17 assignment and reassignment of classes of actions or classes of 18 appeals among the several courts as the needs of justice shall 19 require, and for admission to the bar and to practice law, and 20 the administration of all courts and supervision of all officers

(3) That section 18(a)(7), (8) and (9), (b)(5), (c)(1), (3) and (4) and (d) introductory paragraph and (1), (2) and (3) of Article V be amended to read:

§ 18. Suspension, removal, discipline and other sanctions.

(a) There shall be an independent board within the Judicial Branch, known as the Judicial Conduct Board, the composition, powers and duties of which shall be as follows:

* * *

(7) The board shall receive and investigate complaints regarding judicial conduct filed by individuals or initiated by the board against a justice, judge, justice of the peace or family law master; issue subpoenas to compel testimony under oath of witnesses, including the subject of the investigation, and to compel the production of documents, books, accounts and other records relevant to the investigation; determine whether there is probable cause to file formal charges against a justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family law master for conduct proscribed by this section; and present the case in support of the charges before the Court of Judicial Discipline.

(8) Complaints filed with the board or initiated by the board shall not be public information. Statements, testimony, documents, records or other information or evidence acquired by the board in the conduct of an investigation shall not be public information. A justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family law master who is the subject of a complaint filed with the board or initiated by the board or of an investigation

1 conducted by the board shall be apprised of the nature and 2 content of the complaint and afforded an opportunity to respond
3 fully to the complaint prior to any probable cause determination
4 by the board. All proceedings of the board shall be confidential
5 except when the subject of the investigation waives 6 confidentiality. If, independent of any action by the board, the 7 fact that an investigation by the board is in progress becomes a 8 matter of public record, the board may, at the direction of the 9 subject of the investigation, issue a statement to confirm that 10 the investigation is in progress, to clarify the procedural 11 aspects of the proceedings, to explain the rights of the subject 12 of the investigation to a fair hearing without prejudgment or to 13 provide the response of the subject of the investigation to the 14 complaint. In acting to dismiss a complaint for lack of probable 15 cause to file formal charges, the board may, at its discretion, 16 issue a statement or report to the complainant or to the subject 17 of the complaint, which may contain the identity of the 18 complainant, the identity of the subject of the complaint, the 19 contents and nature of the complaint, the actions taken in the 20 conduct of the investigation and the results and conclusions of 21 the investigation. The board may include with a report a copy of 22 information or evidence acquired in the course of the 23 investigation.

24 (9) If the board finds probable cause to file formal charges
25 concerning mental or physical disability against a justice,
26 judge [or], justice of the peace or family law master, the board 27 shall so notify the subject of the charges and provide the 28 subject with an opportunity to resign from [judicial] his office 29 or, when appropriate, to enter a rehabilitation program prior to 30 the filing of the formal charges with the Court of Judicial

1 Discipline.

2 * * *

3 (b) There shall be a Court of Judicial Discipline, the 4 composition, powers and duties of which shall be as follows:

5 * * *

6 (5) Upon the filing of formal charges with the court by the 7 board, the court shall promptly schedule a hearing or hearings
8 to determine whether a sanction should be imposed against a 9 justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family law master
10 pursuant to the provisions of this section. The court shall be a 11 court of record, with all the attendant duties and powers
12 appropriate to its function. Formal charges filed with the court 13 shall be a matter of public record. All hearings conducted by 14 the court shall be public proceedings conducted pursuant to the 15 rules adopted by the court and in accordance with the principles
16 of due process and the law of evidence. Parties appearing before 17 the court shall have a right to discovery pursuant to the rules
18 adopted by the court and shall have the right to subpoena
19 witnesses and to compel the production of documents, books, 20 accounts and other records as relevant. The subject of the 21 charges shall be presumed innocent in any proceeding before the 22 court, and the board shall have the burden of proving the 23 charges by clear and convincing evidence. All decisions of the 24 court shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and 25 conclusions of law. A decision of the court may order removal 26 from office, suspension, censure or other discipline as 27 authorized by this section and as warranted by the record.

28 * * *

29 (c) Decisions of the court shall be subject to review as 30 follows:

1 (1) A justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family
2 law master shall have the right to appeal a final adverse order
3 of discipline of the court. A judge [or], justice of the peace 4 or family law master shall have the right to appeal to the 5 Supreme Court in a manner consistent with rules adopted by the 6 Supreme Court; a justice shall have the right to appeal to a 7 special tribunal composed of seven judges, other than senior 8 judges, chosen by lot from the judges of the Superior Court and 9 Commonwealth Court who do not sit on the Court of Judicial 10 Discipline or the board, in a manner consistent with rules
11 adopted by the Supreme Court. The special tribunal shall hear 12 and decide the appeal in the same manner in which the Supreme 13 Court would hear and decide an appeal from an order of the 14 court.

15 * * *

16 (3) An order of the court which dismisses a complaint
17 against a judge [or], justice of the peace or family law master 18 may be appealed by the board to the Supreme Court, but the 19 appeal shall be limited to questions of law. An order of the 20 court which dismisses a complaint against a justice of the 21 Supreme Court may be appealed by the board to a special tribunal 22 in accordance with paragraph (1), but the appeal shall be 23 limited to questions of law.

24 (4) No justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family
25 law master may participate as a member of the board, the court, 26 a special tribunal or the Supreme Court in any proceeding in 27 which the justice, judge or justice of the peace is a 28 complainant, the subject of a complaint, a party or a witness.

29 (d) A justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family 30 law master shall be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to

1 this section as follows:

2 (1) A justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family
3 law master may be suspended, removed from office or otherwise
4 disciplined for conviction of a felony; [violation of section 17 5 of this article;] misconduct in office; neglect or failure to 6 perform the duties of office or conduct which prejudices the 7 proper administration of justice or brings the judicial office
8 into disrepute, whether or not the conduct occurred while acting 9 in a judicial capacity or is prohibited by law; or conduct in 10 violation of a canon or rule prescribed by the Supreme Court. A 11 justice, judge or justice of the peace may be suspended, removed 12 from office or otherwise disciplined for a violation of section 13 17 of this article. A judge or family law master may be 14 suspended or removed from office for failure to complete 15 judicial education requirements as provided by statute. In the 16 case of a mentally or physically disabled justice, judge [or], 17 justice of the peace or family law master, the court may enter 18 an order of removal from office, retirement, suspension or other 19 limitations on the activities of the justice, judge [or], 20 justice of the peace or family law master as warranted by the 21 record. Upon a final order of the court for suspension without 22 pay or removal, prior to any appeal, the justice, judge [or], 23 justice of the peace or family law master shall be suspended or 24 removed from office; and the salary of the justice, judge [or], 25 justice of the peace or family law master shall cease from the 26 date of the order.

27 (2) Prior to a hearing, the court may issue an interim order
28 directing the suspension, with or without pay, of any justice, 29 judge [or], justice of the peace or family law master against 30 whom formal charges have been filed with the court by the board

1 or against whom has been filed an indictment or information
2 charging a felony. An interim order under this paragraph shall 3 not be considered a final order from which an appeal may be 4 taken.

5 (3) A justice, judge [or], justice of the peace or family
6 law master convicted of misbehavior in office by a court, 7 disbarred as a member of the bar of the Supreme Court or removed 8 under this section shall forfeit automatically his judicial 9 office and thereafter be ineligible for judicial office.
