SESSION OF 2009 193RD OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 57

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, July 15, 2009

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Joseph B. Scarnati III) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend RUTH FOUST, of The House of Prayer, East Berlin, offered the following prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, we come before Your throne in heaven today and we honor Your holy name. We give You praise and thanksgiving for the United States of America, and especially for this State of Pennsylvania. We give You thanks and praise for these State workers who are assembled here this afternoon. We join together here this afternoon to petition You, Father in heaven, in the name of Your son, Jesus, to show us Your mercy and Your love, to heal our weariness and uphold our hope and strengthen our faith, that we might live ever mindful of Your justice and thankful for Your blessing.

Father, we make our earnest prayer that You will keep the United States, and especially the State of Pennsylvania, in Your protection, that You will incline the hearts of the citizens of Pennsylvania to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government and entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another and for their fellow citizens of the United States.

Father, we pray for these State workers gathered today and for the business of the day, that they will be given wisdom, guidance, and prudence to do their duty in the true spirit of this great people. We pray that our concerns shall be for all the people, regardless of station, race, or calling. May cooperation be permitted and be the mutual aim of those who, under the concept of Your constitution, hold to deferring political beliefs so that all may work for the good of our beloved State and for Your glory.

We bow our heads and our hearts, thanking You for Your love for us in sending Your son, Jesus, to be our Savior. Accept our thanks for the peace that yields this day and the shared faith that makes its continuance likely. Make us strong to do Your work, willing to heed and hear Your will. And may our Governor Rendell and our State workers use power to help people. Thank You for the power to not advance our own purposes or to make a show in the world or a name, but to use power to serve people and to serve You.

In Your word, in the book of Luke, You said that if we have faith, we can ask, and it will be given to us; we can seek, and we shall find; we can knock, and it shall be opened unto us. Help us to remember these things, we ask, in the name of Jesus, our Savior and resurrected Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Reverend Foust, who is the guest today of Senator Alloway.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by those assembled.)

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lackawanna, Senator Mellow.

Senator MELLOW. Mr. President, it was brought to my attention today, in a discussion that I had with one of our senior Members of the Senate, that on Saturday, July 18, 2009, it will be the 50th wedding anniversary of Barry and Lenore Stout.

Now, Mr. President, Senator Stout came to the General Assembly basically around the same time that I did. He and his wife, Lenore, are the parents of five daughters and one son. They have 14 grandchildren. Of the 14 grandchildren, he has 12 grandsons. So he has two basketball teams and two reserves on the basketball teams with the boys only, and he also has two lovely granddaughters. And on Sunday of this week, his family is going to have a big family dinner honoring Barry Stout and his lovely wife, Lenore, on their 50th wedding anniversary.

I would like to ask our Members if we could give a cordial congratulations to Senator Stout and his lovely wife on their 50th wedding anniversary.

(Applause.)

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Washington, Senator Stout.

Senator STOUT. Thank you, Mr. President, and I thank Senator Mellow for those remarks and for the recognition from my colleagues. When I made that decision on July 18, 1959, if I knew I was going to be here for the budget, I would have scheduled the wedding for September.

But we have been very blessed. My wife and I have 5 wonderful daughters, a wonderful son, and 14 grandchildren. So her job is to remember the birthdays. I just pay for the gifts. But no, it is a very good family unit. I have been blessed with a good family, and I have benefitted, and it has enabled me to serve here in the legislature for this period of time. I am very proud of my family, and I look forward to being with them this weekend.

So I can take a legislative leave if you want to vote me for something; I am taking personal leave for this weekend. Thank you. I appreciate it.

(Applause.)

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS
GUESTS OF SENATOR LISA M. BOSCOLA
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Northampton, Senator Boscola.

Senator BOSCOLA. Mr. President, I am very honored to have some really great interns working for me this summer in my Bethlehem district office. I really try to give my students real-world and hands-on experience, and they have been busy learning how to help the people of the 18th Senatorial District. Constituent casework, legislative research, and constituent outreach is what they have excelled in, and I want to thank them for all their dedication throughout this summer to help the people in the 18th Senatorial District.

The first intern I would like to introduce is Tessa Houston. Tessa is currently attending the University of West Virginia. She is majoring in multi-disciplinary studies, those concentrations being Spanish, public relations, and leadership studies. Aside from the local community work that she does through her sorority at West Virginia, she has been active with her student union and has given a great deal back to her university.

Another intern I would like to introduce is Dylan Kmetz. Dylan is special. He has been with us for--this is the second time, the second internship this year--well, not this year, last year, too. He just finished up his junior year of high school. I am really good friends with his parents, so I think of him very affectionately. He is extremely interested in studying law, and Dylan has a very promising future ahead of him, and I wish him nothing but the best. I think that because he is interning, that is just the start of a good career for him.

Also with us is Morgan Reibman. Morgan is currently attending Lafayette College in Easton, and she is seeking her bachelor's degree in policy studies. Not only has she received the Distinguished Congressional Citizenship Award in 2008, but she is also an AP scholar and enjoys playing tennis in her spare time. Morgan was a Moravian Academy scholar-athlete in 2007.

Kelsey O'Connell, another intern of mine, with whom I am best friends with her parents, has brought many contributions to my office this summer. The interesting thing about Kelsey is that she is not in the political science field. Actually, she is not even studying government. She is actually a music major at Susquehanna University, and through her studies, is hoping to become an effective music teacher. She has demonstrated great communication skills in my office and deals with constituents on a daily basis.

We also have Hannah Schwarzbach with us, who has taken a keen interest in the operations of our State government. Of course, this is a special year for her internship since we do not have a budget passed yet, so it is kind of special for her to see how we operate. Hannah is a high school student who attends Liberty High School in Bethlehem. She has been the student representative to the Bethlehem Area School District's board. In a very selfless act, she also spearheaded a local campaign, a program called the Winter Warmth Campaign, which is a grassroots initiative that has collected and distributed thousands of coats to the less fortunate in our community.

I am very proud to have these wonderful interns. They are very special to me. They work very hard, and I appreciate all their hard work. I hope that the Senate will give them its usual warm welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Boscola please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUEST OF SENATOR JOHN C. RAFFERTY
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Rafferty.

Senator RAFFERTY. Mr. President, it is a distinct privilege to introduce to the Members of the Senate a young man who is interning for me in my Chester County office.

I met him a few years ago when Chris, through his dedication, hard work, and perseverance, earned the rank of Eagle Scout. I had the opportunity to be at his Eagle Court of Honor, and I struck up a friendship with him then and kept in touch with him over the years. Chris is interning at the Chester County office. He lives in Upper Uwchlan Township, Chester County. His parents are Robert and Lorraine Mulhall. Chris is a graduate of Bishop Shanahan High School and is entering his senior year at Penn State, where he is majoring in politics. He is an avid follower of politics, both at the local level and internationally. He aspires, one day, to enter into the arena of political life and to serve the community in which he lives, and possibly the Commonwealth, or even possibly the United States, in elected office. He is a fine young gentleman, and he has been a tremendous help to me in the district office and to my staff. With us being here in Harrisburg, that much more of the burden has fallen on Chris and those manning the district offices.

So I would like to take this opportunity to introduce Chris to the Members of the Senate and ask for our traditional warm welcome in welcoming Chris Mulhall here to the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guest of Senator Rafferty please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.

(Applause.)

GUESTS OF SENATOR KIM L. WARD
PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Westmoreland, Senator Ward.

Senator WARD. Mr. President, I am very happy and honored today to introduce some very special guests to Harrisburg. These folks are not just here today to visit, but they are here on a mission. These people are part of the United Tea Party Patriots movement and are here representing thousands and thousands of Pennsylvanians and people throughout the country who have said, enough. We do not want government to raise our taxes anymore, and we want them to stay out of our lives as much as possible.

They are here today to visit legislators and let their voices be heard. And it is a great privilege for me to introduce these wonderful people from my district.

The PRESIDENT. Would the guests of Senator Ward please rise to be welcomed by the Senate.
(Applause.)

RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Pileggi.

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, I request a recess of the Senate for purposes, first, of a meeting of the Committee on Finance, to be held in the Rules room immediately, to be followed by a Republican caucus, to be held in the Majority Caucus Room.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lackawanna, Senator Mellow.

Senator MELLOW. Mr. President, I request that the Democratic Members report to our caucus room upon the conclusion of the meeting of the Committee on Finance.

The PRESIDENT. For purposes of a meeting of the Committee on Finance to be held in the Rules room, to be followed by Republican and Democratic caucuses, without objection, the Senate stands in recess.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having expired, the Senate will come to order.

LEGISLATIVE LEAVE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Pileggi.

Senator PILEGGI. Mr. President, I request a legislative leave for Senator Piccola.

The PRESIDENT. Senator Pileggi requests a legislative leave for Senator Piccola. Without objection, the leave will be granted.
