
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE BILL

No. 1987

Session of 1984

INTRODUCED BY IRVIS AND RYAN, MARCH 14, 1984

SENATOR O'CONNELL, STATE GOVERNMENT, IN SENATE, AS AMENDED,
SEPTEMBER 25, 1984

AN ACT

1 To provide for the establishment of a Commonwealth Commission on 2 the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution; and 3 making an appropriation.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 5 hereby enacts as follows:

6 Section 1. Findings.

7 The General Assembly finds that:

8 (1) The Bicentennial of the Constitutional Convention's 9 adoption of the Constitution at the Pennsylvania State House, 10 Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, occurs on September 17, 1987; the 11 Bicentennial of the Pennsylvania ratification of the 12 Constitution occurs on December 12, 1987; and the 13 Bicentennial of the national adoption of the Constitution, by 14 ratification of states, occurs on June 21, 1988.

15 (2) The anniversary dates of the national ratification
16 of the United States Constitution's Thirteenth, Fourteenth, 17 Fifteenth and Nineteenth Amendments abolishing slavery,

1 preventing abridgment of citizenship rights, guaranteeing 2 equal rights for all, regardless of race, color or previous 3 condition of servitude, and the granting of suffrage to women 4 should be appropriately observed during the Bicentennial of 5 the United States Constitution.

6 (3) The Constitution enunciates the limitations on 7 government, the inalienable citizen rights and the timeless 8 principles of individual liberty and responsibility and 9 equality before law, for the people of the United States of 10 America.

11 (4) This document has set an enduring example of 12 representative democracy for the world.

13 (5) The maintenance of the common principles that 14 animate and govern our Republic depend upon a knowledge and 15 understanding of their roots and origins.

16 (6) The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, since its birth, 17 attended by William Penn's prayer that it would become the 18 "seed of a Nation," earned, through peace and war, the role 19 of gracious and learned host for the Constitutional 20 Convention of 1787.

21 (7) Pennsylvania's people, communities and Commonwealth
22 government provided America with debate, study, 23 experimentation, leadership and strength indispensable to the 24 formation of the Republic in the process of the convention 25 adoption of the Constitution on September 17, 1787, the 26 issuance of a State House call for a convention to consider 27 ratification and the Commonwealth ratification of the United 28 States Constitution on December 12, 1787; and 29 (8) It is the privilege and duty of every Pennsylvanian 30 to join in a Commonwealth and national observance of the

1 Bicentennial of the United States Constitution with pride, 2 dedication and love of heritage.

3 Section 2. Commission; membership.

4 (a) Establishment of commission.--There is hereby 5 established the Commonwealth Commission on the Bicentennial of 6 the United States Constitution, hereinafter referred to as the 7 commission, to promote and coordinate activities to commemorate 8 the Bicentennial of the Constitution.

9 (b) Composition.--The commission shall be composed of 30 10 members as follows:

11 (1) Twenty members appointed by the Governor, four of 12 whom shall be appointed from among the recommendations made 13 by the Speaker of the House of Representatives in 14 consultation with the Majority and Minority Leaders of the 15 House of Representatives, four of whom shall be appointed 16 from among the recommendations made by the President pro
17 tempore of the Senate, in consultation with the Majority 18 Leader and Minority Leader of the Senate, and four of whom 19 shall be appointed from recommendations made by the Chief 20 Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, made in 21 consultation with the President Judges of the Commonwealth 22 and Superior Courts.

28 designee.

29 (5) The Secretary of the Department of Education, or his 30 designee.

1 (6) The Chairman of the Pennsylvania Historical and 2 Museum Commission, or his designee.

3 (7) The Chairmen of the majority and minority 4 Pennsylvania delegations in the United States House of 5 Representatives, or their designees.

6 (8) The United States Senators of the Commonwealth of 7 Pennsylvania, or their designees.

8 (c) Honorary members.--The President of the United States, 9 the Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the 10 United States House of Representatives, the President pro 11 tempore of the United States Senate and the Chief Justice of the 12 United States Supreme Court shall be invited to serve as 13 distinguished honorary members of the commission.

14 (d) Membership to be balanced.--Each of the individuals
15 making recommendations to the Governor regarding appointments 16 shall seek to achieve a balanced membership representing, to the 17 maximum extent practicable, the Commonwealth as a whole. The 18 commission members shall be chosen from among individuals who 19 have demonstrated allegiance to civic duty, strong sense of 20 public service, expertise in the learned professions and 21 abilities likely to contribute to the fulfillment of the duties 22 of the commission.

23 (e) Term of members.--Members of the commission shall be 24 appointed for the life of the commission.

25 (f) Chairman.--One of the members shall be appointed as 26 chairman, subject to approval of the majority of the commission, 27 by the Governor.

28 (g) Quorum.--Sixteen members of the commission shall 29 constitute a quorum Membership attendance shall be made a part 30 of the record of the commission.

1 (h) Vacancies.--A vacancy in the commission resulting from 2 the death or resignation of a member shall not affect its powers 3 and shall be filled in the same manner in which the original 4 appointment was made.

5 (i) Members not to be compensated.--Members of the 6 commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but 7 shall be reimbursed for travel and other reasonable expenses 8 incurred by them in the performance of their duties.

9 Section 3. Administrative provisions and powers.

10 (a) Assistance from Department of Education.--The Department
11 of Education shall provide such secretarial and other staff 12 assistance as may be necessary to the proper functioning of the 13 commission, consistent with the laws of the Commonwealth.

14 (b) Commission to coordinate activities.--The commission 15 shall coordinate, generally, activities throughout all of the 16 Commonwealth and serve as a clearinghouse for the collection and 17 dissemination of information about bicentennial events and 18 plans.

19 (c) Planning and implementation of activities.--In planning 20 and implementing appropriate activities to commemorate the 21 Bicentennial, the commission shall give due consideration to:

22 (1) The historical Pennsylvania State House setting in 23 which the Constitution was developed and ratified and the 24 ratification debates in the Pennsylvania State House of 25 Representatives and the State Convention of Ratification.

26 (2) The contribution of diverse ethnic, religious and 27 racial groups.

28 (3) The relationship and historical development of the 29 three branches of the Government.

30 (4) The unique achievements and contributions of the 1 Pennsylvania participants in the Constitutional Convention of 2 1787.

3 (5) The diverse legal and philosophical views regarding 4 the Constitution.

5 (6) The need for reflection upon both academic and 6 scholarly views of the Constitution and the principle that 7 the document must be understood by the general public.

8 (7) The substantive provisions of the Constitution 9 itself.

10 (8) The impact of the Constitution on American life and 11 government.

12 (9) The need to encourage appropriate educational 13 curriculums designed to educate students at all levels of 14 learning on the drafting, ratification and history of the 15 Constitution and the specific provisions of that document.

16 (10) The significance of the principles and institutions
17 of the Constitution to other nations and their citizens.

18 (d) Commission to seek cooperation.--The commission shall 19 seek the cooperation, advice and assistance of both private and 20 governmental agencies, organizations and institutions.

21 Section 4. Powers and duties of the commission.

22 The commission shall have the power and its duty shall be:

23 (1) To plan and develop activities appropriate to 24 commemorate the Bicentennial of the Constitution, including a 25 limited number of projects to be undertaken by the 26 Commonwealth seeking to harmonize and balance the important 27 goals of ceremony and celebration with the equally important 28 goals of scholarship and education.

29 (2) To encourage private organizations, county and 30 municipal governments and educational systems to organize and

1 participate in bicentennial activities commemorating or 2 examining the drafting, ratification and history of the 3 Constitution and the specific features of the document.

4 (3) To extend cooperation to all bicentennial agencies 5 or commissions established by the United States Congress and 6 the legislatures of all states. In doing so, it shall be the 7 policy of the commission to provide equal treatment to all 8 states, regardless of their date of establishment, in 9 recognition of the historic role of Pennsylvania as a source 10 of pioneers, culture, philosophy and system of self-
11 government.

12 (4) To enter into contracts and to execute all 13 instruments necessary or convenient for carrying on its 14 operations.

16 donations, legacies and usages of money from individuals, 17 organizations, public or private corporations and other 18 similar entities.

19 (6) To solicit and raise moneys from public and private 20 sources through the sale of commemorative medals and other 21 items of a similar nature which promote the Bicentennial of 22 the Constitution.

23 Section 5. Report.

24 On January 1, 1986, the commission shall submit, to the 25 Governor and each House of the General Assembly, a comprehensive 26 report incorporating specific recommendations of the commission 27 for commemoration and coordination of the Bicentennial and 28 related activities. This report shall be accompanied by a 29 summarization of all bicentennial projects proposed by persons, 30 organizations and institutions of the private sector which 1 contemplate no Federal or State financial subsidization, and 2 which are filed with the commission by the close of business on 3 November 30, 1985.

4 Section 6. Termination.

5 The commission shall terminate on December 31, 1988.

6 Section 7. Appropriation.

7 There is hereby appropriated to the Department of Education, 8 to assist the work of the commission the sum of $50,000, or as 9 much thereof as may be necessary, ~~for fiscal year 1985-1986,~~ to <—
