9 (P.L.68, No.30) and November 17, 1995 (P.L.615, No.64), is 10 amended to read:

11 Section 206. Records of and Reports by Employers.--(a) Each 12 employer (whether or not liable for the payment of contributions 13 under this act) shall keep accurate employment records
14 containing such information, as may be prescribed by the rules
15 and regulations adopted by the department. Such records shall be 16 open to inspection by the department and its agents at any 17 reasonable time, and as often as may be deemed necessary, but 18 employers need not retain such records more than four (4) years 19 after contributions relating to such records have been paid. The 20 department may require from such employers such reports as it 21 deems necessary, which shall be sworn to, if required by the 22 department.

23 (b) Information thus obtained shall not be made public or be 24 open to public inspection, other than to the members of the 25 board, the officers and employees of the department and other 26 public employees in the performance of their public duties, but 27 any employee or employer at a hearing on an appeal shall, upon 28 request, be supplied with information from such records to the 29 extent necessary for the proper presentation and consideration
30 of the appeal.

31 (c) Any officer or employee of the department or the board, 32 or any other public employee, who shall violate any of the 33 provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof in a 34 summary proceeding, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than 35 [twenty dollars ($20)] one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than

1 [two hundred dollars ($200)] three hundred dollars ($300) and in 2 default of the payment of such fine and cost of prosecution
3 shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not longer than thirty 4 (30) days.

5 (d) Any employer who has been determined by the department 6 to be subject to the reporting provisions of this act and has 7 been so notified, and who neglects or refuses to file or to 8 complete in such manner as the department may prescribe either 9 the periodic report required by the department to establish the 10 amount of such contributions or the periodic report required by 11 the department showing the amount of wages paid to each employe, 12 or both, on or before the date such reports are required to be 13 filed, shall pay a penalty of ten per centum (10%) of the total 14 amount of contributions paid or payable by the employer or 15 employe as the case may be for the period: Provided, That such 16 penalty shall be not less than [twenty-five dollars ($25)] one 17 hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) or more than [two hundred and 18 fifty dollars ($250)] four hundred fifty dollars ($450). Such 19 penalty shall apply to the reports for each period with respect
20 to which such reports are required to be filed: Provided, That 21 such penalty shall not apply to reports for any period with 22 respect to which the last day for filing such reports is prior 23 to a date on which the department has notified the employer that 24 he has been determined an employer subject to the reporting
25 provisions of this act, unless the reports for such prior 26 periods are not filed within thirty (30) days after the employer
27 has been so notified. The penalties provided by this section 28 shall be in addition to all other penalties provided for in this 29 act.

33 by an employe to waive, release, or commute his rights to 34 compensation, or any other rights under this act, shall be 35 valid. No agreement by an employe or by employes to pay all or

37 act from such employer, shall be valid. No employer shall,
38 directly or indirectly, make or require or accept any deduction
39 from the remuneration of individuals in his employ to finance 40 contributions required from him under this act, or require or
