6 (a.5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, 7 in lieu of the requirements of subsection (a), an elector who 8 does not possess proof of identification shall be permitted to 9 cast a provisional ballot if the elector mails a photocopy of 10 proof of identification, postmarked no later than the day
11 following the election and provides a notarized affidavit
12 prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, swearing or 13 affirming that the elector appeared at the election district and 14 voted a provisional ballot. The county board of elections shall 15 supply each election district with a sufficient supply of 16 affidavit forms and envelopes that are preaddressed to the 17 county board of elections for this purpose.
