10 Amend Bill, page 3, by inserting between lines 11 and 12

11 Section 7. Duty of Secretary.--(a) The secretary shall, 12 after consultation with the advisory board, determine the 13 general prevailing minimum wage rate in the locality in which 14 the public work is to be performed for each craft or 15 classification of all workmen needed to perform public work
16 contracts during the anticipated term thereof: Provided,
17 however, That employer and employe contributions for employe
18 benefits pursuant to a bona fide collective bargaining agreement 19 shall be considered an integral part of the wage rate for the 20 purpose of determining the minimum wage rate under this act.
21 Nothing in this act, however, shall prohibit the payment of more 22 than the general prevailing minimum wage rate to any workman 23 employed on public work. The secretary shall forthwith give 24 notice by mail of all determinations of general prevailing 25 minimum wage rates made pursuant to this section to any 26 representative of any craft, any employer or any representative 27 of any group of employers, who shall in writing request the 28 secretary so to do.

29 (b) The secretary shall provide written notice acknowledging
30 receipt of materials submitted by any employer, labor
31 organization or other association or organization representing a 32 group of employers or employes for the purposes of inclusion in 33 the calculation of the prevailing wage rate under subsection
34 (a). If after review the secretary determines that the submitted 35 material is incomplete or unacceptable for inclusion in the

1 calculation of the prevailing wage rate, the secretary shall 2 send a written statement by mail to the employer, labor
3 organization or other association or organization representing a
4 group of employers or employes providing the reasons the 5 information cannot be used.
