15 (c) Unlawful acts.--It is unlawful to:

16 (1) Keep any wild bird or wild animal in captivity for 17 public exhibition, or to have any wild bird or wild animal in 18 custody or control for such purpose, without first securing a
19 permit issued by the commission.

20 (2) Violate any of the provisions of this section or to 21 release any bird or animal into the wild.

22 (3) Fail to exercise due care in safeguarding the public
23 from attack by exotic wildlife.

24 (4) Recklessly engage in conduct which places or may
25 place another person in danger of attack by exotic wildlife.

26 (5) Allow members of the public the opportunity to come
27 into direct contact with exotic wildlife.

28 (d) Penalty.--

29 (1) A violation of this section relating to permits or 30 regulations adopted thereunder is a summary offense of the

1 second degree.

2 (1.1) A violation of this section relating to unlawful
3 release of exotic wildlife is a misdemeanor.

4 (2) Any other violation of this section is a summary
5 offense of the seventh degree.

6 (3) Each day of violation shall constitute a separate
7 offense, but, under no circumstances, shall the accumulated
8 penalty for purposes of a field receipt exceed $300. There
9 shall be no limit on any accumulated penalty a court may 10 assess.
