INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
MARCH 15, 1996

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring Bill Cowher, head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

2 WHEREAS, Bill Cowher, a native of Pittsburgh, is the head
3 coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers; and

4 WHEREAS, As head coach, Bill Cowher led his team to the 1995
5 American Football Conference Championship; and

6 WHEREAS, This was the first American Football Championship
7 title for the Pittsburgh Steelers since 1979; and

8 WHEREAS, Bill Cowher was the youngest head coach to ever take 9 any National Football League team to the Super Bowl, being just 10 38 years of age; and

11 WHEREAS, The American Football Conference Championship is 12 only one of many of the major accomplishments that Coach Cowher

1 has achieved in his illustrious career, including having been 2 named National League's 1992 Coach of the Year by the Associated 3 Press and the Sporting News; and

4 WHEREAS, Bill Cowher has not only distinguished himself as a
5 former college football player at North Carolina State, where he 6 was team captain and was voted most valuable player, as a 7 professional football player with the Cleveland Browns and the 8 Philadelphia Eagles, where he was selected by the Eagles as the 9 most valuable special teams player, and as head coach in the 10 National Football League, but also as a true family man as the 11 husband of his wife, Kaye, and father of three daughters, Meagan
12 Lyn, Lauren Marie and Lindsay Morgan; therefore be it

13 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives extend its best 14 wishes and congratulations to Bill Cowher, head coach of the 15 Pittsburgh Steelers, for his successes in his professional and 16 family life and wish him continued success and happiness in the 17 future.
