19 Section 2.1. Section 432(3)(i)(C) of the act is amended to 20 read:

21 Section 432. Eligibility.--Except as hereinafter otherwise
22 provided, and subject to the rules, regulations, and standards
23 established by the department, both as to eligibility for 24 assistance and as to its nature and extent, needy persons of the 25 classes defined in clauses (1), (2), and (3) shall be eligible
26 for assistance:

1 * * *

2 (3) Other persons who are citizens of the United States, or 3 lawfully admitted aliens who are eligible for general
4 assistance.

5 (i) Persons who may be eligible for general assistance for 6 an indeterminate period as a result of medical, social or 7 related circumstances shall be limited to:

8 * * *

9 (C) A person who has been assessed by a physician or 10 psychologist as having a verified physical or mental disability,
11 including a person who is a veteran with an illness or injury
12 caused by or exacerbated by active military service, which 13 temporarily or permanently precludes him or her from any gainful 14 employment. The verification of the physical or mental 15 disability must be established by written documentation in a 16 form prescribed by the department and must be based on 17 acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques, rather 18 than a statement of symptoms by the applicant or recipient[.]; 19 except that, in the case of a veteran, the verification of an 20 illness or injury resulting from active military service may be 21 established by a statement from the veteran's physician, 22 psychologist or from the proper military authority that has 23 actual documented knowledge of the veteran's illness or injury.
24 The department may also require the applicant or recipient to 25 submit to an independent examination as a condition of receiving 26 assistance. An applicant or recipient with a verified physical 27 or mental disability which is temporary in nature shall pursue
28 appropriate treatment as a condition of receiving assistance.
