
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE RESOLUTION

No. 94

Session of 1999

INTRODUCED BY LAUGHLIN, DONATUCCI, GEORGE, PIPPY, BELARDI, CORRIGAN, THOMAS, ORIE, CALTAGIRONE, GANNON, WOGAN, ROBINSON, S. MILLER, MASLAND, CAPPABIANCA, HUTCHINSON, FICHTER, MUNDY, PRESTON, PETRONE, TRELLO, TANGRETTI, BEBKO-JONES, E. Z. TAYLOR, MANDERINO, CLYMER, WALKO, BELFANTI, MELIO, KIRKLAND, CLARK, BROWNE, B. SMITH, L. I. COHEN, GIGLIOTTI, LESCOVITZ, RAMOS, ROSS, McNAUGHTON, SAINATO, ARGALL, DeLUCA, LEH, SATHER, CURRY, HARHART, HARHAI, CIVERA, HORSEY, YOUNGBLOOD, MARSICO, FREEMAN, McCALL, BARD, SHANER, JOSEPHS, RUBLEY, HESS, DALEY, TIGUE, GEIST, SEYFERT, MARKOSEK, READSHAW, SANTONI, LEDERER, ROONEY, DAILEY AND FAIRCHILD, MARCH 24, 1999

INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
MARCH 24, 1999

A RESOLUTION

1 Proclaiming April 24, 1999, as a commemorative day for the 2 victims of the Armenian genocide.

3 WHEREAS, The Armenians are an ancient people, having settled
4 in the vicinity of Mount Ararat in the seventh century B.C., and 5 have long been fervent believers in Christianity. That religion
6 became the state religion of Armenia in the fourth century A.D., 7 making Armenia one of the first nations to accept Christianity;
8 and

9 WHEREAS, Through the actions of St. Gregory the Illuminator,
10 the Armenian Apostolic Church was established in the fourth
11 century A.D. and continues to exist to this present day, along 12 with various other Christian communions to be found among

1 Armenians in the United States, in Armenia, and elsewhere
2 throughout the world; and

3 WHEREAS, Armenians have always believed in the principles of 4 freedom of conscience and worship and hold these principles 5 sacred to this very day; and

6 WHEREAS, During World War I, some 1,500,000 Armenians were 7 massacred as a result of actions of the Ottoman Empire. Many 8 others were forced to flee from Armenia; and

9 WHEREAS, These tragic events constitute the first instance of 10 genocide in the 20th century, serving as a precedent to the 11 Holocaust occurring prior to and during World War II and as a 12 reminder of man's inhumanity to man; and

13 WHEREAS, Armenian-Americans have contributed greatly to the 14 progress of America by their activities in the arts, business, 15 the learned professions, academia, philanthropy, and also in 16 government, wherein Armenian-Americans occupy the highest 17 executive offices; and

18 WHEREAS, April 24 has been observed for over 70 years as 19 Armenian Martyrs' Day, to honor the memory of those who died for 20 their beliefs and principles; therefore be it

21 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives proclaim April 22 24, 1999, as a commemorative day to honor the victims of the 23 Armenian genocide.