Section 505-A. Subpoenas and witness fees.

(a) Authorization.--In accordance with the powers under section 503-A(a) and duties under section 503-A(c), the State Inspector General may issue a subpoena relating to any matter pertinent to an examination to a person under the State Inspector General's jurisdiction or to an individual or a person receiving services from or through an executive agency. If a person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena, the State Inspector General may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enter an order compelling the witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. Failure to obey the court order shall be punishable as contempt of court.

(b) Form and effect.--A subpoena under subsection (a) shall be in substantially the same form and have the same force and effect as a subpoena issued by a court of common pleas. The State Inspector General shall have the benefit of the process of the appropriate court of common pleas if necessary to enforce a subpoena.

(c) Confidentiality.--A subpoena issued under this section must clearly indicate on the face of the subpoena that the subpoena is issued in connection with a confidential proceeding and a breach of confidentiality by the person subpoenaed may result in a civil penalty or misdemeanor.

(d) Fees.--Witnesses subpoenaed under this section shall be compensated under 42 Pa.C.S. § 5903 (relating to compensation and expenses of witnesses).

Section 506-A. Criminal charges.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Inspector General shall have the power to investigate and may file criminal charges for a violation of any of the following:

(1) Section 481 of the act of June 13, 1967 (P.L.31, No.21), known as the Human Services Code.

(2) Section 1408 of the Human Services Code.

(3) 18 Pa.C.S. § 7313 (relating to buying or exchanging Federal food order coupons, stamps, authorization cards or access devices).

(4) 18 Pa.C.S. § 7314 (relating to fraudulent traffic in food orders).

4 Section 509-A. Report to General Assembly.

5 By December 31 of each year, the State Inspector General
6 shall issue an annual report to the Senate and the House of
7 Representatives. The annual report shall include, at a minimum,
8 the following:

9 (1) Information relating to investigations undertaken by
10 the office, including the number of cases investigated,
11 categorized by type, with a specific section detailing
12 investigations conducted within the Department of Human 13 Services.

14 (2) An accounting of taxpayer money that was recovered
15 as a result of the work of the office.

16 (3) The monetary value that resulted from fraud
17 prevention activities as a result of the work of the office.

18 (4) Summaries of performance of each bureau within the 19 office.

20 (5) Specific recommendations concerning the improvement
21 of any State program to further reduce waste, fraud and 22 abuse.
