
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE RESOLUTION

No. 132 Session of 2013

INTRODUCED BY HAGGERTY, COHEN, KAVULICH, O'NEILL, VEREB, MAJOR, MILLARD, D. COSTA, READSHAW, DIGIROLAMO, MICOZZIE, MUSTIO,
EVERETT, V. BROWN, BIZZARRO, GAINNEY, ROZZI, CARROLL,
B. BOYLE, MARKOSEK, PYLE, DONATUCCI, GODSHALL, KORTZ, ROSS, PEIFER, ADOLPH, KIM, BROWNLEE, P. DALEY, FRANKEL, HARHART, CALTAGIRONE, C. HARRIS, FABRIZIO, GILLEN, BENNINGHOFF,
DENLINGER, GOODMAN, GINGRICH AND SONNEY, MARCH 11, 2013

INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
MARCH 11, 2013

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring Jack Henzes, head football coach of Dunmore High
2 School, Dunmore, Lackawanna County, on his selection as Class
3 A Coach of the Year by the Pennsylvania Sports Writers.

4 WHEREAS, Jack Henzes earned a bachelor of science degree in 5 health and physical education from George Washington University
6 and a master's degree in secondary education from Catholic 7 University; and

8 WHEREAS, Jack Henzes was hired as a teacher for Dunmore High
9 School, Dunmore, Lackawanna County, in 1970 and the following 10 year became the school's head football coach; and

11 WHEREAS, Under Coach Henzes' leadership, the football team of 12 Dunmore High School achieved its first Eastern Interscholastic
13 Football Conference championship title in 1985, and in 1989 he 14 became the first Scranton area high school football coach to win
15 a State championship; and

1 WHEREAS, In 1997, Coach Henzes was inducted into the 2 Pennsylvania High School Football Association Hall of Fame and 3 his name appears in the National Athletic Coaches Hall of Fame
4 as well; and

5 WHEREAS, During the 2012 fall season, the Dunmore High School
6 football team won its second consecutive Lackawanna Football
7 Conference Division II championship and a District 2 Class A
8 title; and

9 WHEREAS, At the PIAA Class A finals, the Dunmore High School
10 football team won three State playoff games, but lost to 11 District 7 champion Clarion 20-0 for the State championship
12 title; and

13 WHEREAS, The 2012 fall season capped off an amazing career
14 record for Coach Henzes of 371 victories, which ranks him as 15 having the second all-time high school football wins in this 16 Commonwealth; and

17 WHEREAS, The Pennsylvania Sports Writers selected Coach
18 Henzes as the Class A Coach of the Year in 2012; and

19 WHEREAS, After 46 seasons as a high school football coach, 20 Jack Henzes has proved that he is at the top of his game and 21 deserves to be recognized for his achievements; therefore be it

22 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives honor Jack
23 Henzes, head football coach of Dunmore High School, Dunmore,
24 Lackawanna County, on his selection as Class A Coach of the Year
25 by the Pennsylvania Sports Writers.