
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE RESOLUTION

No. 93

Session of 1983

INTRODUCED BY DORR, CAPPABIANCA, SERAFINI, DUFFY, SEVENTY,
VAN HORNE, L. E. SMITH, REINARD AND F. E. TAYLOR, MAY 10, 1983

ADOPTED, MAY 10, 1983

A RESOLUTION

1 Congratulating Pennsylvania's small business community.

2 WHEREAS, The foundation of our great Nation's prosperity has 3 been the entrepreneurial genius of its citizenry; and

4 WHEREAS, This ingenuity has nurtured our free enterprise
5 system into the mainspring of American progress; and

6 WHEREAS, The future well-being of our country depends upon 7 the continuing vitality of this free enterprise system; and

8 WHEREAS, An essential component of economic vitality is the 9 existence of vigorous competition in the marketplace; and

10 WHEREAS, Members of Pennsylvania's small business community
11 have proven to be dynamic and innovative leaders of economic 12 development; and

13 WHEREAS, Small business has demonstrated its capacity for 14 leadership by providing well over half of the new jobs in our 15 economy; and

16 WHEREAS, The accomplishments of Pennsylvania's small business
17 community stand as an inspiration to help future generations

1 face the challenges of tomorrow; and

2 WHEREAS, The President of the United States has proclaimed
3 the week beginning May 8, 1983 as Small Business Week; therefore 4 be it

5 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives, in recognition
6 of Small Business Week, hereby extend its congratulations and 7 its thanks to Pennsylvania's small business community for its 8 contributions to this Commonwealth and express its best wishes
9 for continuing future prosperity.