connecting to one another. Every one of us in this great hall has a favorite song or a special moment in time when music elicits a variety of emotions – happiness, excitement, and yes, even romance. Music provides all of us an opportunity to release our emotions and relaxes our minds. This allows us an escape from the challenges of everyday life and renews our energy to face another day.

Our great American composer Aaron Copland once said, "To stop the flow of music would be like the stopping of time itself, incredible and inconceivable."

Great people from every walk of life have recognized the power and importance of music, and that is why it is imperative that we continue to support music education in Pennsylvania as well.

Mr. Speaker, I thank you and I thank my fellow legislators, once again, for their support of HR 79, celebrating March as Music in Our Schools Month. Thank you all very much. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Pashinski.

STATEMENT BY MR. SCHWEYER

The SPEAKER. Representative Schweyer, on HR 102.

Mr. SCHWEYER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And thank you to all my colleagues for your consideration of this important resolution. HR 102 declares March of 2017 as traumatic brain injury awareness month in Pennsylvania. And once again, I would like to thank you all for supporting and considering this resolution sponsored by Representative Murt and myself.

You know, as a parent one of the scariest and most concerning—

The SPEAKER. Please suspend, sir. I apologize for the interruption. My apology.

Members, please take your seats. Members, please take your seats.

We have some resolutions on the regular House calendar and the supplemental regular House calendar still to get through. I do understand Representative Hill-Evans has asked not to be recognized and will submit remarks for the record. But Representative Schweyer has the right to be heard. It is on Brain Injury Awareness Month. He has some guests here in the chamber, and I would very much like to ask everybody to take their seats. Please take your seats.

I understand there is important work to be done with staff members, but if we could take those conversations off the floor, or even member-to-member conversations, if we could take them off the floor. We understand that work has to be done, but if you could just take them off the floor, we would appreciate it. So, members, please take your seats.

Representative Schweyer, you may continue, sir.

Mr. SCHWEYER. Mr. Speaker, thank you, and once again, thank you for the opportunity to speak on this.

As I was saying, Mr. Speaker, one of the most tragic things that could befall any family is getting that phone call in the middle of the night that a loved one of yours has been in an accident, and not the kind of accident where you get the response shortly thereafter that everybody is going to be okay, but one of those accidents that is going to impact your life and your family's life forever. And annually, according to the Brain Injury Association of Pennsylvania, 8600 families in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania get that call.

And back in 2005 my legislative assistant, Elizabeth Martinez, received that phone call when her son, Sergio, was involved in a horrible accident, no fault of his own, merely bad weather in central Pennsylvania. He was involved in an accident and he suffered a very serious traumatic brain injury. Sergio is here with us today, but in order for Sergio to be with us today, he was on life support for over 30 days. He had 22 days of inpatient physical rehabilitation; 6 months of intensive therapy after that; and an additional year of therapy, physical and otherwise, after those 6 months of intensive therapy.

And in 2005 in April there were a lot of folks in the Martinez family and the people that knew Sergio, the guys that he played football with at William Allen, and his college friends that were not sure that he was going to be able to make it. But, Mr. Speaker, not only did Sergio make it, he is the proud father of a beautiful 2 1/2-year-old daughter. In 2013 he received an associate's degree, he is employed, and he is engaged to be married. And Sergio is here today with his fiancée, Yami; his mother, Elizabeth, who serves in my district office; and a friend of theirs, Andrea, who helped them through these terrible times.

Mr. Speaker, with your permission, I would ask if we could recognize them.

The SPEAKER. Yes. Please stand.

Mr. SCHWEYER. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. What a great story.

Sergio, thank you for being with us today.

Mr. SCHWEYER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, colleagues.

Again, 8600 people annually in Pennsylvania receive that call, and right now 245,000 Pennsylvanians are living with the disabilities suffered as a result of accidents with traumatic brain injury.

Mr. Speaker, HR 102 is important not only to recognize those victims of these injuries and their families but also the caregivers and the incredible medical professionals who every year perform miracles to make sure these folks can continue to live healthful, happy, and productive lives in our Commonwealth. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

Mrs. EVANS submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Four hundred eighty thousand people are dead because of tobacco use. It is the leading cause of preventable death in the United States, more than AIDS (acquired immunodeficiency syndrome), alcohol, car accidents, illegal drugs, murders, and suicides combined. About 50,000 people die each year from breathing secondhand smoke.

According to Pennsylvania's Department of Health, more than half of the adult smokers have tried to stop more than once in the past year. It is suggested that community leaders start unified tobacco cessation and prevention education efforts for tobacco users.

Today we are designating March 15, 2017, as "Kick Butts Day" to encourage citizens of all ages to pledge to be tobacco-free. As an active member of Tobacco Free York County and of Eat, Play, Breathe – York, two organizations created to encourage a tobacco-free living and promote healthy lifestyle choices, I invite my fellow House members to join this initiative and spread the word to increase the awareness. We need to alert everyone about the dangers caused by tobacco use. We need to improve the health and well-being of all Pennsylvanians. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MS. McCLINTON

The SPEAKER. Representative Joanna McClinton is recognized to speak on HR 110.

Members, please take your seats.

Ms. McCLINTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you to all of my colleagues for recognizing February 2017 as "Teen Dating and Violence Awareness and Prevention Month," helping to draw attention to an issue that is impacting individuals, families, and schools across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We are here today because 1.5 million high school students nationwide experience physical abuse from a dating partner every year. We are here today because our girls and our young women in the United States between the ages of 16 and 24 experience violence at a rate three times the national average, more than any other group in our country.

We are here today because in Pennsylvania nearly one in five women will experience stalking in their families, while in Delaware County one in five students have reported inappropriate sexual contact via the World Wide Web.

We are here today because in Philadelphia over 17 percent of students have reported being physically hurt by a dating partner and 12 percent report having been forced to have sexual intercourse. Both of those rates are nearly twice the national average.

We are here today to raise awareness about this important issue and highlight all of the available resources to prevent and help victims of teen dating violence, their friends and their families. Studies show that typically violent behavior begins between the ages of 12 and 18. Victims of this violence are susceptible to higher risk of substance abuse, eating disorders, risky sexual behavior, suicide, and much more.

This resolution is a reminder that each and every one of us can help prevent and reduce teen violence in dating by raising awareness and speaking out against it. It highlights tools like "Love is Not Abuse," which is an iPhone app, where parents and guardians are able to learn about the signs of teen dating violence and abuse, including information on what to do if you think your child is being abused by someone. Some of the warning signs of a violent relationship that parents, teachers, and friends need to look out for with teenagers include: their partner calling them names or putting them down in front of other people; they even apologize for their partner's behavior and make excuses for it; if they talk to other people and their partner seems to get extremely jealous; they have injuries that they cannot seem to explain; and they give up things that they used to enjoy doing, like spending time with their friends and their families and other activities.

This resolution also reminds us that there are resources like the "Circle of 6" and "My Plan" apps as well as the National Dating Abuse Helpline, and it is available to help our children, our teens, our young adults identify whether they are in an abusive relationship. It will also help them to ask for assistance from friends, family, and trained professionals.

Before I conclude my remarks, I would like to ask this House to take a moment of silence and allow us to reflect on the victims and survivors of teen dating violence.

I again thank each and every one of my colleagues for recognizing the importance of February being "Teen Dating and Violence Awareness and Prevention Month" and the need to educate and take action to protect our young people across this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative McClinton.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. SCHLOSSBERG

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Schlossberg is recognized for an announcement.

Mr. SCHLOSSBERG. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The northeast Democrats will meet in the back of the chamber upon the conclusion of the session – at the first break for a very brief meeting. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Okay.

Members, we do have some other resolutions. I just had that in front of me, but if anybody else has any announcements for committees, I will do that now.

COMMITTEE MEETING CANCELED

The SPEAKER. Representative DiGirolamo.

Mr. DiGIROLAMO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to let the members know of the cancellation of the Human Services Committee meeting this Thursday in Philadelphia at the behest of Representative Angel Cruz. So that meeting on Thursday in Philadelphia, the Human Services Committee, will be canceled this week and rescheduled. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

HEALTH COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. Representative Matt Baker, for a committee announcement.

Mr. BAKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Health Committee that was scheduled for tomorrow has been canceled, but we will be meeting at the first break to move those bills in room G-50. Health Committee, room G-50, at the first break. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. There will be a Health Committee meeting at the first break in room G-50.

HOUSE SCHEDULE

The SPEAKER. Members, we do have some resolutions on the regular House calendar and on the supplemental regular House calendar.

Given the weather, we are going to continue operations for today, we are going to go through the calendar today, and we should do that in time for members to be able to go where needed, if you are going home or to other points of business.

But given the weather reports, we are not going to be in session tomorrow or Wednesday, we will not be in session tomorrow or Wednesday, and it is my understanding that any committee meetings – and the committee chairs are welcome to speak on the floor – but all committee meetings scheduled for tomorrow and/or Wednesday will be postponed to a future date. But we will get through the calendar today. And if any chairs wish to speak—

COMMITTEE MEETING CANCELED

The SPEAKER. Representative Hennessey, I believe. Representative Hennessey, you are recognized.

Mr. HENNESSEY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I will confirm, in light of your announcement, the House Aging and Older Adult Services Committee scheduled for Wednesday morning has been canceled. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. RYAN called up HR 48, PN 185, entitled:

A Resolution honoring the life and achievements of John Glenn and expressing condolences on his passing.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Ryan is recognized on HR 48.

Mr. RYAN. Mr. Speaker, thank you very much.

Mr. Speaker, normally in the United States Marine Corps when we honor a Marine, we would sound out "Attention to Orders," and then we would commence to read the citation.

Senator Glenn, a retired United States Marine Corps colonel, flew 149 combat missions, and one time during the political campaign, someone said, "How can you run for office when you have never held a job?" And as someone who has had the opportunity and privilege to make a casualty call to the family of a fallen Marine, there is no greater honor than to be able to recognize the distinguished career of such a great United States Marine, and I thank you for doing that today.

And by way of full note, I am honored to be able to be here today. Today at this hour, in about 5 minutes, is the 62d anniversary of my dad's death when I was 3 years old. So thank you for the chance to be with you all today, and let us honor a great United States Marine, Senator John Glenn.

The SPEAKER. Representative Rothman, you may proceed.

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, in the Marine Corps the term "semper fidelis" is a creed that we live by. It is two simple yet incredibly complex words. It is Latin for "always faithful."

Senator John Glenn remained eternally faithful to his first oath of office as a United States Marine throughout his military service from the 149 combat missions to downing 3 enemy aircraft to veterans issues to his time as an astronaut, and on a daily basis he served all veterans with distinction and honor. He serves again today, in eternal peace with all Marines who stand proudly guarding the gates of heaven until we meet again.

Semper fidelis, Marine; semper fidelis, Colonel; semper fidelis, Senator; semper fidelis, sir.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. TOBASH called up HR 74, PN 402, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing the 40th anniversary of the Porter Tunnel Mine Disaster on March 1, 2017.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Representative Mike Tobash is recognized.

Mr. TOBASH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise today to offer HR 74, a resolution and long-standing condolences to the families and friends of a group that congregated a few weeks ago on the 40th anniversary of a tragedy that occurred in Schuylkill County.

Here is what an account following the incident stated: "On Tuesday, March 1, 1977, at approximately 11:50 a.m., in the Porter Tunnel Mine, a thud was heard followed by a funnel shaped tornado of water. The inrush of water occurred causing the death of nine miners, injuries to three and entrapment of one who was eventually rescued. According to a personal recount by Ernest Morgan, one of the miners.... Suddenly, there was a" great "gust of wind, and they knew something unusual was happening, he looked toward the face of the airway and saw a wall of water coming their way. Following the inundation the rescue efforts began with the first body being recovered and removed to the surface at about 2:30 p.m. on March 1. At approximately 8:05 a.m. on March 6, those rescue efforts allowed Ronald Adley to escape and at 12:35 a.m. on March 30" – about 1 month later – "1977 the last body was brought to the surface."

Mr. Speaker, I remember the tragedy; I was 12 years old and our communities were shaken to the core. When you lose a loved one, it is difficult, but when a tragedy strikes and you are cast into the consciousness of an entire nation, I think it is impossible to understand what the families and friends of those victims went through.

Mr. Speaker, I am joined today by some friends, and I would like to ask them to rise: Beth Morgan Harman, Cathy Morgan Leitzel—

The SPEAKER. Members, please take your seats.

Hold on for a second. Please suspend.

If we could clear the back area there, guests are being introduced.

Mr. TOBASH. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir. Please start from the beginning with respect to your guests.

Mr. TOBASH. Thank you.

My guests, Beth Morgan Harman and Cathy Morgan Leitzel, they are daughters of one of the deceased victims, miners; Jeff Harman; Jean Fetterolf; and Carole Ney. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you so much, guests, for being with us today.

Mr. TOBASH. The deceased miners on that day – Gary Lee Ginger, Mark Kroh, Timothy Grose, Ronald Herb, Dennis Morgan, John Moyer, Ralph Renninger, Philip Sabatino, and Donald Schoffler.

Mr. Speaker, I offer this resolution so that my colleagues recognize and remember the work ethic, bravery, and dedication of a region and especially these hardworking men and their families.

Myself and Senator Argall will be working together to dedicate a State historical marker at the area of the disaster that will always be there to recognize a place of great significance for this Commonwealth and this country.

I am proud to represent an area and an industry that supported our nation through two world wars. Coal mining helped industrialize the greatest economy known to mankind, and this source of energy is still so vitally important to today's global economy.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Tobash.

Thank you, guests, for being here today to honor this 40th anniversary of that tragic disaster.

A Resolution honoring the legacy of Hannah Callowhill Penn, and designating March 12, 2017, as "Hannah Callowhill Penn Day" in Pennsylvania.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Representative Boback is recognized.

Ms. BOBACK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Thank you all of you who will support this resolution, which designates March 12 as "Hannah Callowhill Penn Day" in Pennsylvania.

William Penn, the founder of the Province of Pennsylvania, married Hannah in 1696. When William Penn became incapacitated by a stroke in 1712, Hannah Callowhill Penn governed the Province of Pennsylvania in his name and handled all of his financial and legal affairs for the next 6 years until he died in 1718. Following Penn's death, Hannah continued to govern Pennsylvania from England for another 8 years. At the time of his death, the colony was in financial debt, and that is when Hannah, through her strong leadership and fiscal management, was successful in restoring financial stability to the colony before she died in 1726.

As we honor March 2017 as Women's History Month, we recognize the leadership and achievements and contributions to this Commonwealth by the first woman who governed Pennsylvania, Hannah Callowhill Penn.

Thank you for your support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Boback.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

(Members proceeded to vote.)

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative Curtis THOMAS has requested to be placed on leave of absence. Without objection, that will be granted.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Members, this is a reminder – and we are going to actually, given the weather, see if we can get an extension for this week – this week is Charter Week. Today each of you will have the unique opportunity to go to the State Museum to see and photograph, if you would like, Pennsylvania's founding document known as Penn's Charter. In addition, you will have a rare opportunity to view the original Great Law, which is the series of statutes passed between December 4 and 7, 1682, during the Provincial Assembly's very first session 335 years ago.

Given the report of the weather, the snowstorm coming into this area and other areas of the State, we will check with the museum to see if next week that may be available as well.

And then another important point, members, rule 64, "Members Required to Be Present and Vote." As we move into votes on legislation later this afternoon, please remember this: "No member shall be permitted to vote and have his or her vote recorded on the roll unless present in the Hall of the House during the roll call vote." So I would ask all members, as we move to second and third consideration votes, to please be in their seats for those votes, and we will be working with the whips, the majority and the minority whips, with respect to the votes being taken.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Mike Reese has with him as guests Westmoreland County Commissioner Ted Kopas and his son, Alex. Where are they? Could they please rise. It is great to have you here today. Thank you so much for being with us today. We are honored. Thank you so much.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the majority Appropriations chair, Stan Saylor, for an announcement.

Mr. SAYLOR. Mr. Speaker, there will be an immediate meeting of the Appropriations Committee in the majority caucus room.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

The Appropriations Committee will meet immediately in the majority caucus room.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. Representative Marcy Toepel, the majority caucus chair, is recognized for an announcement.

Mrs. TOEPEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to announce that the Republicans will caucus at 2:30. We would be prepared to return to the floor at 4 o'clock.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. Representative Dan Frankel, the minority caucus chair, for an announcement.

Mr. FRANKEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Democrats will also caucus at 2:30. Democrats will caucus at 2:30.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. Members, at this time the House will stand in recess until 4 p.m., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER, Representative FITZGERALD, Representative DeLUCA, and Representative GAINNEY have requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, those will be granted.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE CANCELED

The SPEAKER. Representative Hal English is back on the House floor and will be placed back on the master roll.

Representative Frank Farry along with Representative Kristin Hill, Representative Patty Kim, please come to the well of the House and the Chair will recognize you.

Members, I would ask you to please take your seats. Members are going to be talking about a very tragic event, and I would ask everybody to please take their seats.

STATEMENT BY MS. KIM

Ms. KIM. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. You may proceed, Representative Kim. And Representative Dom Costa is also joining them.

Ms. KIM. Mr. Speaker, I rise with great sadness today along with my colleagues here today to share with you about an event that happened in my district over the weekend. Lt. Dennis DeVoe, a 21-year veteran of the Harrisburg Fire Department, a resident of the 93d District, was responding to a house fire on Friday evening. While he was in his personal car on his way to the fire department to pick up his gear, he was T-boned in an intersection by a drunk driver and died in the hospital 2 days later. In that same fire a 4-year-old girl jumped from a second-floor window to escape the fire and died a couple of days later in the hospital.

This has been a devastating weekend for the city of Harrisburg. Mr. Speaker, I ask that you will help think about and pray for the families of the victims, the Harrisburg Fire Department family, and the local responders that are always working well with the Harrisburg first responders to keep them in your thoughts and prayers as we try to climb out of this profound sadness.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MRS. HILL

The SPEAKER. Representative Phillips-Hill.

Mrs. HILL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Last weekend, as Representative Kim shared with you, we lost Denny DeVoe. He was a devoted husband and father of four children, and he lost his life in service to the Harrisburg community.

Denny graduated from Kennard-Dale High School down in southern York County and the 14th Fire Academy at Harrisburg Area Community College. He was also a member of the Pennsylvania Urban Search and Rescue, a State fire instructor at HACC and the York County Fire School.

It probably comes as no surprise to many of you that Denny was also a registered organ donor, and we pray that from his death others will realize a greater quality of life, just as the community surrounding Denny realized through his tireless efforts. One month ago Denny DeVoe was one of two firefighters who pulled a man from a burning house in the 1200 block of Kittatinny Street, and he said, "It's what we signed up for. I'd want someone to do that if it were one of my family members." That is the caliber of the person that Denny was and will be remembered as.

"Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." These words from the book of John are a fitting tribute to the life and dedication of this incredible man.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to remember. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MR. FARRY

The SPEAKER. Representative Frank Farry is recognized, please.

Mr. FARRY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On behalf of myself and fellow cochair Dom Costa from the Firefighters and Emergency Services Caucus, we wish to pass our condolences along to the DeVoe family. Mrs. DeVoe and their four children are obviously going through a very difficult time now as is the whole Harrisburg Bureau of Fire and our first responders across this Commonwealth.

When a first responder gives their life, the brother and sisterhood that transcends all of our services – police, fire, and EMS (emergency medical services) – you know, it is a blow to our heart when we hear these horrible stories. As a first responder, you never want to go from the rescuer to the rescued.

And as Lieutenant DeVoe was suffering through that terrible accident, his fellow Harrisburg Bureau firefighters were heroically rescuing three additional children from that fire. Those three children are still in critical and serious condition. So if we can also keep the Hughes family, who lost a 4-year-old and their remaining three children who are still hospitalized, in our thoughts and prayers in addition to the DeVoe family.

I believe the services are going to be announced very soon. But it is a tragic way to lose a first responder. But I think it shows the heart and integrity of the Harrisburg Bureau of Fire that as one of their colleagues, you know, lie in need of help himself, they were heroically rescuing these children under very extreme and tremendous conditions.

And sadly, Lieutenant DeVoe was actually responding from a funeral where a fellow firefighter was being laid to rest and that firefighter was one of two career firefighters in this Commonwealth that passed away from cancer in the last 2 weeks. So we also want to keep those family members in our thoughts and prayers. I know it has been a very, very tough couple of weeks for our career firefighters in this Commonwealth.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

Members, at this time I would ask everybody to stand for a moment of silence.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence was observed.)

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

At this time I am going to step off the rostrum and turn it over to Chairman Baker. I am going to give some remarks with respect to this bill, and then Chairman Baker will call on others who wish to speak.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
(MATTHEW E. BAKER) PRESIDING

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman, Mr. Roebuck, is recognized on HB 250, final passage.

Mr. ROEBUCK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As Pennsylvania faces continued budget challenges for the coming fiscal year, every dollar matters—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman please suspend.

I am sorry, Representative Roebuck. The gentleman, Mr. Turzai, is the maker of the bill and he would like to go first, and you will be second right after him. Thank you, sir.

Speaker Turzai, on final passage of his HB 250.

Mr. TURZAI. Thank you very much, Mr. Chair.

I really appreciate the opportunity. It is not often that I step off the rostrum. I think I have only done it twice before with respect to legislation.

I want to explain what this legislation does and make some points with respect to it.

HB 250 takes an existing program that began under Governor Ridge that has had bipartisan support, the educational improvement tax credit and the opportunity scholarship tax credit, and here is the crucial point. Anecdotally, yesterday I had the, or this past week, I had the honor of being in Philadelphia at the Comcast headquarters. Comcast has a program with Big Brothers Big Sisters, and in that program what they started is they have a mentoring program whereby employees of Comcast mentor with students from an adopted school, and with that adopted school, they started that program whereby folks in the workplace meet with the students that they mentor. Much of the opportunity to promote that is done through the EITC program. They are the Big Brothers Big Sisters. As Marcus Allen, the CEO (chief executive officer) of Big Brothers Big Sisters said, "We cannot thank you enough for continuing to keep EITC and OSTC in front of us because this is an opportunity."

That program, as you may know, has spread all across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and actually reaches out to students all across the country. It is making a difference. I had the opportunity to interact with those students, and one of them told me he was going to be Governor of the State. Others told me they wanted to go to Comcast and work there.

We also had the opportunity to go to the Harrisburg library, which has a similar afterschool program that makes use of EITC/OSTC. And many of the Independence Mission Schools which were saved, yes, they are parochial schools, but the vast majority of their students at the Independence Mission Schools in the city of Philadelphia do not have Catholic schoolchildren as the students in their school. Most are from a wide variety of other denominations. But they are making a difference in every child's life.

I want to talk to you a little bit about the budget. We have increased our spending significantly to record levels for public education, K through 12. But what has not kept pace are the opportunities for children to take advantage of a program like EITC or OSTC. The amount of money that we spend on public education from the State alone, not local, stands at record funding levels of over $11 billion. Let me give you the precise number, $11.889 billion.

The $175 million in tax credits that are offered up with respect to EITC and OSTC have not kept pace. They stand at less than just shy of 1.5 percent of the total amount that we spent in the '16-'17 budget. The '16-'17 budget is actually at $11.43 billion. The Governor's proposed '17-'18 budget is at $11.889 billion.

It seems to me that in keeping pace to provide opportunities for children in school districts under OSTC that are financially distressed and when there are EITC for all school districts, we should maintain the level of tax credits in a manner that at least gets us near 2 percent. We stand at 1.5 percent with respect to the $11.43 billion budget that we spent in '16-'17.

Let me also tell you a little bit about the distributions of those dollars today, the $175 million. Fifty million of that is OSTC, the opportunity scholarship tax credit; $125 million of that is EITC. That EITC, 60 percent of it, or $75 million, goes to K through 12 scholarship organizations; 30 percent of it, or $37.5 million of it, goes to the educational improvement organizations; and 10 percent of it, or $12.5 million, goes to pre-K scholarship organizations. That has been the makeup with respect to the EITC: sixty percent, or $75 million, to scholarship organizations; 30 percent going to EIOs, or $37.5 million; and pre-K scholarship organizations, $12.5 million. Keep in mind, public schools also can create scholarship organizations and many do with respect to afterschool programs.

The increase that we seek, commensurate with what the Governor is seeking in terms of increases in K through 12 under his '17-'18 budget, is to take from $175 million to $250 million, and that would mean $105 million under EITC would go to scholarship organizations, $52.5 million would go to EIO organizations, and $17.5 million would go to pre-K scholarship organizations.

I recently had the opportunity to talk to some of those students and their parents, and for them it was a life-changing opportunity. They wanted the opportunities to have that type of an education all across Pennsylvania and to be able to give families opportunities to have some choice.

As you know, out of the almost over 2 million students that we educate, over 1.7 million of those students are educated in public schools; over 240,000 are educated in private schools; and then some other number, which we do not have an exact count, are homeschooled. The fact of the matter is, public schools are always going to educate the vast majority of our students, and they are outstanding public schools throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and for many that is the best fit, and they do a great job.

And we have had significant increases in those line items. As you know, just in basic education alone, in basic education alone, we went from 2014 at $5.530 billion up to $5.890 billion, we went up from $5.530 billion. That is an increase of almost $400 million in just 2 years' time in just the basic education line. In the special education line we increased $1.04 billion to $1.09 billion, an increase of $50 million in the special education line. The Ready to Learn Block Grant went up from $200 million in '14-'15 to $250 million in '16-'17, an increase of $50 million. And with respect to the pension contributions to PSERS (Public School Employees' Retirement System), which impacts our public schools day in and day out, the increase from '14-'15 went from $1.15 billion to $2.064 billion. These are all significant increases.

The EITC/OSTC program is an opportunity to save lives, and it is 1.5 percent, 1.5 percent, of what we spend on public education. By taking up from $175 million to $250 million, we give a few more families the opportunities to make those choices.

This has always been bipartisan and has always had bipartisan support. It is important to keep in mind and I want to leave on this note that public school students also benefit significantly under the EITC program. Much of the $37.5 million that flows from the EIOs, or the educational improvement organizations, are nonprofit organizations that provide innovative educational programming specifically to the students enrolled in public schools. So when I speak to somebody like Marcus Allen, the CEO of Big Brothers Big Sisters, who is making a significant difference in kids' lives, that is why he is out there so supportive of the increase to EITC and OSTC, to keep pace with the Governor's suggested increases in '17-'18 in the K through 12 lines, which we have done over the last 2 years and which he wishes to do again this year.

I suspect there is going to be once again bipartisan support for that. I would hope that there is bipartisan support for the EITC/OSTC, because guess what? It is only fair. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Roebuck, on final passage.

Mr. ROEBUCK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As Pennsylvania faces continued budget challenges for the coming fiscal year, every dollar matters, particularly for the students in our public schools. The State is challenged to close an estimated $716 million in revenue in this year's budget and is looking at a growing structural deficit of nearly $3 billion.

We are required under the Pennsylvania Constitution to, and I quote, "...provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of public education..." – "...a thorough and efficient system of public education..." I believe that education funding for public schools must be our first priority as is made clear by the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Now is not the time for the General Assembly to redirect tax dollars into programs that largely benefit private, nonpublic schools. A $75 million increase in funding for the EITC/OSTC programs will shift limited State funds away from public school districts by siphoning valuable dollars from the General Fund via tax credits that could otherwise be used for public schools. As a result, millions of dollars will not be available to fund the basic education subsidy that goes to school districts to provide instruction and educational services for the 1.8 million students in the Pennsylvania public schools.

The Governor, recognizing our budgetary challenges, has only proposed a $100 million increase in basic education funding. If we were to enact the $100 million basic education increase and this added $75 million increase in the EITC/OSTC programs, it would mean a combined increase of $115 million for public schools that educate 90 percent of our State's children and a $60 million increase for nonpublic schools that only educate 10 percent of our State's children. That is, let me say that again, $115 million for 90 percent; $60 million for 10 percent.

That is not fair. It is inequitable funding for our public school students. It does not fulfill our constitutional duty to fund the public education system. It is a duty to which you are bound by the Constitution, to which we affirmed our commitment when we were sworn in in January. To do anything else would in fact be to neglect our primary responsibility as elected officials and to our children in the Commonwealth.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Vitali, on final passage. He waives off.

The gentleman, Mr. Carroll, is recognized on final passage.

Mr. CARROLL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, $75 million. I just witnessed, as many of you did, 3 weeks of budget hearings where there was all sorts of hand-wringing over revenues and expenditures, yet somehow we have today an additional $75 million.

Maybe the Penn vet school could use $30 million. Maybe the institutional assistance grants could be refunded at full amount with an additional $13 million. Maybe our pupil transportation could be provided funding with the additional $50 million that was cut. Those three lines alone, Mr. Speaker, approximate the $75 million that members want to appropriate today.

Traditionally, Mr. Speaker, about 70 percent of our school districts raise property taxes, the most lamented and hated tax of all in this State. Yet somehow we will direct $75 million to a worthy cause, while 70 percent of our school districts again raise property taxes. Mr. Speaker, I truly do not know how we reconcile an additional $75 million at a moment in time when painful cuts are on the horizon and yet another annual round of property tax increases stare us in the face.

I think, Mr. Speaker, the smart thing to do is to include this discussion of EITC and OSTC in the budget discussion and consider, as we should, the effect that these decisions have on our local property taxes and the decisions that school boards across this State will have to make.

If we really do have an additional $75 million, every family that sends a student to a private school will benefit if we minimize the property tax increase, and we will direct that money across the board throughout a school district, not just to a few families.

Mr. Speaker, I think it is time to put a pause to HB 250. Let us consider the totality of what we are doing here today in the world of education. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Sturla, on final passage.

Mr. STURLA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, the program that the Speaker is trying to affect has been something that has had bipartisan support for many years.

But I must take exception with some of the calculations that the Speaker made when he talked about the fact that going to $250 million is only a tiny percentage of the $12 billion, nearly $12 billion total that gets spent on public education. What he fails to point out is the $250 million that he is proposing comes entirely from State funds and the $12 billion that he says gets spent on public education comes from State and local funds. So when you only take the State funds that we put into public education and then take the $250 million and say, what percentage is that, it is a much higher percentage than the 1.5 percent that he cited.

The Representative from Philadelphia pointed out that only about 10 percent of the kids are enrolled in private education and 90 percent are in the public schools. But even fewer than that 10 percent that are enrolled in private education actually benefit from these scholarship programs. It is a small percentage of that 10 percent that benefits from these scholarship programs. And as was pointed out by the last speaker, so then we are taking $75 million and having it go to 1 or 2 percent of the total students in the State and saying to the other 98 or 99 percent of students in the State, you get the $100 million increase that is proposed in the budget, oh, by the way, but we are taking $50 million back out of transportation costs, so really, you get $50 million. So the 98 percent of the students in this State will get less of an increase than the 1 or 2 percent that are looking to gain from this $75 million.

Mr. Speaker, in a State where we have inequitable funding for education, this is probably the most inequitable way we could possibly fund education in the State of Pennsylvania, and I believe, as was said, it is time that we put a stop to the bleeding here and look at education in its totality, not just in one favored line item.

I encourage a "no" vote. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Pashinski, on final passage.

Mr. PASHINSKI. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, just a few words here. In 10 years that we have had this EITC program going, I have supported it every year. This year is a little difficult, and the reason I say that is, where? Where are we going to get the money for this program? As we look at the budget for this year, there is no $75 million in it for this program that the budget has proposed. The Governor has not proposed that.

So I am going to direct the same question that was directed to us when we wanted to increase funding for education to my colleagues on the other side of the aisle, and the question always came back to us, where are you going to get the money? If we are $3 billion in the hole or $2 billion in the hole and the Governor has presented a budget that does not account for this $75 million for this EITC program and OSTC program, then where are we going to get the money if we have no new dollars coming into the system?

The only place that that can happen is by taking this money from other programs within our budget. So before we could even consider a vote on this, we need to understand where these dollars will come from. The word is where. Where will the dollars come from? If we were not in debt, if we had no problems, if education, if public education, our responsibility, was fully funded, was funded at the 50-percent rate, this could be considered.

Our public schools have not recovered yet from the huge cut back in 2011-2012. Some say a billion; some say $900 million. Pick out whatever you want. We have not recovered from that deficit since 2011-12.

It is true, last year the Governor did a good job and this House did a good job of trying to restore some of those funds and relieve the burden of the tax dollars on our local school districts. They are the ones that are carrying the load.

So before this bill can be considered, the answer to the question, where will this money come from? What present line items do we have now that will be defunded in order to fund the EITC program must be answered. As I said, for 10 years I have supported that system. This year I cannot until we see where that $75 million is coming from.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Santora, on final passage.

Mr. SANTORA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I think what has to be considered here is the impact that these nonpublic schools who receive these scholarships have on our public school system. If these schools were to close, as in 2012 in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia when 4 high schools and potentially 18 elementary schools were going to close, if these families were to lose these scholarships or more scholarships were not made available, those children would be in our public schools. Some of our public schools are overcrowded. Some of our class sizes are way too big for today's standards. That would just get worse without the scholarships that these children receive.

Of an average $1800 per scholarship, that puts 21,000 kids at risk. If we do not increase the amount of the scholarship dollars and keep those students in the nonpublic schools, we will be funding a lot more to our public schools at an average of $15,000 per student because they will have nowhere to go.

We have got to consider both sides of this. This is a $75 million increase this year. This is not something that gets done on an annualized basis. But it is a good contribution to a program that is very successful with bipartisan support for many years.

I fully support this $75 million increase, as I do support each increase we have done in our public schools.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Mr. Saylor, on final passage.

Mr. SAYLOR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I just wanted to rise to correct the record. Earlier the gentleman from Lancaster stated that between local and State taxes we spend $12 billion in education. We spend $12 billion of State taxpayers' dollars on education every year here in Pennsylvania, and the tax credit that is being offered in this bill is exactly that, a tax credit, not necessarily a spending issue. And more importantly, even if we approve this bill, it would only total 2.1 percent of the total education budget that is out there.

So when you look at the neighborhoods that I have been in as former Education chairman where kids are going to schools that are full of drugs and criminal activity and abuse, these schools save those children. That is why it is so critically important that this particular area and this tax credit be granted. Children in this Commonwealth, no matter whether they are in good neighborhoods or bad neighborhoods, deserve a quality education. This tax credit grants that opportunity for all children to get a quality education, not just those who come from privileged neighborhoods.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Paul Costa, on final passage.

Mr. P. COSTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Like so many other speakers before me had said that they support, in the past have supported the EITC, I am also one of those. I am actually a big advocate of tax credits, including the film tax credit as most of you already know.

But my issue here today is, I have a school district that I represent, which is the Woodland Hills School District. They are proposing a tax increase on their property. I am getting phone calls and e-mails every single day complaining about how we do not have the funding to give the school district. And I am afraid that if we are going to use $75 million for the EITC instead of going to public schools, that is not the right route that we should go now. If we happen to come up with some additional money, then I could see expanding the EITC. But until that time, unfortunately, I am going to have to vote "no" on this. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the minority chair of the House Appropriations Committee, Mr. Markosek.

Mr. MARKOSEK. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Very briefly, Mr. Speaker, we just finished the budget hearings, as you know, and the Independent Fiscal Office was first up on the list and told us that we have anywhere pretty close to a $3 billion hole in the budget, so – and this is a year where we really cannot afford to do a lot of things that we would all like to do. I know the Speaker and I give him a lot of credit for introducing a bill that does a lot of the good things that I have supported over many, many years, but that is all fine and dandy when you have the money, and this is a year we simply do not have the money.

If we pass this and if this would pass and there is extra money for EITC and OSTC, without raising revenue it will have to come out of some existing program. So we all have our lists, and they are all pretty big, of all the great programs that we provide for our people here in Pennsylvania, whether they are within the education community or the health-care community or the senior citizen community, but we only have a finite amount of money to spend on those.

So we just gave the EITC/OSTC program an increase in this current year budget. They got an increase. So I think unless we have new revenue, we should not be talking about raising any program by the amount that is suggested here today with HB 250.

And I will just add also that today in our committee meeting we passed a bill sponsored by the gentleman from Westmoreland relative to performance-based budgeting where we take a look at all the things that we do in the budget and see how they are performing and see if the money that we spent on them is really accurate and a good thing. We are doing this without the performance-based budgeting, without the thing that our own colleague has suggested. We are just doing this without actually looking to see where this money is, how well it is being spent, and the programs that it is being spent on.

So I would suggest and I reluctantly would stand up here and say that, you know, we need to vote "no" on this and then we need to find additional revenue to do this program and do all the other programs that we so need to do here in this year's budget. Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the Speaker, the maker of the bill, for the second time, on final passage.

Mr. TURZAI. I applaud each and every member of this chamber because everybody in this chamber cares about the future of our kids and where they are educated, and we all know that one size does not fit all.

As you know, the Governor seeks an increase with respect to just even the seven primary lines in our budget, pre-K through 12 for State spending from the '16-'17 budget to the '17-'18 budget, an increase in just those seven lines – basic education funding, special education, Ready to Learn, pupil transportation, nonpublic charter transportation, school employees' Social Security, school employees' retirement – in just those lines an increase of over $350 million, an increase of an appropriation of over $350 million, and then if you take the other education lines that go and deal with K through 12, it is another $100 million on top of that. So it is well over a $400 million increase from '16-'17 to '17-'18.

Many of you are going to be asking all of us on both sides of the aisle to support that kind of an increase, and those discussions have been had over the last 2 years. As I indicated, we have already increased basic education funding in '14-'15 at $5.526 billion up to $5.895 billion. These are off the revenue side, not on the expenditure side. They are not appropriations.

The key here is to keep a pace. In the Governor asking for well over $400 million more in public education, well over $12 billion, record spending on public education from Harrisburg, this is an infinitesimal amount with respect to helping in particular at-risk students and students where one size does not fit all. It is a tax credit on the revenue side, and it is designed, along with the Governor's discussion – he got to come here, have an address to the chambers – this is an opportunity to set the table and say, let us not forget, in our education policy, let us not forget about those programs that have benefited others in either educational improvement organizations like Big Brothers Big Sisters or like an inner-city Catholic school like the Independence Mission Schools in Philadelphia.

This is balanced. We know that. We have been in the last 2 years talking about how to improve public education, how to improve education outside of public education so that each and every child from every family gets his or her best opportunity that suits him. This is reasonable, this is responsible, and this helps us to set up the robust discussion that the Governor began.

He did not talk about EITC or OSTC in his proposal with respect to where we are headed on education policy for the kids in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I would ask you to support those teachers. You know what they get paid in many of these schools or those volunteers in the employment, in the educational improvement organizations, to support those folks and give them an opportunity to continue the missions that they do along with the continued increases that the Governor has called for in education. You want to bring everybody to the table; here is the opportunity to bring everybody to the table. I would ask each and every one of you in a bipartisan fashion to please vote "yes." Thank you.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman and recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Jordan Harris, on final passage.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today and I actually do support this legislation and will be voting "yes," but what I do not support is the characterization that we have had of public schools across this Commonwealth by previous speakers. I do not think we should make support for this piece of legislation over supporting our public schools. The comment about our public schools being drug-ridden and crime-filled, I think do not give an accurate account for schools across this Commonwealth, and quite honestly, I think that if folks are that concerned about those schools, then folks should put up the votes for additional funding for those schools as well.

So while I will be supporting this legislation, I do not support those comments and I think we need to watch what we say when we come to the floor, when we are talking about the hardworking men and women that go into our public schools every single day and try to teach our young people against all odds in some situations. Many of our schools are not drug-infested, many of our schools do not have a high number of violence in them, and it does a disservice when we stand on this floor and characterize those schools as such.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Ordered, That the clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

The SPEAKER. Thank you, members.

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 57, PN 169, entitled:

An Act amending Title 23 (Domestic Relations) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in adoption, further providing for definitions, for hearing and for petition for involuntary termination, providing for notice if identity or whereabouts of parent or putative father unknown, further providing for consents necessary to adoption and repealing provisions relating to consents not naming adopting parents.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?

Bill was agreed to.

(Bill analysis was read.)

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Representative Vitali.

Mr. VITALI. I am requesting interrogation and asking the prime sponsor to give a brief explanation.

The SPEAKER. The good gentleman from Bucks County will respond to your interrogation. Representative Vitali, you may proceed, sir.

Mr. VITALI. Could you give us a brief explanation of this bill?

Mr. PETRI. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

This bill streamlines the process for notice after, or I should say, for diligent searches after the initial diligent search is made and allows the orphans' court judge presiding over the case discretion to streamline the process. Thank you.

Mr. VITALI. I am sorry. I did not hear any of that.

Mr. PETRI. Mr. Speaker, this bill gives the orphans' court judge who is presiding over the case some discretion in streamlining the process after the initial diligent searches are made. Thank you.

Mr. VITALI. And how would it affect either the rights of the biological mother or the putative father with regard to notice or the ability to revoke consent to adoption?

Mr. PETRI. The bill maintains the requirement of a diligent search, and in fact, as a result of the good lady's efforts from Philadelphia, it enumerates so that every court is following the same procedure and provides 12 steps to make sure that the putative father has notice.

Mr. VITALI. Okay. Thank you. I have no other questions.

The SPEAKER. Representative Petri, on the bill? Okay.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.

The SPEAKER. The good gentleman, Representative Petri, has indicated he will so do.

Mr. VITALI. I am trying to get at how this might affect the time period that the biological mother or the putative father has to withdraw their consents relating to an adoption, how it varies from existing law.

Mr. PETRI. Mr. Speaker, existing law is 30 days from the date the consent is signed. If this bill is adopted, it would become 14 days, so my math suggests it shortens it by 16 days.

RESOLUTION

Mr. KAUFER called up HR 43, PN 166, entitled:

A Resolution condemning the passage of the United Nations Security Council Resolution 2334.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. There are some amendments offered by Representative Bradford.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BRADFORD offered the following amendment No. A00198:

Amend Resolution, page 2, line 22, by inserting after "resolution" and a copy of House Resolution No. 32 (2017), adopted January 25, 2017,

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative Bradford, if you would not mind, please give us a summary of the amendment, and then also any remarks you have are appropriate at this time as well.

Mr. BRADFORD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This resolution has many parts, but one thing I thought could improve upon it is simply adding a copy of HR No. 32. As the body may recall, HR 32 was passed unanimously by this body, offered by Representative Neilson, recognizing Holocaust Memorial Day in Pennsylvania. I believe it is straightforward in recognizing the death of 6 million Jews in the Holocaust, but it seems appropriate at this time that we add it to this resolution.

As you know, in these difficult days in which anti-Semitism sadly is on the rise here in our nation and there are those who would deny the existence of the Holocaust, especially how it affected 6 million Jews worldwide, it seems appropriate that we attach this resolution and make clear that here in Pennsylvania the Holocaust deniers and those who would engage in that type of behavior have no place.

I am glad to include it with the resolution which makes clear that the U.N. (United Nations) Security Council, sad as it is to say, has a history of engaging in behavior that, I believe, is anti-Semitic at least, dating back to their days of equating Zionism with a form of racism. I think that all forms of anti-Semitism should be equally denied. I believe Pennsylvania's legislative body has a good record and it should be proud to say that HR 32, offered by Representative Neilson and passed unanimously by this body, is part of that track record, part of that history. And so while we will call out the U.N. Security Council for its anti-Semitic positions in its history of engaging in behavior that we find inappropriate and one-sided towards the great State of Israel, we will also point out to those in any parts, in any quarters, who will deny the Holocaust.

So this resolution is part of that, and I am glad to offer this amendment for that reason. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Representative Justin SIMMONS has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

CONSIDERATION OF HR 43 CONTINUED

GERMANENESS QUESTIONED

The SPEAKER. Representative Kaufer, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. KAUFER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank the gentleman for his amendment. While I do appreciate what he is trying to do, I do not believe that this is germane. It does not address the underlying resolution. The underlying resolution addresses a U.N. resolution passed last year. What he is trying to put into this amendment is in regard to a completely separate House resolution, HR 32, and I move that this amendment is not germane.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Representative Kaufer, the maker of the resolution, has raised the question of whether amendment 198 is germane. Under House rule 27, questions involving whether an amendment is germane to the subject shall be decided by the House.

On the question,
Will the House sustain the germaneness of the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes Representative Bradford. It is my understanding that—

Representative Bradford, you may proceed.

Mr. BRADFORD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I believe this germaneness motion is really a cop-out. It is a cop-out from our obligation here to say once and for all to the U.N. Security Council that has too often picked on the State of Israel, that has not stood squarely with Israel, that tries to engage in these same kinds of parliamentary procedures.

Look; we live in a time right now where our own White House put out a resolution that failed to mention the death of 6 million Jews in the Holocaust. Do we want to do in the Pennsylvania House what was roundly condemned by the ADL (Anti-Defamation League) and other institutions that said hate has no place?

We want to say we stand with Israel. We stand against anti-Semitism, whether it is historical or current day. We stand against it in the United States. We stand against it in the Security Council. It is wrong. There is no place for it. We can do better.

Now, we can hide behind parliamentary tricks, which is the right of this body. We can put up a vote and do what we all know is wrong in our hearts and appease some political quarters. But what is the right thing to do is call out anti-Semitism. It is right to say to those, whether they are in the White House or in the Security Council, you will not deny that 6 million Jews were killed in the Holocaust. You will do right by history and you will do right in this legislative body. There is no time to cop out. It is time to say to history what happened happened, and we here in the Pennsylvania legislature stand by our unanimous vote of just a few weeks ago. We condemn this type of behavior. We condemn it at the Security Council. We condemn it, period.

The SPEAKER. It is my understanding then, just to clarify to the members, that this amendment is asking for everybody to vote on a resolution that they have already unanimously voted in favor of. Everybody here has already unanimously voted for the amendment that the gentleman is trying to attach to this resolution. My understanding is that was unanimously passed on January 25 of 2017. So it was unanimously passed and everybody stood together on that particular amendment.

Now, any discussions with respect to germaneness must be limited to the motion in question and there is only one opportunity to speak.

Representative Kaufner, the floor is yours.

Mr. KAUFNER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This was something that we have already passed. This has nothing to do with the specific resolution that is underlying. We all in this body stand for acknowledgement that the Holocaust happened, I do not think there is anyone here that does not, and to be out here grandstanding on this issue when it is not pertinent to the issue that is under way, I would encourage my members that this is not germane and it is not indicative of the underlying resolution.

The SPEAKER. All those who believe it is germane will vote "aye"; all those who do not believe it is germane will vote "nay."

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the germaneness of the amendment?

Less than the majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was declared not germane.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Rest assured, however, that you all voted for the underlying amendment unanimously on January 25, 2017.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BRADFORD offered the following amendment
No. A00199:

Amend Resolution, page 1, lines 1 and 2, by striking out all of said lines and inserting

Continuing to affirm our strong bipartisan support for United States friend and ally, the State of Israel.

Amend Resolution, page 1, lines 3 through 16; page 2, lines 1 through 21; by striking out all of said lines on said pages and inserting

WHEREAS, The United States stands with its ally, Israel, as it has historically; and

WHEREAS, The United States condemns acts of political violence and terrorism against Israel; and

WHEREAS, The United States recognizes the biased treatment that Israel has frequently received in the United Nations; and

WHEREAS, The United States reaffirms its support of a two-state solution by facilitating direct, bilateral negotiations between both parties; and

WHEREAS, The United States reaffirms its support for a secure democratic Jewish state of Israel living side-by-side and at peace with its neighbors as the best way to achieve a lasting and permanent peace for the good of all parties; and

WHEREAS, The United States reaffirms that no nation or organization can dictate terms of a final settlement; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the current presidential administration and any future presidential administrations to continue to support our friend and ally, the State of Israel; and be it further

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative, you may proceed on the amendment.

Mr. BRADFORD. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment seeks to replace some of the language, in fact, in large part some of the language that was offered by Representative Kaufer for one simple reason, and I think you saw it played out in the last amendment.

There are those who want to play politics with the Israel-U.S. relationship right now, and that is unfortunate. America's support for Israel is long-standing, it is deep, it is bipartisan, it is unflinching, and it carries on from the day of the inception of the State of Israel until today. Unfortunately, resolutions like this seek to create a political division where one need not exist. Now, I will be the first to admit that the Pennsylvania House State Government Committee, which I have the privilege of being the Democratic chair in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, is probably not the most learned body on issues of international law. In fact, I am willing to bet that House Security Council Resolutions 242 passed in 1967, 338 passed in 1973, 446 in '79, 452 in '79, 465 in '80, 476 in '80, 478 in 1980, 1397 in 2002, 1515 in 2003, and 1850 in 2008 are probably not as well studied in this body as EITC and OSTC, but by incorporation, the resolution in front of you that the gentleman offers would incorporate our opinion on long-standing United States and international policy.

Now, I have already stated unequivocally in the past amendment offering that I believe the U.N. Security Council is the wrong body to dictate terms for peace in the Middle East. But I am equally sure that this body is no more capable of handling issues of Middle East peace than pretty much any other body in the world. But there are some who believe that we should step into—

The SPEAKER. Representative, if you could please suspend. We are just on germaneness here.

Mr. BRADFORD. No; we are off—

The SPEAKER. Are we off of that? Are we still on the amendment? Oh. That is my fault; my fault.

But, Representative Bradford, have we had a concise summary of the amendment?

Mr. BRADFORD. Well, I must tell you, Mr. Speaker, we are literally talking about issues of Middle East peace. They have taken 60 years. They are so important the current President put his son-in-law important. These are the top issues of peace in the world today. I must tell you they are germane. These are issues that are so important you are going to get – and the U.N. Security Council has not figured it out in 60 years.

The SPEAKER. I guess I preceded the motion that I thought might be being made, or maybe hoping that was going to be made.

Mr. BRADFORD. Mr. Speaker, I think you want to be leader.

The SPEAKER. I think the resolution is very simple, but please just give us a succinct summary, not of world history, but of just this amendment, and then I am going to turn it over to the maker of the resolution.

Mr. BRADFORD. With all due respect, I will try to stick with your admonition.

But when this body wants to dictate terms of Middle East peace, I think it should tread lightly. Let us be clear. This has become laughable. This body is not capable of judging whether the U.N. Security Council vote in a prior administration was the right one. We can argue it till the cows come home. So what this amendment simply does is state what we can all agree on, Democrat and Republican. We support Israel. We condemn terrorism. We condemn incitement. We believe in a two-State solution, a peaceful and democratic State of Israel, Jewish and at peace with its neighbors. That is without any doubt the goal of every administration. Even the current administration was against it before it was for it, and now it is for it again. Everybody is for this two-State solution for peace.

So let us step aside from cheap political rhetoric to divide us among Democrats and Republicans and let us stand with the State of Israel.

The SPEAKER. Please suspend.

I am sorry. But "cheap political rhetoric" is an insult to the maker of this resolution and it is completely inappropriate under our rules.

This gentleman is standing here very earnest about the resolution in front of us, which specifically states, and I am going to read the conclusion, that the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the current Presidential administration and any future Presidential administrations to continue to support our friend and ally the State of Israel.

Now, we do not need, we do not need, we do not need anybody to lecture or to challenge anybody else's motives. You believe that your amendment is appropriate. You are talking about your amendment. State with respect to the positive aspects of your amendment, and do not in any way question the maker of this particular resolution's motives.

Please, there is no cheap political rhetoric. He has not even had an opportunity to speak. Please continue on your amendment, and then let us get to the maker's approach to his amendment and why he does or does not support your amendment.

Mr. BRADFORD. Mr. Speaker, I do want to be clear. I would never want to impugn the maker of this. I believe that his support of the State of Israel is sincere and I believe it is shared. In fact, that is why I offer this alternative, because rather than us lining up as blue and red and standing who is more pro-Israel, what I say is, let us agree on the common principles. I do not think that is impugning. What I think that is saying is, to those who would use – not the gentleman – but those who would use these arguments between difficult decisions that the President of the United States has had to make about how to handle matters in the U.N. Security Council, a flawed body, admittedly so, but how we deal with that. That is not to impugn character, and I would never do that and I do not want the gentleman for a second to believe that to be the case. This is a good and honest and earnest man who supports the State of Israel. I share that. I believe we all do.

So I offer this alternate language that I believe is better in stating that we condemn incitement, we condemn terrorism, we support a Jewish State of Israel, democratic and at peace with its neighbors, a two-State solution. That is part of American policy since probably anybody in this body was born.

So I offer this amendment and I come forward to say, let us support this alternative language that I am sure will get unanimous support and let us turn away from those who would use the type of divisive rhetoric that would make support of Israel something other than what it has always been: unanimous, bipartisan, for all time. Let us stand with the State of Israel and support this alternative language. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir.

Representative Aaron Kaufer, on the amendment, sir.

Mr. KAUFER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Let me first start off by saying that I strongly oppose this amendment. The maker of the amendment said at one point that – he said something along the lines that we all agree in a two-State solution. In order to have a two-State solution, you have to have both sides that recognize that even the other one exists, and we do not have that today. One side does not even exist, that the State of Israel has a right to exist. I agree that resolutions are politicized in the U.S.-Israel relationship, but it is not this resolution, it is the one passed by the U.N.

It is hard for me to stand up here as somebody is joking about Middle East peace, joking about it, and it is an issue that is wholly serious. In the current resolution, and I quote, "decades of political maneuvering have created a disproportionate number of resolutions, reports and committees against Israel," according to the former Secretary General Ban Ki-moon.

I do not believe that this amendment is the right one, and I would urge my colleagues to vote "no." Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Does anybody else wish to be recognized on the amendment?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Less than the majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Representative Vitali, you may proceed, sir.

Mr. VITALI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I agree with the gentleman from Montgomery County that it is totally inappropriate for this body to be considering whether or not to condemn a United Nations resolution. That is just not what we have been elected for. That is not what we have been trained to do. We really should not be doing this. But as rank-and-file members, we need to vote what is in front of us, and having said that, I just want to add a couple of facts to the situation. HR 43 asks us to condemn this U.N. resolution, and I did, in fact, pull up a copy of U.N. Resolution 2334 and just wanted to add a little to this.

We are being asked to condemn a resolution that has been unanimously, unanimously supported by the U.N. Security Council. I just wanted to state some of the reasons why the members of that Security Council voted for, by a 14-to-nothing vote, this resolution we are being asked to condemn. This is what the French Ambassador said about the resolution we are being asked to condemn, that the Security Council had clearly stated the obvious, that settlement activities undermined a two-State solution. So France supported the resolution we are asked to condemn.

This is what the British Ambassador said – they supported this – that Israel's settlement expansion was "corroding the possibility" of a lasting peace in the Middle East. He supported this resolution; we are asked to condemn it.

This is what John Kerry, our U.S. Secretary of State, said – the resolution we are being asked to condemn – he said this "rightly condemns violence and incitement and settlement activity...."

Germany, again, supported the resolution we are being asked to condemn, stating that Israeli settlement of occupied territory is an obstacle to peace and a two-State solution.

Norway: "It is important that Israel complies with it," this resolution, "because the settlements are in violation of international law."

And Sweden and on and on.

It is also important to note that during the previous administration there have been more than 100,000 additional settlers in this occupied territory.

So although I do not think we ought to be voting on this resolution – I do not think we are trained to do it; I do not think it is appropriate for us – I do think what we are being asked to condemn has been universally supported in the international community.

The SPEAKER. Representative Kaufer.

Representative Kaufer, before you speak, does anybody else wish to speak before the maker of the resolution?

Representative Kaufer, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. KAUFER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Just to correct the record, it was a 14-nothing with one abstention, and I think that one abstention is what is important to this underlying resolution. I just wanted to make sure that that was of record. And this resolution also did pass unanimously in the State Government Committee, just for the record. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I urge a "yes" vote.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

(Members proceeded to vote.)

The SPEAKER. Members who are present on the floor do need to vote.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

STATEMENT BY MR. KAUFER

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Aaron Kaufert is recognized on unanimous consent.

Mr. KAUFER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank my colleagues for passage of HR 43.

I just want to draw an important parallel. Today is known as Shushan Purim in the city of Jerusalem, in Israel. In the book of Esther, King Ahasuerus gave the Jews of the ancient Persian capital city of Shushan an extra day to uproot the evil followers of the wicked Haman who sought to annihilate the Jews. Today Shushan Purim honors the historic and eternal bond between Jerusalem and the Jewish people, and I just want to mark the significance of the resolution passing today. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

The SPEAKER. Representative MATZIE has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE CANCELED

The SPEAKER. Representative Vitali is present on the House floor and will be added to the master roll.

BILL ON SECOND CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to second consideration of HB 27, PN 350, entitled:

An Act amending Title 44 (Law and Justice) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, adding provisions for law enforcement activities by providing for release of law enforcement officer information when firearm discharged or use of force.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. Now, there are a number of amendments on this particular bill. I am going to begin with Representative Dawkins, who has three amendments. The Chair will start with Representative Dawkins' amendments 188, 200, and 201.

Representative Dawkins, the Chair will begin with 188, if that is okay with you, amendment 188.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. DAWKINS offered the following amendment No. A00188:

Amend Bill, page 3, line 11, by striking out "thirty" and inserting five

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes Representative Dawkins, who will give us a brief summary of the amendment and is permitted to speak on the amendment itself.

Mr. DAWKINS. Mr. Speaker, thank you.

I rise today for members to support amendment 00188, which would reduce the number of days in which you will be able to release the name of an officer from 30 days to 5 days. In committee, the Judiciary Committee, I actually spoke about reducing the number of days. I did believe that there should be some buffer between the time of an incident and when that officer's name should be released, just so we allow folks' tension to kind of decrease, but I do believe 30 days may be too long. So I am asking members to support a reduction of those days from 30 to 5.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Dawkins. Does anybody else wish to speak on the amendment?

Representative White, on the amendment.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This is not an agreed-to amendment. The language in the bill is designed the same way that it was last session, and I urge our members to continue the support that was there before and not have any additional amendments, including this one, on the legislation.

I urge a "no" vote. Thank you.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

The SPEAKER. On that question, the Chair recognizes Representative Dawkins.

Mr. DAWKINS. Thank you again, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to withdraw the last two amendments that I have on this particular bill. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir. Thank you.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. Representative Joanna McClinton has two amendments, amendment 202 and amendment 203. Representative McClinton, the Chair will call on 202 first, unless you would prefer the other amendment.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Ms. McCLINTON offered the following amendment
No. A00202:

Amend Bill, page 3, line 18, by inserting after "rules"
or a court order after petition by the officer's employing agency

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. Representative McClinton is recognized on that question, on amendment 202.

Ms. McCLINTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise this evening asking that you would support amendment 00202. This amendment will change the bill in that it will permit the release of the identifying information of the officer pursuant to a court order, if the officer's employing agency pursues for that court order. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative White, on amendment 202.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I ask that the members vote "no" on this particular amendment. There are no standards associated with the court order, and therefore, it would be very difficult for a judge to even determine how to initiate one in this particular amendment.

So therefore, I urge a "no" vote. Thank you.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

On the question recurring,

Ms. McCLINTON offered the following amendment
No. A00203:

Amend Bill, page 2, line 29, by striking out all of said line and inserting of the investigation if:

(i) the law enforcement officer is

Amend Bill, page 3, line 1, by striking out the period after "force" and inserting

; or

(ii) the law enforcement officer was the subject of another official investigation into the discharge of a firearm or use of force resulting in serious bodily injury.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes Joanna McClinton on that amendment.

Ms. McCLINTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment is different from the last one, so I am seeking support from all of my colleagues here. For amendment 00203, this will actually require the disclosure of the officer's identifying information if the officer was subject to another official investigation into the use of force or the discharge of a firearm resulting in serious bodily injury.

The reason why I am asking for support on this one is because, unfortunately, we know that there are always a few bad apples. Police brutality is not something that went out with the sixties. It still happens and it particularly happens more in communities of color, where I serve both in Philadelphia and Delaware Counties, than others. So if this is a repeated incident or someone who has had founded challenges in their internal investigation file, the public has a right to know. This information should not be kept secret. There should be no veil. People should be able to access the truth. That is all we are trying to find out here. Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative McClinton.

Representative White, on that amendment, please.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I urge a "no" vote on this particular amendment as well. There really is no exception to release of the identity, even if the previous investigation determined that the officer acted appropriately. So therefore, the amendment really needs to be voted down, unlike another amendment I will mention in a bit. Thank you.

I urge a "no" vote. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Dom Costa, on the amendment, please.

Mr. D. COSTA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I stand as a "no" vote on this, and maybe I can cut some time out.

The bill clearly states the district attorney, the Attorney General of this Commonwealth, and any county, any district attorney can release the name at any time. The idea of that whole concept is that the district attorney is the one that will be prosecuting the officer or the case. So I do not feel comfortable with any mayor, any chief, or any elected official other than those two, which are both elected officials, releasing that information, because they have the knowledge to know what is needed and what is not needed. And if there is a prior case with an officer, I am sure it would have come out, because the officer would have either been found guilty or whatever, and the district attorney will look at that.

So I stand as a "no" on that amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative McClinton, on the amendment.

Ms. McCLINTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

If I could just for a moment give an example of a real-life incident. In the county of Philadelphia, when I was practicing as a trial attorney at the Defender Association, a client of mine was charged with aggravated assault, and of course, in that set of circumstances that client was accused of assaulting an officer who was on duty acting in his official capacity. After the trial the judge determined that my client was, in fact, not proven guilty and was totally innocent of all the charges, the lead one and the related ones. And as part of my investigation, I, of course, submitted a subpoena to the Internal Affairs Department of the Philadelphia Police. And what one finds often, not every time but often, in cases of excessive use of force, it is not usually one thing that happens. Unfortunately, as I refer to those few bad apples, it is something that is recurrent. I do not know if it is because of some sort of other type of mental health issue or something different. I could not even speculate why one would take their authority and use it to beat somebody and then have that person charged with a felony. But that is what happens. It happens here in the Commonwealth.

So I am asking for support on this amendment so that if someone has a history of beating people, of shooting people, and using excessive force, that the public can find out about that in a timely fashion as they deserve to. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Yes. Does anybody else wish to be recognized on the amendment?

Yes. I am sorry. I apologize.

Representative Madden, on the amendment.

Ms. MADDEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

As the mother of two New York City police officers, I really struggle with all of these resolutions and amendments, but I will have to stand with my colleague, Representative McClinton, because of the history that I know of police abuse. There are very few police officers who are abusive, but the ones who are, there is a trail. There is a paper trail for sure. In the case of Eric Garner, who died from a chokehold, the police officer who put him in that chokehold had three lawsuits settled on his behalf. Why that police officer was on the street allowed to patrol is a mystery and it is probably the cause of Mr. Garner's life.

So as a mom of police officers, as I have said, as a family of civil servants, I struggle with these resolutions, but on this particular one if we can prove there is a history of abuse, I think absolutely the name should be divulged. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative White.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

With regard to those comments, I would just like to add that, Mr. Speaker, to make sure that you are aware, when it comes to this amendment, the reason that it should be voted down "no" is because the legislation already allows for officers who are charged with wrongful acts outside the scope of their duties, you know, their names are released to the public and this is a 30-day window. That is what is available.

The SPEAKER. Representative McClinton, there are only two times on an amendment. I apologize.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative ROEBUCK has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that is granted.

Less than the majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. RABB offered the following amendment No. A00196:

Amend Bill, page 2, line 29, by striking out "the law enforcement officer is" and inserting

(i) the law enforcement officer is

Amend Bill, page 3, line 1, by striking out the period after "force" and inserting

: or
 (ii) the law enforcement officer was the subject of another official investigation into the discharge of a firearm or use of force resulting in serious bodily injury in the preceding 18 months.

On the question,
 Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes Representative Rabb and you may proceed, sir.

Mr. RABB. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This amendment requires disclosure of the name of the law enforcement officer if the officer was subject to another official investigation resulting from use of force or discharge of a firearm in the preceding 18 months.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment acknowledges where there is smoke, there is often fire. If an officer has established a pattern of questionably discharging a firearm or using force that results in serious bodily injury, then the need for a more open and transparent investigation is called for.

While it is our duty to protect our police officers, we also have a duty to provide society with an open and transparent process and I believe this amendment balances those two interests. I ask that you join me in supporting A0196. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

Representative White, on the amendment, please.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I urge a "no" vote on this amendment. It is not an agreed-to amendment. I also would just like to bring up the point that after 30 days of an incident occurring, the names can be released. The leadership has the ability to do so. However, also within those 30 days, should there be an incident that requires it, the district attorney does have the ability to release the names. So again, this amendment is not necessary. I appreciate the maker of it. However, I urge a "no" vote. Thank you.

Less than the majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
 Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

The SPEAKER. Representative Jordan Harris offers four amendments, I understand; that will be 192, 194, 195, 197—Oh, I apologize. There are actually five: 192, 193, 194, 195, and 197.

Representative Harris, any particular order? I will go with 192 otherwise.

On the question recurring,
 Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. J. HARRIS offered the following amendment
 No. A00192:

Amend Bill, page 3, by inserting between lines 18 and 19
(b) Right to counsel.—A law enforcement officer who is the subject of an official investigation subject to this section shall have the right to counsel. Counsel fees shall be paid by the agency employing the law enforcement officer.

Amend Bill, page 3, line 19, by striking out "(b)" and inserting
 (c)

Amend Bill, page 3, line 21, by striking out "(c)" and inserting

Amend Bill, page 3, line 23, by striking out "(d)" and inserting
(e)

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes Representative Jordan Harris.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to offer amendment A00192, since, you know, this amendment looks to protect our police officers, which I think we should. I think if a police officer is involved in one of these incidents and they are charged, I believe the employing agency, the police department, should pay for them to have an attorney. So in the interest of justice, we should ensure that our police departments are footing the cost for the attorneys for those who may be charged as a result.

So seeing that everyone here is a strong supporter of the police, I would expect a unanimous vote on supporting the police by providing them protection with attorneys.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative White, on amendment 192.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I am also going to urge members to vote "no" on this particular amendment. Law enforcement officers across the State of Pennsylvania are supported by their Fraternal Order of Police, who provide them with an attorney, as needed. And also, you know, our State allows for an attorney to be provided to someone, so this is not a necessary amendment. Thank you very much.

The SPEAKER. Representative Harris, for the second time.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, law enforcement officers risk their lives every day, and surely we know that in this Commonwealth you only get as much justice as you can afford to pay for, and many of our officers cannot afford the adequate representation that they deserve. Therefore, I would urge all of my colleagues to support this legislation to give them the quality law enforcement that they deserve. A vote "no" on this amendment, in my opinion, Mr. Speaker, is a vote against the good folk, men and women, of law enforcement.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Dom Costa, on the amendment, please.

Mr. D. COSTA. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Maybe I can address that. All law enforcement officers are covered by their jobs, so they are well covered. So I am still "no" on this vote. Thank you.

Less than the majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. J. HARRIS offered the following amendment
No. A00193:

Amend Bill, page 3, line 11, by striking out "thirty" and inserting fourteen

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes Representative Jordan Harris.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment shortens the time from 30 days to 14 days. I ask that the members support this amendment.

The SPEAKER. Representative White, on the amendment, please.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I urge a "no" vote on this particular amendment.

Over the course of the past session it had been arranged and discussed very thoroughly that the 30 days is agreed to by both the House and the Senate. So I urge a "no" vote on this amendment. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

Representative Sturla, on the amendment, sir.

Mr. STURLA. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, if someone is the victim of force by a police officer, there is a pretty good chance that there was some resistance going on somewhere at some point in time and that that victim would most likely, in a lot of cases, be also charged with resisting arrest or something else. When that person gets their due process and comes up for a preliminary hearing within 10 days, do they have access to the officer's name that used excessive force on them?

The SPEAKER. Sir, do you seek interrogation?

Mr. STURLA. Yes, if I could.

The SPEAKER. Representative White, do you wish to stand for interrogation at this time?

Ms. WHITE. Mr. Speaker, this is not my amendment, so I am not sure where we were going with that.

The SPEAKER. Right. Then do you wish to seek interrogation—

Mr. STURLA. If I could interrogate Representative Harris then.

The SPEAKER. Representative Harris, will you stand for interrogation?

Mr. J. HARRIS. What was the question, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. Representative Sturla, you may proceed.

Mr. STURLA. I understand you are trying to shorten the days to 14.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Yes.

Mr. STURLA. And normally in a case like this, at least the ones that I have been familiar with, if a police officer uses excessive force, the chances are it is not just the police officer that is getting accused of using excessive force. There is probably also, the person that is accusing the police officer of using excessive force is most likely charged with resisting arrest or something else related to that, in a lot of cases. That person, that victim of the excessive police force, is due a preliminary hearing within 10 days.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Yes.

Mr. STURLA. Do they have access to the police officer's name that used excessive force on them?

Mr. J. HARRIS. I am consulting with my attorneys.

Mr. Speaker, not necessarily, because the person could be charged by another officer. If the officer who committed the crime was the charging officer, the name would be announced, but it could be another officer charging that person.

Mr. STURLA. Okay. So in other words, somebody that was having to defend themselves might not know whom they are defending themselves against if the White bill passes without amendment?

Mr. J. HARRIS. Eventually they would, but not necessarily at the time of the preliminary hearing.

Mr. STURLA. Okay. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I support the amendment A00193 because it at least shortens that time that someone who is probably facing a court proceeding actually gets to know who their perpetrator was. I am not sure where else in law we protect the perpetrator from the victim. I know there are times we protect the victim from the perpetrator, but in this particular case, it seems like we are protecting the perpetrator from the victim, and that, to me, seems slightly backwards.

So I support the Harris amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, Representative Jordan Harris is recognized for a brief description and any remarks he has to make on that amendment.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this clearly states that if a person is charged in an altercation with a police officer, that that officer's name would be released because our system of justice says that any person accused should know the person that is accusing them. So to speak to the question on the last amendment, this amendment clarifies that if a person is charged of a crime, that they are allowed to know the police officer's name, because under this bill, I would be charged basically for a crime against a person whom I do not know. So how can you stand up against your accuser if you do not know who your accuser is? So this bill releases that information if the person is accused of a crime.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I urge a "yes" vote on this amendment.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative GALLOWAY has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

CONSIDERATION OF HB 27 CONTINUED

The SPEAKER. Representative White, on the amendment.
Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I urge a "no" vote on this particular amendment. The rationale behind that is because citizens always, always have the right to know who their accusers are and my legislation would not hinder that. Thank you.

Mr. J. HARRIS offered the following amendment
No. A00195:

Amend Bill, page 3, line 20, by inserting after "degree"
, unless the person was directed by the person's employer to release the information

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes Representative Jordan Harris for a brief description of the amendment and any remarks on the amendment.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and I hope to gain your support on this amendment as well.

Right. So this is a commonsense amendment. The person who works for an agency, if their boss tells them to release the name illegally, that person should not be held responsible. We should not put support staff in positions where they could lose their jobs just because they were doing what their employer asked them to do.

So this is a commonsense, this is a commonsense amendment to support workers so that if their boss asks them to break the law, they are still protected. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Yes, sir.

Representative White, on the amendment.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I urge a "no" vote on this particular amendment as well. All acts under duress would basically allow for folks to not be charged for a crime that they were forced to do.

And so, again, I urge a "no" vote on this amendment as it is unnecessary. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Harris, on the amendment.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would just like to clarify something. Your employer telling you to do something does not constitute duress under the Crimes Code. Therefore, that person still could be charged. So this actually protects that person.

So I urge a "yes" vote. Thanks, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration?

Mr. J. HARRIS offered the following amendment
No. A00197:

Amend Bill, page 3, by inserting between lines 20 and 21
(c) Cause of action for damages.—The following shall apply:
(1) If a violation of this section results in injury, harm or loss to the person or property of the law enforcement officer or an immediate family member of the law enforcement officer, the officer or immediate family member shall have a cause of action to recover damages against the agency employing the person responsible for the violation.

(2) Sovereign immunity is waived, and the provisions of 42 Pa.C.S. Ch. 85 (relating to matters affecting government units) or lack of jurisdiction by the Supreme Court shall not be raised as a defense against a cause of action brought against an agency under this subsection.

Amend Bill, page 3, line 21, by striking out "(c)" and inserting (d)

Amend Bill, page 3, line 23, by striking out "(d)" and inserting (e)

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the question, the Chair recognizes Representative Jordan Harris for remarks on the amendment.

Mr. J. HARRIS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This is my last one. And this, again, is about protecting good police officers, and surely everyone who has voted for this bill wants to protect those good police officers. So I am expecting a "yes" vote on this amendment that simply says that if a police officer is harmed by the release of their information, they can sue the agency that released the information.

The SPEAKER. Representative Martina White, on the amendment.

Ms. WHITE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I urge a "no" vote on this particular amendment. We are not trying to hold taxpayers accountable for the actions of a public official who decides to break, potentially, this new law, and so I urge a "no" vote on the amendment, and thank you again.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Representative Gary Day is recognized on unanimous consent.

Mr. DAY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I rise and I am going to submit comments for the record for HB 178, and I just wanted to briefly say and thank my colleagues, Representative Craig Staats from Bucks County and Representative Sid Kavulich, for their work on HB 178 as well, and I will submit the rest of my comments for the record. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Day.

Mr. DAY submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, today I ask for the members' support of legislation that will help improve school safety.

HB 178, which I was pleased to help sponsor, would allow our schools to better prepare for threats without adding to their financial burden. It simply gives them some flexibility in deciding how to prioritize their safety protocols.

We all know that a safe learning environment is a necessary precursor to the successful education of Pennsylvania's children and young adults. When children cannot concentrate on their schoolwork because they do not feel safe in their classrooms, they cannot learn effectively.

Numerous schools already conduct lockdown and active-shooter drills and coordinate with local law enforcement to develop such security procedures. Although we hope that no violence takes place inside a school, we heard from school officials and law enforcement that these drills are helpful in terms of preparation and in putting students' and teachers' minds at ease, knowing a plan exists.

Additionally, the bill would allow local public schools to be flexible in shaping these drills according to the needs of their communities. School security drills could include many types of planned exercises, including acts of terrorism, armed intruder situations, or other violent threats.

Finally, this legislation would require schools to inform local law enforcement and emergency management services of plans to conduct these drills to ensure adequate coordination and input from these entities.

To help minimize any burden this would place on schools, this drill could take the place of a fire drill, which is already mandated by State law, and would not add to any cost of a school district.

Mr. Speaker, I would also like to thank my primary cosponsors of the bill, Representatives Craig Staats and Sid Kavulich, for their help on this important safety measure. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Do any other members wish to be recognized?

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. As we have indicated, given the winter weather watch for the capital region and for much of the State, session for tomorrow, Tuesday, March 14, and Wednesday, March 15, will be canceled.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. Without objection, all remaining bills and resolutions on today's calendar will be passed over. The Chair hears no objection.

ADJOURNMENT

The SPEAKER. Representative Dave Zimmerman moves that the House be adjourned until Monday, March 20, 2017, at 1 p.m., e.d.t., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to, and at 6:27 p.m., e.d.t., the House adjourned.
