17 § 3301.4. Recording, advertising and proof.

18 (a) Recording.--All borough ordinances shall, within 30 days 19 after approval by the mayor, the council's override of the 20 mayor's veto or council's next scheduled meeting after its 21 presentation to the mayor, be recorded by the borough secretary
22 in an ordinance book. All borough resolutions pertaining to tax 23 levies shall, within 30 days after approval by the mayor, the 24 council's override of the mayor's veto or the council's next 25 scheduled meeting after its presentation to the mayor, be 26 recorded by the borough secretary in an ordinance book. The 27 ordinance book shall be open to the inspection of citizens
28 during normal business hours.

29 (b) Proof.--All ordinances may be proved by the certificate
30 of the borough secretary under the corporate seal. If an

1 ordinance is printed or published in book or pamphlet form by 2 the authority of the borough, the ordinance shall be accepted as 3 evidence without further proof. The entry of the borough
4 ordinance or the entry of a borough resolution pertaining to a 5 tax levy in the ordinance book shall be sufficient without the 6 signature of the president of council, mayor or member of 7 council.

19 Amend Bill, page 5, by inserting between lines 11 and 12

20 § 11018.11. Records of ordinances maintained by city clerk.

21 (a) Records.--Within one month after enactment, each
22 ordinance shall be certified and recorded by the city clerk in a 23 book provided by the city which shall, at all times, be open to 24 the inspection of the public. Within one month after adoption, 25 each resolution pertaining to a tax levy shall be certified and 26 recorded by the city clerk in a book provided by the city which 27 shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of the public. A 28 standard or nationally recognized code or a portion of the 29 standard or nationally recognized code enacted by reference need 30 not be recorded in or attached to the ordinance book but shall 31 be deemed to have been legally recorded if the ordinance by 32 which the code was enacted by reference is recorded, with an 33 accompanying notation stating where the full text of the code is 34 filed. A failure to record within the time provided shall not be 35 deemed a defect in the process of the enactment or adoption of 36 the ordinance or of the resolution that pertains to a tax levy.

37 (b) Compilation or codification.--At the close of each year,
38 with the advice and assistance of the city solicitor, the city
39 clerk shall bind, compile or codify all the ordinances or 40 recorded resolutions of the city, or true copies of the 41 ordinances or recorded resolutions, which remain in force and 42 effect.

43 (c) Indexing.--The city clerk shall also properly index the 44 record books, compilation or codification of ordinances or 45 resolutions.

46 (d) Retention.--The retention of ordinances and recorded
47 resolutions shall be in accordance with 53 Pa.C.S. Ch. 13 Subch.
48 F (relating to records).
