A RESOLUTION

1 Designating May 1993 as "Armed Forces History Month" and urging 2 the Secretary of Education to integrate military history and 3 contributions of our veterans into the social studies
4 curriculum.

5 WHEREAS, The history of the United States of America reveals 6 that our peaceful tranquility and pursuit of happiness have 7 often been threatened or interrupted by the enemies of freedom; 8 and

9 WHEREAS, Millions of Pennsylvania's sons and daughters have 10 defended our nation during peace and armed conflict; and

11 WHEREAS, Military history and the sacrifices of our veterans 12 have been an integral part of America's past; and

13 WHEREAS, It is important for Pennsylvanians to understand our 14 military history and its role in keeping America free so that

1 our citizens can enjoy the blessings of liberty; and

2 WHEREAS, Learning military history better prepares us to 3 understand the complex problems which will be associated with 4 the global challenges we will face in the future; therefore be 5 it

6 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives urge the 7 Secretary of Education and the Department of Education to 8 encourage the integration of military history and the 9 contributions of our veterans into Pennsylvania's social studies 10 curriculum and further direct that May 1993 be designated as 11 "Armed Forces History Month."
