3 Proposing integrated amendments to the Constitution of the 4 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, providing for a unicameral 5 General Assembly.

6 Amend Bill, page 1, lines 5 through 13; page 2, lines 1 7 through 30; page 3, line 1, by striking out all of said lines on 8 said pages and inserting

9 Section 1. The following integrated amendments to the 10 Constitution of Pennsylvania are proposed in accordance with 11 Article XI:

12 (1) That section 1 of Article II be amended to read:
13 § 1. Legislative power.

14 The legislative power of this Commonwealth shall be vested in 15 a General Assembly[, which shall consist of a Senate and a House 16 of Representatives].

17 (2) That section 2 of Article II be amended to read:
18 § 2. Election of members; vacancies.

19 Members of the General Assembly shall be chosen at the 20 general election every second year. Their term of service shall 21 begin on the first day of December next after their election.
22 Whenever a vacancy shall occur [in either House], the presiding 23 officer [thereof] shall issue a writ of election to fill such 24 vacancy for the remainder of the term.

25 (3) That section 3 of Article II be amended to read:
26 § 3. Terms of members.

27 [Senators] (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), members
28 shall be elected for the term of four years [and Representatives 29 for the term of two years].

30 (b) At the first general election after the adoption of the 31 amendment adding this subsection, members from odd-numbered 32 districts shall be elected for a term of two years, and members 33 from even-numbered districts shall be elected for a term of four 34 years.

35 (4) That section 4 of Article II be amended to read:

1 § 4. Sessions.

2 The General Assembly shall be a continuing body during the 3 term for which its [Representatives] members are elected. It
4 shall meet at 12 o'clock noon on the first Tuesday of January 5 each year. Special sessions shall be called by the Governor on 6 petition of a majority of the members [elected to each House] or 7 may be called by the Governor whenever in his opinion the public 8 interest requires.

9 (5) That section 5 of Article II be amended to read:

10 § 5. Qualifications of members.

11 [Senators] Members of the General Assembly shall be at least 12 25 years of age [and Representatives 21 years of age]. They 13 shall have been citizens and inhabitants of the State four 14 years, and inhabitants of their respective districts one year 15 next before their election (unless absent on the public business 16 of the United States or of this State), and shall reside in 17 their respective districts during their terms of service.

18 (6) That section 6 of Article II be amended to read:

19 § 6. Disqualification to hold other office.

20 No [Senator or Representative] member of the General Assembly 21 shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to 22 any civil office under this Commonwealth to which a salary, fee
23 or perquisite is attached. No member of Congress or other person 24 holding any office (except of attorney-at-law or in the National 25 Guard or in a reserve component of the armed forces of the 26 United States) under the United States or this Commonwealth to 27 which a salary, fee or perquisite is attached shall be a member 28 of [either House] the General Assembly during his continuance in 29 office.

30 (7) That section 8 of Article II be amended to read:

31 § 8. Compensation.

32 The members of the General Assembly shall receive such salary 33 and mileage for regular and special sessions as shall be fixed 34 by law, and no other compensation whatever, whether for service 35 upon committee or otherwise. No member of [either House] the 36 General Assembly shall during the term for which he may have 37 been elected, receive any increase of salary, or mileage, under 38 any law passed during such term.

39 (8) That section 9 of Article II be amended to read:

40 § 9. Election of officers; judge of election and qualifications 41 of members.

42 [The Senate shall, at the beginning and close of each regular 43 session and at such other times as may be necessary, elect one 44 of its members President pro tempore, who shall perform the 45 duties of the Lieutenant Governor, in any case of absence or 46 disability of that officer, and whenever the said office of 47 Lieutenant Governor shall be vacant. The House of 48 Representatives] The General Assembly shall elect one of its 49 members as Speaker. [Each House] It shall choose its other 50 officers, and shall judge of the election and qualifications of 51 its members.

1 (9) That section 10 of Article II be amended to read:

2 § 10. Quorum.

3 A majority of [each House] the General Assembly shall 4 constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day
5 to day and compel the attendance of absent members.

6 (10) That section 11 of Article II be amended to read:

7 § 11. Powers of [each house] the General Assembly; expulsion.

8 [Each House] The General Assembly shall have power to 9 determine the rules of its proceedings and punish its members or 10 other persons for contempt or disorderly behavior in its 11 presence, to enforce obedience to its process, to protect its 12 members against violence or offers of bribes or private 13 solicitation, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, to expel 14 a member, but not a second time for the same cause, and shall 15 have all other powers necessary for the Legislature of a free 16 State. A member expelled for corruption shall not thereafter be 17 eligible to [either House] the General Assembly, and punishment 18 for contempt or disorderly behavior shall not bar an indictment 19 for the same offense.

20 (11) That section 12 of Article II be amended to read:

21 § 12. Journals; yeas and nays.

22 [Each House] The General Assembly shall keep a journal of its 23 proceedings and from time to time publish the same, except such 24 parts as require secrecy, and the yeas and nays of the members 25 on any question shall, at the desire of any two of them, be 26 entered on the journal.

27 (12) That section 13 of Article II be amended to read:

28 § 13. Open sessions.

29 The sessions of [each House] the General Assembly and of 30 committees of the whole shall be open, unless when the business 31 is such as ought to be kept secret.

32 (13) That section 14 of Article II be repealed:

33 [§ 14. Adjournments.

34 Neither House shall, without the consent of the other, 35 adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than 36 that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.]

37 (14) That section 15 of Article II be amended to read:

38 § 15. Privileges of members.

39 The members of the General Assembly shall in all cases, 40 except treason, felony, violation of their oath of office, and 41 breach or surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during 42 their attendance at the sessions of [their respective Houses] 43 the General Assembly and in going to and returning from the 44 same; and for any speech or debate in [either House] the General 45 Assembly, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

46 (15) That section 16 of Article II be amended to read:

47 § 16. Legislative districts.

48 The Commonwealth shall be divided into [50 senatorial and 203 49 representative] 201 legislative districts, which shall be 50 composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly equal in 51 population as practicable. Each [senatorial] legislative

1 district shall elect one [Senator, and each representative
2 district one Representative] member of the General Assembly.
3 Unless absolutely necessary no county, city, incorporated town,
4 borough, township or ward shall be divided in forming [either a 5 senatorial or representative] a legislative district.

6 (16) That section 17(b) of Article II be amended to read:
7 § 17. Legislative Reapportionment Commission.

8 * * *

9 (b) The commission shall consist of [five] three members: 10 [four] two of whom shall be the majority and minority leaders of 11 [both the Senate and the House of Representatives] the General
12 Assembly, or deputies appointed by each of them, and a chairman
13 selected as hereinafter provided. No later than 60 days
14 following the official reporting of the Federal decennial census 15 as required by Federal law, the [four] two members shall be 16 certified by the [President pro tempore of the Senate and the 17 Speaker of the House of Representatives] Speaker of the General 18 Assembly to the elections officer of the Commonwealth who under 19 law shall have supervision over elections.

20 The [four] two members within 45 days after their 21 certification shall select the [fifth] third member, who shall 22 serve as chairman of the commission, and shall immediately 23 certify his name to such elections officer. The chairman shall 24 be a citizen of the Commonwealth other than a local, State or 25 Federal official holding an office to which compensation is 26 attached.

27 If the [four] two members fail to select the [fifth] third 28 member within the time prescribed, a majority of the entire 29 membership of the Supreme Court within 30 days thereafter shall 30 appoint the chairman as aforesaid and certify his appointment to 31 such elections officer.

32 Any vacancy in the commission shall be filled within 15 days 33 in the same manner in which such position was originally filled.

34 * * *

35 (17) That section 1 of Article III be amended to read:
36 § 1. Passage of laws.

37 No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be 38 so altered or amended, on its passage through [either House] the 39 General Assembly, as to change its original purpose.

40 (18) That section 4 of Article III be amended to read:
41 § 4. Consideration of bills.

42 Every bill shall be considered on three different days [in 43 each House]. All amendments made thereto shall be printed for 44 the use of the members before the final vote is taken on the 45 bill and before the final vote is taken, upon written request 46 addressed to the presiding officer of [either House] the General
47 Assembly by at least 25% of the members elected to [that House]
48 the General Assembly, any bill shall be read at length [in that 49 House]. No bill shall become a law, unless on its final passage 50 the vote is taken by yeas and nays, the names of the persons 51 voting for and against it are entered on the journal, and a majority of the members elected to [each House] the General Assembly is recorded thereon as voting in its favor.

(19) That section 5 of Article III be repealed:

[§ 5. Concurring in amendments; conference committee reports.

No amendment to bills by one House shall be concurred in by the other, except by the vote of a majority of the members elected thereto, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting for and against recorded upon the journal thereof; and reports of committees of conference shall be adopted in either House only by the vote of a majority of the members elected thereto, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting recorded upon the journals.]

(20) That section 8 of Article III be amended to read:

§ 8. Signing of bills.

The presiding officer of [each House] the General Assembly shall, in the presence of the [House over which he presides] General Assembly, sign all bills and joint resolutions passed by the General Assembly, after their titles have been publicly read immediately before signing; and the fact of signing shall be entered on the journal.

(21) That section 9 of Article III be amended to read:

§ 9. Action on concurrent orders and resolutions.

Every order, resolution or vote, [to which the concurrence of both Houses may be necessary,] except on the question of adjournment, shall be presented to the Governor and before it shall take effect be approved by him, or being disapproved, shall be repassed by two-thirds of [both Houses] the General Assembly according to the rules and limitations prescribed in case of a bill.

(22) That section 10 of Article III be repealed:

[§ 10. Revenue bills.

All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives, but the Senate may propose amendments as in other bills.]

(23) That section 13 of Article III be amended to read:

§ 13. Vote denied members with personal interest.

A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the General Assembly shall disclose the fact to the [House of which he is a member] General Assembly, and shall not vote thereon.

(24) That section 17 of Article III be amended to read:

§ 17. Appointment of legislative officers and employees.

The General Assembly shall prescribe by law the number, duties and compensation of the officers and employees [of each House], and no payment shall be made from the State Treasury, or be in any way authorized, to any person, except to an acting officer or employee elected or appointed in pursuance of law.

(25) That section 30 of Article III be amended to read:

§ 30. Charitable and educational appropriations.

No appropriation shall be made to any charitable or educational institution not under the absolute control of the

1 Commonwealth, other than normal schools established by law for 2 the professional training of teachers for the public schools of 3 the State, except by a vote of two-thirds of all the members 4 elected to [each House] the General Assembly.

5 (26) That section 2 of Article IV be amended to read:

6 § 2. Duties of Governor; election procedure; tie or contest.

7 The supreme executive power shall be vested in the Governor, 8 who shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed; he 9 shall be chosen on the day of the general election, by the 10 qualified electors of the Commonwealth, at the places where they 11 shall vote for Representatives. The returns of every election 12 for Governor shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of 13 government, directed to the [President of the Senate] Speaker of 14 the General Assembly, who shall open and publish them in the 15 presence of the members [of both Houses] of the General 16 Assembly. The person having the highest number of votes shall be 17 Governor, but if two or more be equal and highest in votes, one 18 of them shall be chosen Governor by the [joint] vote of the 19 members of [both Houses] the General Assembly. Contested 20 elections shall be determined by a committee, to be selected 21 from [both Houses of] the General Assembly, and formed and 22 regulated in such manner as shall be directed by law.

23 (27) That section 4 of Article IV be amended to read:

24 § 4. Lieutenant Governor.

25 A Lieutenant Governor shall be chosen jointly with the 26 Governor by the casting by each voter of a single vote 27 applicable to both offices, for the same term, and subject to 28 the same provisions as the Governor[; he shall be President of 29 the Senate. As such, he may vote in case of a tie on any 30 question except the final passage of a bill or joint resolution, 31 the adoption of a conference report or the concurrence in 32 amendments made by the House of Representatives].

33 (28) That section 8 of Article IV be amended to read:

34 § 8. Appointing power.

35 (a) The Governor shall appoint a Secretary of Education and 36 such other officers as he shall be authorized by law to appoint.
37 The appointment of the Secretary of Education and of such other 38 officers as may be specified by law, shall be subject to the 39 consent of two-thirds or a majority of the members elected to 40 the [Senate] General Assembly as is specified by law.

41 (b) The Governor shall fill vacancies in offices to which he 42 appoints by nominating to the [Senate] General Assembly a proper 43 person to fill the vacancy within 90 days of the first day of 44 the vacancy and not thereafter. The [Senate] General Assembly 45 shall act on each executive nomination within 25 legislative 46 days of its submission. If the [Senate] General Assembly has not 47 voted upon a nomination within 15 legislative days following 48 such submission, any [five] 25 members of the [Senate] General 49 Assembly may, in writing, request the presiding officer of the 50 [Senate] General Assembly to place the nomination before the 51 entire [Senate] General Assembly body whereby the nomination

1 must be voted upon prior to the expiration of five legislative 2 days or 25 legislative days following submission by the 3 Governor, whichever occurs first. If the nomination is made
4 during a recess or after adjournment sine die, the [Senate]
5 General Assembly shall act upon it within 25 legislative days
6 after its return or reconvening. If the [Senate] General
7 Assembly for any reason fails to act upon a nomination submitted 8 to it within the required 25 legislative days, the nominee shall 9 take office as if the appointment had been consented to by the 10 [Senate] General Assembly. The Governor shall in a similar 11 manner fill vacancies in the offices of Lieutenant Governor, 12 Auditor General, State Treasurer, justice, judge, justice of the 13 peace and in any other elective office he is authorized to fill.
14 In the case of a vacancy in an elective office, a person shall 15 be elected to the office on the next election day appropriate to 16 the office unless the first day of the vacancy is within two 17 calendar months immediately preceding the election day in which 18 case the election shall be held on the second succeeding 19 election day appropriate to the office.

20 (c) In acting on executive nominations, the [Senate] General 21 Assembly shall sit with open doors. The votes shall be taken by 22 yeas and nays and shall be entered on the journal.

23 (29) That section 9 of Article IV be amended to read:
24 § 9. Pardoning power; Board of Pardons.

25 (a) In all criminal cases except impeachment the Governor 26 shall have power to remit fines and forfeitures, to grant 27 reprieves, commutation of sentences and pardons; but no pardon 28 shall be granted, nor sentence commuted, except on the 29 recommendation in writing of a majority of the Board of Pardons, 30 and, in the case of a sentence of death or life imprisonment, on 31 the unanimous recommendation in writing of the Board of Pardons, 32 after full hearing in open session, upon due public notice. The 33 recommendation, with the reasons therefor at length, shall be 34 delivered to the Governor and a copy thereof shall be kept on 35 file in the office of the Lieutenant Governor in a docket kept 36 for that purpose.

37 (b) The Board of Pardons shall consist of the Lieutenant 38 Governor who shall be chairman, the Attorney General and three 39 members appointed by the Governor with the consent of a majority 40 of the members elected to the [Senate] General Assembly for 41 terms of six years. The three members appointed by the Governor 42 shall be residents of Pennsylvania. One shall be a crime victim, 43 one a corrections expert and the third a doctor of medicine, 44 psychiatrist or psychologist. The board shall keep records of 45 its actions, which shall at all times be open for public 46 inspection.

47 (30) That section 12 of Article IV be amended to read:
48 § 12. Power to convene and adjourn the General Assembly.

49 He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the General
50 Assembly[, and in case of disagreement between the two Houses, 51 with respect to the time of adjournment, adjourn them to such

1 time as he shall think proper, not exceeding four months]. He 2 shall have power to convene the [Senate] General Assembly in 3 extraordinary session by proclamation for the transaction of 4 Executive business.

5 (31) That section 14 of Article IV be amended to read:
6 § 14. Vacancy in office of Lieutenant Governor.

7 In case of the death, conviction on impeachment, failure to 8 qualify or resignation of the Lieutenant Governor[, or in case 9 he should become Governor under section 13 of this article, the 10 President pro tempore of the Senate shall become Lieutenant 11 Governor for the remainder of the term] , the Governor shall 12 appoint, in accordance with section 8 of this article, a 13 Lieutenant Governor. The appointment shall be subject to the 14 consent of a majority of the members elected to the General 15 Assembly. The appointee, upon approval, shall serve for the 16 remainder of the term. In case of the disability of the 17 Lieutenant Governor, the powers, duties and emoluments of the 18 office shall devolve upon the [President pro tempore of the 19 Senate] Speaker of the General Assembly until the disability is 20 removed. Should there be no Lieutenant Governor, the [President 21 pro tempore of the Senate] Speaker of the General Assembly shall 22 become Governor if a vacancy shall occur in the office of 23 Governor and in case of the disability of the Governor, the 24 powers, duties and emoluments of the office shall devolve upon 25 the [President pro tempore of the Senate] Speaker of the General 26 Assembly until the disability is removed. His seat as [Senator] 27 member of the General Assembly shall become vacant whenever he 28 shall become Governor and shall be filled by election as any 29 other vacancy in the [Senate] General Assembly.

30 (32) That section 15 of Article IV be amended to read:
31 § 15. Approval of bills; vetoes.

32 Every bill which shall have passed [both Houses] the General 33 Assembly shall be presented to the Governor; if he approves he 34 shall sign it, but if he shall not approve he shall return it 35 with his objections to the [House in which it shall have 36 originated] General Assembly, which [House] shall enter the 37 objections at large upon their journal, and proceed to re-38 consider it. If after such re-consideration, two-thirds of all 39 the members elected to [that House] the General Assembly shall 40 agree to pass the bill, [it shall be sent with the objections to 41 the other House by which likewise it shall be re-considered, and 42 if approved by two-thirds of all the members elected to that 43 House] it shall be a law; but in such cases the votes of [both 44 Houses] the General Assembly shall be determined by yeas and 45 nays, and the names of the members voting for and against the 46 bill shall be entered on the [journals of each House, 47 respectively] journal. If any bill shall not be returned by the 48 Governor within ten days after it shall have been presented to 49 him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed 50 it, unless the General Assembly, by their adjournment, prevent 51 its return, in which case it shall be a law, unless he shall

1 file the same, with his objections, in the office of the 2 Secretary of the Commonwealth, and give notice thereof by public 3 proclamation within 30 days after such adjournment.

4 (33) That section 13(b) and (d) of Article V be amended to 5 read:

6 § 13. Election of justices, judges and justices of the peace;
7 vacancies.

8 * * *

9 (b) A vacancy in the office of justice, judge or justice of 10 the peace shall be filled by appointment by the Governor. The 11 appointment shall be with the advice and consent of two-thirds 12 of the members elected to the [Senate] General Assembly, except 13 in the case of justices of the peace which shall be by a 14 majority. The person so appointed shall serve for a term ending 15 on the first Monday of January following the next municipal 16 election more than ten months after the vacancy occurs or for 17 the remainder of the unexpired term whichever is less, except in 18 the case of persons selected as additional judges to the 19 Superior Court, where the General Assembly may stagger and fix 20 the length of the initial terms of such additional judges by 21 reference to any of the first, second and third municipal 22 elections more than ten months after the additional judges are 23 selected. The manner by which any additional judges are selected 24 shall be provided by this section for the filling of vacancies 25 in judicial offices.

26 * * *

27 (d) At the primary election in 1969, the electors of the 28 Commonwealth may elect to have the justices and judges of the 29 Supreme, Superior, Commonwealth and all other statewide courts 30 appointed by the Governor from a list of persons qualified for 31 the offices submitted to him by the Judicial Qualifications
32 Commission. If a majority vote of those voting on the question 33 is in favor of this method of appointment, then whenever any 34 vacancy occurs thereafter for any reason in such court, the 35 Governor shall fill the vacancy by appointment in the manner
36 prescribed in this subsection. Such appointment shall not 37 require the consent of the [Senate] General Assembly.

38 * * *

39 (34) That section 3 of Article VI be amended to read:
40 § 3. Oath of office.

41 [Senators, Representatives] Members of the General Assembly
42 and all judicial, State and county officers shall, before 43 entering on the duties of their respective offices, take and 44 subscribe the following oath or affirmation before a person 45 authorized to administer oaths.

46 "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, obey 47 and defend the Constitution of the United States and the 48 Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the 49 duties of my office with fidelity."

50 [The oath or affirmation shall be administered to a member of 51 the Senate or to a member of the House of Representatives in the

1 hall of the House to which he shall have been elected.]

2 Any person refusing to take the oath or affirmation shall 3 forfeit his office.

4 (35) That section 4 of Article VI be amended to read:

5 § 4. Power of impeachment.

6 [The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of 7 impeachment.] The General Assembly shall have the sole power of 8 impeachment. A majority of the members elected to the General 9 Assembly must concur in the impeachment. Proceeding for 10 impeachment may be initiated in either a regular session or a 11 special session of the General Assembly.

12 (36) That section 5 of Article VI be amended to read:

13 § 5. Trial of impeachments.

14 [All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate. When sitting 15 for that purpose the Senators shall be upon oath or affirmation.
16 No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-17 thirds of the members present.] Upon the adoption of a 18 resolution of impeachment, which resolution shall give

19 reasonable notice of the acts or omissions alleged to constitute 20 impeachable offenses but need not conform to any particular 21 style, a notice of an impeachment of any officer, other than a 22 justice of the Supreme Court, shall be forthwith served upon the 23 Chief Justice, by the Clerk of the General Assembly, who shall 24 thereupon call a session of the Supreme Court to meet at the 25 Capitol in an expeditious fashion after such notice to try the 26 impeachment. A notice of an impeachment of the Chief Justice or 27 any justice of the Supreme Court shall be served by the Clerk of 28 the General Assembly, upon the President Judge of the Superior 29 Court, and he or she thereupon shall choose, at random, seven 30 judges of the Superior Court to meet within 30 days at the 31 Capitol, to sit as a court to try such impeachment, which court 32 shall organize by electing one of its number to preside. The 33 case against the impeached civil officer shall be brought in the 34 name of the General Assembly and shall be managed by two members 35 of the General Assembly, appointed by the General Assembly, who 36 may make technical or procedural amendments to the articles of 37 impeachment as they deem necessary. The trial shall be conducted 38 in the manner of a civil proceeding and the impeached civil 39 officer shall not be allowed to invoke a privilege against self-40 incrimination, except as otherwise applicable in a general civil 41 case. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of 42 two-thirds of the members of the court of impeachment that clear 43 and convincing evidence exists indicating that such person is 44 guilty of one or more impeachable offenses. No officer shall 45 exercise his or her official duties after he or she shall have 46 been impeached and notified thereof, until he or she shall have 47 been acquitted.

48 (37) That section 7 of Article VI be amended to read:

49 § 7. Removal of civil officers.

50 All civil officers shall hold their offices on the condition 51 that they behave themselves well while in office, and shall be

1 removed on conviction of misbehavior in office or of any 2 infamous crime. Appointed civil officers, other than judges of 3 the courts of record, may be removed at the pleasure of the 4 power by which they shall have been appointed. All civil 5 officers elected by the people, except the Governor, the 6 Lieutenant Governor, members of the General Assembly and judges 7 of the courts of record, shall be removed by the Governor for 8 reasonable cause, after due notice and full hearing, on the 9 address of two-thirds of the [Senate] General Assembly.

10 (38) That section 2 of Article VII be amended to read:
11 § 2. General election day.

12 The general election shall be held biennially on the Tuesday 13 next following the first Monday of November in each even-14 numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a
15 different day, two-thirds of all the members [of each House]
16 consenting thereto: Provided, That such election shall always be 17 held in an even-numbered year.

18 (39) That section 3 of Article VII be amended to read:
19 § 3. Municipal election day; offices to be filled on election 20 days.

21 All judges elected by the electors of the State at large may 22 be elected at either a general or municipal election, as 23 circumstances may require. All elections for judges of the 24 courts for the several judicial districts, and for county, city, 25 ward, borough, and township officers, for regular terms of 26 service, shall be held on the municipal election day; namely, 27 the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each 28 odd-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a
29 different day, two-thirds of all the members [of each House]
30 consenting thereto: Provided, That such elections shall be held 31 in an odd-numbered year: Provided further, That all judges for 32 the courts of the several judicial districts holding office at 33 the present time, whose terms of office may end in an odd-34 numbered year, shall continue to hold their offices until the 35 first Monday of January in the next succeeding even-numbered 36 year.

37 (40) That section 17(b) of Article VIII be amended to read:
38 § 17. Special emergency legislation.

39 * * *

40 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article III, section 41 29 subsequent to a Presidential declaration of an emergency or 42 of a major disaster in any part of this Commonwealth, the 43 General Assembly shall have the authority by a vote of two-44 thirds of all members [elected to each House] to make 45 appropriations limited to moneys required for Federal emergency 46 or major disaster relief. This subsection may apply 47 retroactively to any Presidential declaration of an emergency or 48 of a major disaster in 1976 or 1977.

49 (41) That section 1 of Article XI be amended to read:
50 § 1. Proposal of amendments by the General Assembly and their 51 adoption.

1 Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the 2 [Senate or House of Representatives] General Assembly; and if 3 the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected 4 [to each House], such proposed amendment or amendments shall be 5 entered on their journals with the yeas and nays taken thereon, 6 and the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause the same to be 7 published three months before the next general election, in at 8 least two newspapers in every county in which such newspapers 9 shall be published; and if, in the General Assembly next 10 afterwards chosen, such proposed amendment or amendments shall 11 be agreed to by a majority of the members elected [to each 12 House], the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause the same 13 again to be published in the manner aforesaid; and such proposed 14 amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the qualified 15 electors of the State in such manner, and at such time at least 16 three months after being so agreed to by the [two Houses] 17 General Assembly, as the General Assembly shall prescribe; and, 18 if such amendment or amendments shall be approved by a majority 19 of those voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall 20 become a part of the Constitution; but no amendment or 21 amendments shall be submitted oftener than once in five years.
22 When two or more amendments shall be submitted they shall be 23 voted upon separately.

24 (a) In the event a major emergency threatens or is about to 25 threaten the Commonwealth and if the safety or welfare of the 26 Commonwealth requires prompt amendment of this Constitution, 27 such amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the 28 [Senate or House of Representatives] General Assembly at any 29 regular or special session of the General Assembly, and if 30 agreed to by at least two-thirds of the members elected [to each 31 House], a proposed amendment shall be entered on the journal of 32 [each House] the General Assembly with the yeas and nays taken 33 thereon and the official in charge of statewide elections shall 34 promptly publish such proposed amendment in at least two 35 newspapers in every county in which such newspapers are 36 published. Such amendment shall then be submitted to the 37 qualified electors of the Commonwealth in such manner, and at 38 such time, at least one month after being agreed to by [both 39 Houses] the General Assembly as the General Assembly prescribes.

40 (b) If an emergency amendment is approved by a majority of 41 the qualified electors voting thereon, it shall become part of 42 this Constitution. When two or more emergency amendments are 43 submitted they shall be voted on separately.

44 Section 2. (a) Upon the first passage by the General 45 Assembly of these proposed constitutional amendments, the 46 Secretary of the Commonwealth shall proceed immediately to 47 comply with the advertising requirements of section 1 of Article 48 XI of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall transmit the 49 required advertisements to two newspapers in every county in 50 which such newspapers are published in sufficient time after 51 passage of these proposed constitutional amendments.

1       (b) Upon the second passage by the General Assembly of these 2 proposed constitutional amendments, the Secretary of the 3 Commonwealth shall proceed immediately to comply with the 4 advertising requirements of section 1 of Article XI of the 5 Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall transmit the required 6 advertisements to two newspapers in every county in which such 7 newspapers are published in sufficient time after passage of 8 these proposed constitutional amendments. The Secretary of the 9 Commonwealth shall submit the proposed constitutional amendments
10 under section 1 to the qualified electors of this Commonwealth 11 as a single ballot question at the first primary, general or 12 municipal election which meets the requirements of and is in 13 conformance with section 1 of Article XI of the Constitution of 14 Pennsylvania and which occurs at least three months after the 15 proposed constitutional amendments are passed by the General 16 Assembly.
