16 Section 2.1. Section 432(3)(i)(C) of the act is amended to 17 read:

18 Section 432. Eligibility.--Except as hereinafter otherwise
19 provided, and subject to the rules, regulations, and standards
20 established by the department, both as to eligibility for 21 assistance and as to its nature and extent, needy persons of the 22 classes defined in clauses (1), (2), and (3) shall be eligible
23 for assistance:

24 * * *

25 (3) Other persons who are citizens of the United States, or 26 lawfully admitted aliens who are eligible for general
27 assistance.

28 (i) Persons who may be eligible for general assistance for

1 an indeterminate period as a result of medical, social or 2 related circumstances shall be limited to:

3 * * *

4 (C) A person who has been assessed by a physician or 5 psychologist as having a verified physical or mental disability,
6 including a person who is a veteran and who has been diagnosed 7 with post-traumatic stress disorder, which temporarily or 8 permanently precludes him or her from any gainful employment.
9 The verification of the physical or mental disability must be 10 established by written documentation in a form prescribed by the 11 department and must be based on acceptable clinical and 12 laboratory diagnostic techniques, rather than a statement of 13 symptoms by the applicant or recipient[.]; except that, in the 14 case of a veteran, the verification of a diagnosis of post-15 traumatic stress disorder may be establish by a statement from 16 the veteran's physician, psychologist or from the proper 17 military authority that has actual documented knowledge of the 18 veteran's diagnosis. The department may also require the 19 applicant or recipient to submit to an independent examination
20 as a condition of receiving assistance. An applicant or 21 recipient with a verified physical or mental disability which is 22 temporary in nature shall pursue appropriate treatment as a
23 condition of receiving assistance.
