A RESOLUTION

1 Designating November 6, 1999, as "The Carnegie International
2 Day" throughout this Commonwealth.

3 WHEREAS, The Carnegie International is the longest-running 4 exhibition of contemporary art in the Western Hemisphere and is 5 among the most influential surveys of contemporary art in the 6 world; and

7 WHEREAS, This year marks the 53rd installment of the 8 exhibition at The Carnegie Museum of Art, and the exhibition is 9 expected to attract over 200,000 visitors from around the 10 region, the United States and the world; and

11 WHEREAS, Contemporary art has an important economic, social 12 and cultural influence on the people of Pennsylvania and helps
13 create open and active discussion about issues important to us

1 all; and

2 WHEREAS, Madeleine M. Grynsztejn is being presented with a
3 citation from the House of Representatives recognizing her work
4 as curator of contemporary art at the Pittsburgh Carnegie Museum
5 of Art; and

6 WHEREAS, She has researched, developed and organized the 7 exhibition by traveling to 25 countries on four continents
8 during the past five years to assemble the esteemed group of 9 artists who will participate in the exhibition; therefore be it

10 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate 11 November 6, 1999, as "The Carnegie International Day" throughout 12 this Commonwealth.
