HOUSE BILL

No. 1700

Session of 1969

INTRODUCED BY MR. MELTON, MRS. ANDERSON, MESSRS. TAYOUN, BELOFF,
M. E. MILLER, RITTER AND PERRY, OCTOBER 7, 1969

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON CONSUMER PROTECTION, OCTOBER 7, 1969

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 17, 1921 (P. L. 789), entitled, as amended, "An act relating to insurance; establishing an insurance department; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating to the licensing, qualification, regulation, examination, suspension, and dissolution of insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and certain societies and orders, the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus, and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers; the service of legal process upon foreign insurance companies, associations or exchanges; providing penalties, and repealing existing laws," reducing certain age requirements.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA HEREBY ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Subsection (a) of section 603, act of May 17, 1921 (P. L. 789), known as "The Insurance Department Act of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one," amended August 21, 1961 (P. L. 1018), is amended to read:

Section 603. Agent's Licenses.--(a) The Insurance Commissioner may issue, upon certification as aforesaid by any company, association, or exchange, authorized by law to transact business within this Commonwealth, an agent's license to any person of at least [twenty-one] eighteen years of age and to any copartnership or corporation.

No license as agent shall be granted to any corporation unless by provisions of its charter it is authorized to engage in the business of insurance or real estate, and unless individual licenses are also secured for each active officer of such corporation; and no license shall be granted to a copartnership or firm unless individual licenses are also

1 secured for each active member of such copartnership or firm. Before any such license
2 is granted, the applicant shall first make answer, in writing and under oath, to inter-
3 rogatories on forms and supplements such as the Insurance Commissioner shall prepare 4 and submit, which answers shall be vouched for by indorsement of the company, associa-
5 tion, or exchange interested, and to the effect that the applicant is of good business 6 reputation, and of experience in underwriting, other than soliciting, and is worthy of 7 a license: Provided, That any applicant who shall have held, for any period during 8 the five years immediately preceding the application, a license to transact, as agent, 9 any class or kind of insurance business for any company, association, or exchange,
10 authorized to transact business within this Commonwealth, shall be entitled, upon proper 11 application, to receive a license to transact, as agent, the same class or kind of insur-
12 ance business for any other company, association, or exchange, so authorized to trans-
13 act business, without the necessity of submitting to an examination. When the Insurance
14 Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant is worthy of license, and that he is reason-
15 ably familiar with provisions of the insurance law of this Commonwealth, he shall issue
16 a license stating that the company, association, or exchange, represented by the agent,
17 has complied with the requirements of law and has been authorized by the Insurance Com-
18 missioner to transact business within this Commonwealth, and that the agent has been du-19 appointed by the company, association, or exchange named in the license. Licenses of 20 life insurance agents shall expire annually at midnight of March thirty-first, licenses 21 of fire insurance agents shall expire annually at midnight of September thirtieth, and 22 the licenses of casualty and health and accident insurance agents shall expire annually
23 at midnight of December thirty-first, unless sooner terminated as the result of severance 24 of business relations between the company, association, or exchange and the agent, or 25 unless revoked by the Insurance Commissioner for cause. Licenses for casualty insurance 26 agents issued to expire at midnight November thirtieth, one thousand nine hundred forty 27 nine, are hereby extended until midnight December thirty-first, one thousand nine hun-
28 dred forty-nine. The department shall collect an additional fee for each such license 29 extended at the rate of one-twelfth of the annual rate, as fixed by this act, for each
30 additional month that the term of such licenses are extended. Any person whose license

1 is revoked may appeal to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County within thirty 2 days of the date of receipt, by registered mail, of a notice of the fact of such revoca-
3 tion. The provisions of this section shall apply to domestic mutual fire insurance com-
4 panies, but no agent of a domestic mutual fire insurance company acting or authorized
5 to act as such on the effective date of this act shall be required to take an examination 6 for licensure.

8 Section 2. Section 622 of the act is amended to read:

9 Section 622. Brokers' Licenses.--The Insurance Commissioner may issue, to 10 any person of at least [twenty-one] eighteen years of age or to any copartnership or 11 corporation, a license to act as an insurance broker to negotiate contracts of insurance 12 or reinsurance, other than life insurance, with any insurance company, association, 13 or exchange, or the agents thereof, authorized by law to transact business within this 14 Commonwealth. No license shall be issued to any corporation to act as an insurance 15 broker unless by its charter it is authorized to engage in the business of insurance or 16 real estate. Before any license is issued, the applicant shall make answer, in writing
17 and under oath, to such interrogatories and on such forms and supplements as the Insur-
18 ance Commissioner shall prepare and submit, which answers shall be vouched for by 19 indorsement of at least two agents or by the officers of any insurance company, associa-20 tion, or exchange, other than the officers or agents of a life insurance company, who 21 are acquainted with the applicant, to the effect that the applicant is of good business 22 reputation, and has experience in underwriting, other than soliciting, and is worthy 23 of a license. When the Insurance Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant is worthy 24 of a license, and that he is reasonably familiar with provisions of the insurance laws
25 of this Commonwealth, he shall issue a broker's license to expire annually one year
26 from date of issue, unless sooner revoked by the Insurance Commissioner for cause.
27 Any person whose license is revoked may appeal to the court of common pleas of Dau-28 phin County within thirty days of the date of receipt by registered mail of a notice of 29 the fact of such revocation.
