REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON RULES, APRIL 7, 1987

A RESOLUTION

1 Memorializing the President of the United States to express to 2 the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics the 3 opposition of the United States to exploitation of workers in 4 forced-labor camps.

5 WHEREAS, International law in this century has recognized
6 that everyone has the right to liberty and security of person
7 and has repeatedly condemned the used of forced or compulsory 8 labor; and

9 WHEREAS, On February 9, 1983, the United States Department of 10 State documented that the Government of the Union of Soviet 11 Socialist Republics operates the largest forced-labor system in 12 the world, comprised of some 1,100 forced-labor camps, and that 13 this system "gravely infringes internationally recognized 14 fundamental human rights"; and

15 WHEREAS, The United States Department of State has estimated 16 that the Soviet system "includes an estimated 4,000,000 forced 17 laborers, of whom at least 10,000 are considered to be political

1 and religious prisoners"; and

2 WHEREAS, The International Commission on Human Rights,
3 following a hearing in Bonn on November 18 and 19, 1982,
4 concluded that the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
5 "continues the deplorable practice of forced labor in 6 manufacturing and construction projects" and that prisoners, 7 "among them women and children, are forced to work under 8 conditions of extreme hardship, including malnutrition, 9 inadequate shelter and clothing, and severe discipline"; and

10 WHEREAS, For nearly 30 years the International Labor
11 Organization has investigated allegations concerning forced 12 labor in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Soviet 13 authorities have refused to provide responses satisfactory to 14 the International Labor Organization or to open their entire 15 forced-labor system to impartial international investigation; 16 and

17 WHEREAS, Through these repressive policies the Union of 18 Soviet Socialist Republics has failed to fulfill its solemn 19 undertakings as a signatory of the Helsinki Accords, The United 20 Nations Charter, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and 21 the Anti-Slavery Convention of 1926, as well as the Constitution
22 of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics; and

23 WHEREAS, The continued violation of human rights by the Union
24 of Soviet Socialist Republics and, in particular, the use of 25 forced labor are factors which contribute to world tension and 26 which create concern about the validity of the international 27 commitments of the Soviet Union; therefore be it

28 RESOLVED, That it is the sense of the Pennsylvania House of 29 Representatives that the policies of forced labor are morally
30 reprehensible; and be it further

1 RESOLVED, That the Pennsylvania House of Representatives 2 memorialize the President of the United States of America, at 3 every opportunity and in the strongest terms, to express to the 4 Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics the 5 opposition of the United States to these reprehensible policies
6 and the desire that the Government of the Union of Soviet 7 Socialist Republics cease these policies and honor the 8 international commitments in the Helsinki Accords, the United 9 Nations Charter, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and 10 the Anti-Slavery Convention of 1926; and be it further

11 RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to 12 the President of the United States.
