

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE RESOLUTION

No. 334 Session of 2000

INTRODUCED BY WRIGHT, DIGIROLAMO AND ZIMMERMAN, JANUARY 12, 2000

INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
JANUARY 12, 2000

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating the week of February 7 through 13, 2000, as 2 "Students in Free Enterprise Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE) is a nonprofit,
4 international organization with chapters on the campuses of more 5 than 750 colleges and universities; and

6 WHEREAS, SIFE has continuously encouraged the free enterprise
7 system through educational programs since its inception more 8 than 25 years ago by Sam Walton, founder of Wal-Mart; and

9 WHEREAS, SIFE not only is involved with the encouragement of 10 the free enterprise system but has worked closely with many 11 national and international charitable organizations such as the 12 American Red Cross, the American Lung Association and the Civil 13 Air Patrol on various projects; and

14 WHEREAS, SIFE has participated in programs such as 15 "Responsible Use of Credit Week," "Make a Difference Day" and 16 "Teach a Child about Business Week"; and

17 WHEREAS, SIFE with its various programs is a valuable asset
18 to the people of this Commonwealth and should be recognized for

1 its services; therefore be it

2 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate the 3 week of February 7 through 13, 2000, as "Students in Free
4 Enterprise Week" in Pennsylvania.