10 (c.1) Police services.--

11 (1) A municipal corporation shall be reimbursed for 12 eligible police services performed by the police department
13 of the municipal corporation by individuals who are convicted
14 of and sentenced for a felony.

15 (2) Rate of reimbursement for eligible police services
16 shall be set as follows:

17 (i) Actual mileage for travel by motor vehicle shall 18 be reimbursed at a rate equal to the highest rate allowed

1 by the Internal Revenue Service. If travel is by other 2 than motor vehicle, reimbursement shall be for actual 3 vouchered travel expenses. If more than one defendant is 4 transported simultaneously, reimbursements shall be for 5 actual miles traveled, and the travel cost shall be 6 divided between or among the defendants who are convicted 7 and sentenced.

8 (ii) Actual time for which the defendant is in 9 custody under the authority of the police department and 10 for attending an arraignment or court hearing for an 11 official purpose related to the prosecution of the 12 defendant shall be reimbursed at a rate of $13 per hour.
13 If more than one defendant is in custody for the same 14 incident simultaneously or if attendance is required at 15 an arraignment or court hearing for an official purpose
16 related to the prosecution of more than one defendant
17 simultaneously, reimbursements shall be for actual time, 18 and the cost shall be divided between or among the 19 defendants who are convicted and sentenced.

20 (3) As used in this section, "eligible police services"
21 shall mean time and mileage associated with:

22 (i) Taking a defendant into custody.

23 (ii) Transporting a defendant from where the 24 defendant is taken into custody to where the defendant is 25 transferred to another authority or released.

26 (iii) Attending an arraignment or court hearing for 27 an official purpose related to the prosecution of the 28 defendant.
