ADOPTED, APRIL 9, 1991

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating September 27, 1991, as "Voter Awareness Day."

2 WHEREAS, A democracy is dependent upon an educated, informed 3 and active electorate; and

4 WHEREAS, Fifty million people in the United States are 5 eligible to vote but are unregistered; and

6 WHEREAS, The percentage of Americans voting has declined 7 steadily in the past 30 years and voter apathy is cited as the 8 greatest contributing factor; and

9 WHEREAS, In the last presidential election, barely more than 10 50% of the voting age populace voted; and

11 WHEREAS, A voter awareness day places special emphasis on the 12 importance of voting and registering to vote; therefore be it

1 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives proclaim
2 September 27, 1991, as "Voter Awareness Day."
