- (3) Proof of income eligibility under section 8594 (relating to income eligibility).
- (4) Other information required by the political subdivision for the purpose of complying with section 8597(c) (relating to program performance and annual report).
- (b) Application form.--The department shall promulgate a standardized application form for use by political subdivisions. The application form shall be substantially similar to the application form for property tax or rent rebate claims under Chapter 13 of the act of June 27, 2006 (1st Sp.Sess., P.L.1873, No.1), known as the Taxpayer Relief Act. The department shall publish the application form in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and transmit the application to political subdivisions upon request. The department may post the application on a publicly accessible Internet website.
- (c) Subsequent years.--After the political subdivision authorizes a claimant's initial application, the claimant shall remain eligible for a tax freeze in subsequent years so long as the claimant annually refiles the application with the political subdivision showing that the claimant continues to meet the eligibility requirements of this subchapter.
- § 8597. Program performance and annual report.
- (a) Duties of department.--The department shall have the following duties:
 - (1) Compiling a list of how many political subdivisions grant a tax freeze under this subchapter.
 - (2) Compiling the aggregate number of individuals granted a tax freeze in each political subdivision that grants a tax freeze under this subchapter.
 - (3) Calculating the difference between the total amount of real property taxes payable by the individuals granted a tax freeze under this subchapter and the total amount of real property taxes that would have been payable by those individuals but for the tax freeze.
 - (4) Publishing an annual report with the information under paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) and posting the annual report on the department's publicly accessible Internet website.
- (b) Costs.--The department shall collect the information under subsection (a) in a manner as to minimize the costs and administrative requirements on political subdivisions.
 - (c) Duties of political subdivisions. --
- (1) A political subdivision which has granted a tax freeze under this subchapter shall notify the department in writing and assist the department in compiling the information under subsection (a).

- (2) The reporting requirements as prescribed under this subsection may be submitted electronically to the department. § 8598. Report and expiration.
- (a) Report.--The department shall submit a report with the information under section 8597(a)(1), (2) and (3) (relating to program performance and annual report) and any other relevant information to the General Assembly before January 1, 2027, for the purpose of reviewing the eligibility criteria and effectiveness of the tax freeze under this subchapter.
- (b) Expiration.--This subchapter shall expire January 1, 2028.
- Section 2. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.
