1 Amend Bill, page 7, line 27, by inserting after "AMENDED"

2 and subsection (b) is amended by adding a paragraph

3 Amend Bill, page 8, by inserting between lines 18 and 19

4 (b) * * *

5 (4) (i) Any person who has received a nonfault overpayment
6 under this subsection shall not be required to repay the 7 benefits nor have the benefits deducted from future compensation
8 where such recovery would be against the best interests of the 9 Commonwealth and the employee.

10 (ii) The department shall determine whether recoupment of a
11 nonfault overpayment shall be waived, upon request of the 12 employee. Factors to be considered shall include, but are not 13 limited to the following:

14 (A) The employee's earning capacity.

15 (B) Whether other individuals depend or rely upon the 16 employee for support and sustenance.

17 (C) The employee's employment status at the time of the 18 request.

19 (D) The employee's current family income and reasonable
20 expenses.

21 (E) The existing long-term and short-term debts of the
22 employee and his family.

23 (F) Any extraordinary medical or other expenses of the 24 employee and his family.

25 (G) Whether the employee has received benefits as a windfall,
26 for example, where a back pay award is received.

27 (H) The notice, if any, and the clarity of the notice
28 provided by the department to the employee regarding the 29 possibility of a later determination of erroneously paid
30 benefits.

31 (I) A detrimental change of position by the employee in 32 reliance on the receipt of benefits if the employee has taken any 33 reasonable action or incurred a necessary financial obligation
34 in the conduct of his affairs which the employee would not have 35 taken but for the receipt of benefits.

36 (J) Any unusual delay in the determination that the employee
37 has erroneously received benefits.

1       (K) The contribution by the employer or the department to
2 the erroneous payment of benefits.
3       (iii) Employees who receive a nonfault overpayment shall be 4 notified by the department of the opportunity for a waiver under 5 this subsection.
