2 (f) Assistance to be provided to applicants.--An agency that 3 administers public benefits shall provide assistance to all
4 persons applying or renewing applications for public benefits
5 who claim they are eligible for such benefits but lack the 6 documents required under subsection (b)(1). The following apply:

7 (1) No application or renewal of public benefits shall 8 be denied if a person has met all other conditions of 9 eligibility for a public benefit and is cooperating with the 10 agency in obtaining the documents required under this 11 section. Every 60 days, the agency shall establish contact 12 with the person to determine whether the individual is 13 continuing to cooperate in obtaining the documents.

14 (2) Any individual denied a public benefit under this 15 act shall have access to any and all administrative review
16 provided by the agency or political subdivision in question
17 with right of appeal to the relevant Commonwealth agency or 18 appropriate court of law.
