

SUPPLEMENTARY ACT, SALE OF LAND FOR TAXES

Act of Jun. 11, 1879, P.L. 151, No. 160

Cl. 53

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled "An act to amend an act directing the mode of selling unseated lands for taxes, and for other purposes," approved the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, providing for special sales of such lands, where the same have not been sold by the treasurer at the last regular sales.

Section 1. Successors in office of treasurer to sell lands unsold

Whenever any unseated lands shall have been duly advertised for sale by the county treasurer, in any of the counties of this Commonwealth, under and by virtue of the directions of the Act of March thirteenth, 1815, and the several supplements thereto, at the regular biennial sales, and shall remain unsold at and after the expiration of the term of office of the treasurer who advertised the same for sale, and when the treasurer so advertising the same shall have absconded, it shall be the duty of the successor in office of such treasurer to advertise and sell the lands so remaining unsold, on the second Monday of June of the year intervening between the said regular sales. 1879, June 11, P.L. 151, Sec. 1.

Section 2. Sale to be for same taxes previously advertised

Said sale shall be for the same taxes (and none other) for which the said lands had been advertised to be sold at the said last preceding regular sale. 1879, June, 11, P.L. 151, Sec. 2.

Section 3. Manner of advertisement and sale in such cases

The advertisement and sale herein directed shall be made in the same manner required and subject to the provisions of said Act of March 13, 1815, and its several supplements, except that the advertisement of sale shall be made in a newspaper published in the county, at least once a week for four successive weeks in the month of may; and the owners of said lands shall have the same right of redemption provided by the said act. 1879, June 11, P.L. 151, Sec. 3.
