REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON FEDERAL-STATE RELATIONS, JULY 29, 1977

In the House of Representatives, July 29, 1977

1 WHEREAS, The United States of America enjoys a prominent 2 position among the nations of the world because of a unique 3 strength and quality of perseverance directly attributed to the 4 existence of close family relationships over its 200-year
5 history; and

6 WHEREAS, There exists a continuing need for the citizens of 7 this Nation to look toward the family unit for strength; and

8 WHEREAS, The annual holiday of Thanksgiving Day affords the 9 Nation a most opportune time to reflect upon the importance of 10 and honor the history of the family unit in America; therefore 11 be it

12 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives memorialize the 13 Governor of each State and the President of the United States to 14 proclaim the week of the Thanksgiving Day Holiday to be American

1 Family Week in order to underscore the vital importance of 2 family principals and the family unit in America and to unite
3 all generations of Americans, whatever their national origin or 4 political persuasion, during the week of this most American of 5 all holidays; and be it further

6 RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to 7 the President of the United States and the Governor of each
8 State of the United States.
