INTRODUCED AND ADOPTED, FEBRUARY 8, 2017

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing February 28, 2017, as "Rare Disease Day" in 2 Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, According to the National Institutes of Health,
4 there are approximately 7,000 diseases and conditions considered 5 rare, each affecting fewer than 200,000 Americans, in the United 6 States; and

7 WHEREAS, While each of these diseases may affect a small 8 number of people, rare diseases as a group affect approximately 9 30 million Americans; and

10 WHEREAS, Many rare diseases are serious and debilitating 11 conditions that have a significant impact on the lives of those 12 affected; and

13 WHEREAS, According to the United States Food and Drug 14 Administration, more than 450 drugs and biologics have been 15 approved for the treatment of rare diseases; and

16 WHEREAS, Millions of Americans have rare diseases for which 17 there is no approved treatment; and

18 WHEREAS, Individuals and families affected by rare diseases

1 often experience problems such as diagnosis delay, difficulty
2 finding a medical expert and lack of access to treatments or 3 ancillary services; and

4 WHEREAS, Some rare diseases, such as amyotrophic lateral
5 sclerosis, commonly referred to as Lou Gehrig's disease, are 6 relatively well known; and

7 WHEREAS, Other rare diseases are not publicly known, leaving
8 patients and their families to bear a large share of the burden 9 of funding research and raising public awareness to support the 10 search for treatments; and

11 WHEREAS, Thousands of Pennsylvanians are among those affected
12 by rare diseases since approximately 1 in 10 Americans have rare 13 diseases; and

14 WHEREAS, The National Organization for Rare Disorders has 15 organized a nationwide observance of "Rare Disease Day" on 16 February 28, 2017; and

17 WHEREAS, Thousands of patients, caregivers, medical 18 professionals, researchers, government officials, companies
19 developing treatments for rare diseases and others are 20 participating in the observance; therefore be it

21 RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize February 28, 2017, as 22 "Rare Disease Day" in Pennsylvania.
