8 prescribing penalties, fines, forfeitures and misdemeanors;
9 requiring bonds and insurance; creating a Medical Advisory 10 Board; providing for rules and regulations; and making 11 appropriations," regulating kick boxing; further regulating
12 amateur boxing; establishing a State boxing register;
13 providing for medical training seminars; requiring certain 14 emergency medical equipment to be at situs of certain events;
15 further providing for suspension; further defining referee's 16 role in boxing contest; prohibiting tough guy contests or 17 battle of the brawlers contests; and providing a penalty.

18 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
19 hereby enacts as follows:

20 Section 1. Section 202 of the act of August 31, 1955
21 (P.L.531, No.131), known as the Pennsylvania Athletic Code,
22 amended June 18, 1976 (P.L.393, No.85), is amended to read:

23 Section 202. Boxing and Wrestling Regulated.--Amateur or 24 professional boxing or wrestling contests or exhibitions
25 including kick boxing shall be held within the Commonwealth of

1 Pennsylvania only in accordance with the provisions of this act
2 and the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder. Such 3 contests or exhibitions may be held on Sundays.

4 Section 2. Section 204 of the act, amended May 24, 1956
5 (1955 P.L.1693, No.574), is amended to read:

6 Section 204. Physician to be in Attendance.--A physician 7 shall be assigned to every boxing or wrestling contest or 8 exhibition by the Commission. He shall observe and continue to 9 observe the physical condition of the participants and [advise 10 the member of the Commission or deputy in charge and the referee 11 in regard thereto.] be authorized to stop any contest or 12 exhibition at any time to examine a contestant and to terminate
13 a bout when in his judgment severe injury could result to a 14 contestant if the contest or exhibition were to continue. The 15 Commission shall establish by rule or regulation a schedule of 16 fees to be paid such physicians for their services. The 17 physician's fee shall be paid by the promoter of the contest or 18 exhibition attended by the physician.

19 Section 3. The act is amended by adding sections to read:

20 Section 204.1. Medical Training Seminars.--The Commission
21 shall conduct frequent mandatory medical training seminars, at 22 least three (3) per year for all ring personnel, Commission 23 personnel and for other persons employed by the Commission and 24 designated to attend.

25 Section 204.2. Register.--The Commission shall establish and 26 maintain a register for all professional boxers licensed in 27 Pennsylvania. The register shall include a photograph of the 28 boxer. In the register, the Commission shall record the results 29 of each boxing contest or exhibition the boxer is involved in,
30 including technical knockouts, knockouts and other boxing

1 related injuries, as well as the dates of each contest or 2 exhibition and the record of wins and losses.

3 Section 204.3. Medical Equipment.--No professional or 4 amateur boxing event shall be started unless there is on the 5 premises:

6 (1) an ambulance, together with emergency equipment; and 7 (2) a portable resuscitator with oxygen and appropriate
8 endotracheal tubes, and a qualified operator.

9 Section 204.4. Suspension.--For sound medical reasons and to 10 protect the individual boxers, the Commission shall establish 11 mandatory license suspensions of those persons who sustain
12 certain injuries. The Commission may suspend a boxer's license 13 for up to sixty (60) days for a laceration of the face, up to 14 thirty (30) days for a technical knockout with minor injuries
15 and up to forty-five (45) days for head injuries. Boxers
16 receiving a knockout may receive up to a ninety (90) day
17 suspension and shall receive an EEG within twenty-four (24)
18 hours of the knockout.

19 Section 4. Sections 208 and 210 of the act, amended May 24,
20 1956 (1955 P.L.1693, No.574), are amended to read:

21 Section 208. Gloves.--When the boxers are [lightweights, as <— 22 defined in the regulations, or in a lighter class,] ONE HUNDRED <—
23 THIRTY-FIVE (135) POUNDS OR UNDER, they shall wear boxing gloves
24 weighing not less than five (5) ounces each. WHEN THE BOXERS ARE <— 25 OVER ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE (135) POUNDS BUT DO NOT EXCEED ONE
26 HUNDRED SIXTY (160) POUNDS, THEY SHALL WEAR BOXING GLOVES
27 WEIGHING NOT LESS THAN SIX (6) OUNCES EACH. When the boxers are 28 [in a heavier class than lightweights,] over one hundred sixty <—
29 five (165) ONE HUNDRED SIXTY (160) pounds, they shall wear <—
30 boxing gloves weighing not less than [six (6)] ten (10) ounces

1 each.

2 Section 210. Attendance of Referee and Judges; Scoring.--At 3 each professional boxing contest or exhibition, except an 4 exhibition held solely for training purposes, there shall be in 5 attendance, at the expense of the promoter, a duly licensed 6 referee designated by the Commission who shall direct and 7 control the contest or exhibition.

8 There shall also be in attendance at every boxing contest, at 9 the expense of the promoter, [~~two (2)~~] three (3) licensed
10 judges, each of whom shall[, together with the referee,] render 11 his individual decision, in writing, on a scorecard supplied by 12 the Commission at the end of every boxing contest which 13 continues for the scheduled number of rounds. Each judge [and 14 the referee] shall have one (1) vote and a majority of the votes
15 cast shall determine the winner.

16 The Commission shall by rule or regulation prescribe the 17 methods of scoring.

18 Section 5. The act is amended by adding a section to read:

19 Section 223. Prohibited Competition.--(a) A person commits 20 a misdemeanor of the first degree if he promotes, sponsors or 21 participates in any manner in the staging of, or the conduct of, 22 any tough guy contest or battle of the brawlers or in any 23 similar competition.

24 (b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the 25 news media, including but not limited to television, radio,
26 newspapers and periodicals, for their reporting or advertising 27 activities relating to tough guy contests or battle of the 28 brawlers.

29 (c) As used in this section the phrase "tough guy contest"
30 or "battle of the brawlers" means any competition which involves

1 any physical contact bout between two or more individuals, who 2 attempt to knock out their opponent by employing boxing, 3 wrestling, martial arts tactics or any combination thereof and 4 by using techniques including, but not limited to, punches,
5 kicks and choking. These phrases shall not apply to amateur or 6 professional contests sanctioned by the Pennsylvania Athletic 7 Commission nor to contests staged in connection with athletic 8 training programs nor to amateur or professional contests of the 9 martial arts nor to any collegiate or scholastic boxing,
10 wrestling or martial arts contests.

11 Section 6. Section 250 of the act, added May 24, 1956 (1955
12 P.L.1693, No.574), is amended to read:

13 Section 250. Mandatory Eight Count.--Whenever a boxer is 14 knocked down, he shall be required to take a count of eight,
15 even if he has regained his feet prior thereto, and the referee 16 shall not permit the contest or exhibition to be resumed until 17 the count of eight has actually been reached, except in 18 professional championship boxing contests and exhibitions. A 19 referee may give a standing eight count in those instances where 20 he deems necessary.

21 Section 7. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
