   Section 202-B. Employee unemployment compensation protection.
30
31
      Notwithstanding any provision of law, an employee who is 32
   employed by a business that is subject to a business closure 33
   order issued by the Governor during a public health emergency shall remain eligible for the following assistance during the 34
   period when the business is authorized for limited operations 35
36
   under an intermediate reopening phase, if the employee is 37
   recalled to work at the business and the employee declines to 38
   return to work due to a concern that returning to work at the 39
   business during the intermediate reopening phase will place the employee's health at risk:
40
41
