
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

SENATE RESOLUTION

No. 258 Session of 2015

INTRODUCED BY TEPLITZ, WOZNIAK, BREWSTER, EICHELBERGER,
RAFFERTY, VULAKOVICH AND PILEGGI, DECEMBER 8, 2015

INTRODUCED AND ADOPTED, DECEMBER 8, 2015

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating the week of December 7 through 13, 2015, as 2 "Government Reform Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Residents of this Commonwealth expect and deserve a
4 more accountable, efficient, transparent, fiscally responsible 5 and effective government; and

6 WHEREAS, The Center for Public Integrity's State Integrity
7 Investigation, released in November 2015, ranked Pennsylvania
8 45th in the country in government integrity, and Pennsylvania 9 was one of 11 states that received a failing grade; and

10 WHEREAS, Pennsylvania received failing grades in seven 11 subtopics, including political financing, electoral oversight,
12 legislative accountability, judicial accountability, State civil 13 service management, ethics enforcement agencies and State 14 pension fund management; and

15 WHEREAS, The failing grades marked a slide for Pennsylvania
16 from the 20th place ranking for the Commonwealth earned in a 17 similar assessment published in 2012; and

18 WHEREAS, A positive assessment in the report for Pennsylvania

1 is the Commonwealth's 4th place ranking for laws and processes
2 that provide public access to government records; and

3 WHEREAS, While the Commonwealth's 4th place national ranking
4 shows that progress has been made in the area of government
5 transparency, the grade received by Pennsylvania indicates that 6 the effort to improve government transparency must continue; and

7 WHEREAS, Based on a published academic study, Americans are 8 most concerned about corruption of government officials; and

9 WHEREAS, The findings of this study, published by Chapman
10 University, emphasize that reform is not a choice, but a 11 necessity; and

12 WHEREAS, "Government Reform Week" is a time to take stock of 13 the function of State government over the past year, while 14 looking forward to the reforms that should be enacted in the 15 next year; therefore be it

16 RESOLVED, That the Senate designate the week of December 7
17 through 13, 2015, as "Government Reform Week" in Pennsylvania.
