13 (3) All hospitals, universities, colleges, seminaries,
14 academies, associations and institutions of learning,
15 benevolence or charity, including fire and rescue stations,
16 with the grounds annexed and necessary for their occupancy
17 and use, founded, endowed and maintained by public or private 18 charity as long as [all of the following apply:

1 (i) The] the entire revenue derived by the entity is 2 applied to support the entity and to increase the 3 efficiency and facilities of the entity, the repair and 4 the necessary increase of grounds and buildings of the 5 entity and for no other purpose.

6 [(ii) The property of purely public charities is 7 necessary to and actually used for the principal purposes
8 of the institution and not used in such a manner as to 9 compete with commercial enterprise.] Any portion of real
10 property of an entity that is used in a commercial manner
11 or that is not necessary to, or actually and regularly
12 used for, the principal purposes of the entity shall not 13 be exempt from taxation.

14 * * *

15 (11) All real property owned by one or more institutions 16 of purely public charity, used and occupied partly by the 17 owner or owners and partly by other institutions of purely 18 public charity and necessary for the occupancy and use of the 19 institutions so using it[.], except that there shall be no 20 exemption for any portion of real property of the 21 institution that is used for a commercial purpose or that is 22 not actually and regularly used for the principle purposes of 23 the institution.
