

AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 741

Sponsor: REPRESENTATIVE WHEATLEY

Printer's No. 807

1 Amend Bill, page 4, by inserting between lines 11 and 12

2 (f.1) Expiration.--Each mandatory minimum penalty under this
3 section shall expire (the Legislative Reference Bureau shall
4 insist here, in lieu of this statement, the date that is five
5 years after the effective date of this subsection). After (the 6 Legislative Reference Bureau shall insist here, in lieu of this
7 statement, the date that is five years after the effective date
8 of this subsection), a defendant to which this section is 9 applicable shall be sentenced at the discretion of the court.
10 Nothing in this subsection shall affect a sentence made on or 11 before (the Legislative Reference Bureau shall insist here, in 12 lieu of this statement, the date that is five years after the 13 effective date of this subsection).

14 Amend Bill, page 6, by inserting between lines 24 and 25

15 (e) Expiration.--Each mandatory minimum penalty under this 16 section shall expire (the Legislative Reference Bureau shall 17 insist here, in lieu of this statement, the date that is five
18 years after the effective date of this subsection). After (the 19 Legislative Reference Bureau shall insist here, in lieu of this
20 statement, the date that is five years after the effective date
21 of this subsection), a defendant to which this section is
22 applicable shall be sentenced at the discretion of the court.
23 Nothing in this subsection shall affect a sentence made on or 24 before (the Legislative Reference Bureau shall insist here, in 25 lieu of this statement, the date that is five years after the 26 effective date of this subsection).

27 Amend Bill, page 17, by inserting between lines 22 and 23

28 (g) Expiration.--Each mandatory minimum penalty under this 29 section shall expire (the Legislative Reference Bureau shall 30 insist here, in lieu of this statement, the date that is five
31 years after the effective date of this subsection). After (the 32 Legislative Reference Bureau shall insist here, in lieu of this
33 statement, the date that is five years after the effective date
34 of this subsection), a defendant to which this section is 35 applicable shall be sentenced at the discretion of the court.
36 Nothing in this subsection shall affect a sentence made on or

1 before (the Legislative Reference Bureau shall insist here, in
2 lieu of this statement, the date that is five years after the
3 effective date of this subsection).