Sections 11, 12, 13, 14, 16 and 17 of the act of June 13, 1836 (P.L.551, No.169), referred to as the General Road 11 12 Law, are repealed: 13 [Section 11. Proceedings to open private roads 14 The several Courts of Quarter Sessions shall, in open court 15 as aforesaid, upon the petition of one or more persons, associations, partnerships, stock companies, or corporations, 16 17 for a road from their respective lands or leaseholds to a 18 highway or place of necessary public resort, or to any private way leading to a highway, or upon the petition of the chief 19 20 executive officer of any executive or administrative department 21 of the state government for a road from any public highway 22 across any lands of any person, association, or corporation to the boundary line of any lands owned, controlled, or 23 24 administered by the commonwealth, direct a view to be had of the 25 place where such road is requested, and a report thereof to be made, in the same manner as is directed by the said act of 26 27 thirteenth june, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six. 28 Section 12. Proceedings on report of viewers 29 If it shall appear by the report of viewers to the court 30 directing the view, that such road is necessary, the said court shall direct what breadth the road so reported shall be opened, 31 32 and the proceedings in such cases shall be entered on record, as before directed, and thenceforth such road shall be deemed and 33 taken to be a lawful private road. 34 35 Section 13. Gates In all cases of a private road, it shall be lawful for the

36 37 owners of the land over which the same may be laid out or authorized, to apply to the court aforesaid for leave to hang 1 2 and maintain at their own expense, swinging gates across the 3 road, and thereupon the court shall direct the viewers appointed 4 to view such road, or in case the road has been already laid out, may appoint other viewers in manner aforesaid, to inquire 5 and report whether the same may be done without much 6 7 inconvenience to the persons using such road. 8 Section 14. When gates shall be erected 9 If it shall appear to the court that a gate or gates may be hung as aforesaid, according to the prayer of the party, without 10 11 much inconvenience to the person or persons using such road, 12 they shall decree accordingly, and in such decree they shall order and direct that such gate or gates be made and kept in 13 14 repair, and made easy for passing, by the respective owners of 15 said land. 16 Section 16. Damages The damages sustained by the owners of the land through which 17 any private road may pass shall be estimated in the manner 18 provided in the case of a public road, and shall be paid by the 19 20 persons, associations, partnership, stock companies, corporations, or executive or administrative department of the 21 22 commonwealth, at whose request the road was granted or laid out: 23 Provided, that no such road shall be opened before the damages 24 shall be fully paid. 25 Section 17. Use by others than petitioners 26 Whenever any person shall be desirous to make use of a private 27 road laid out on the petition and at the expense of others, such 28 person may apply by petition to the Court of Quarter Sessions of 29 the respective county, to be admitted to participate in the privilege of the said road, and thereupon such court shall have 30 31 power to determine what sum he shall contribute to the persons 32 at whose expense the said road was laid out, and also what 33 further sum he shall pay to the owners of the soil over which 34 the said road was made, and upon the payment thereof, such 35 person shall be entitled to equal rights and privileges, and be 36 subject to like duties and liabilities with the original 37 applicants for said road.]

38 Section 2. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
