21 Section 15.1. Confidentiality Provisions During Disaster
22 Emergency.--Upon a proclamation of disaster emergency issued by 23 the Governor due to a communicable disease, and continuing until 24 such time the disease is no longer communicable, the following
25 confidentiality provisions shall apply to information collected
26 or maintained as a result of the proclamation of disaster
27 emergency:

28 (1) The department or local boards or departments of health
29 shall release to public safety personnel, including coroners,

1 medical examiners, 911 centers, law enforcement officers, fire
2 department personnel and emergency medical services personnel,
3 the residential address of any individual for whom the 4 department or local boards or departments of health have 5 confirmed within the previous twenty-four (24) hours as having 6 the communicable disease subject to the disaster emergency.

7 (2) The department or local boards or departments of health
8 which serves a municipality shall release the information under 9 clause (1) to the municipality after the total number of cases
10 of the communicable disease exceeds one-hundred (100) cases
11 throughout this Commonwealth.

12 (3) The information provided under clause (1) or (2) shall 13 only be used for the purpose of delivering or assisting in the 14 delivery of emergency notification services, death investigation
15 services and emergency support services. Any person in receipt 16 of the information provided under clause (1) or (2) shall adhere 17 to all applicable Federal and State laws, regulations and 18 confidentiality standards. The information provided under clause
19 (1) or (2) may only be retained by the public safety personnel 20 or municipality for forty-five (45) days from the date when 21 information was provided to the public safety personnel or 22 municipality by the department or local boards or departments of 23 health.

24 (4) The department, in conjunction with requests from the 25 General Assembly and the board, shall disclose information that 26 could be beneficial to the public in the prevention of the 27 communicable disease based on the R-naught (R0) factor of the 28 communicable disease. The factors shall include, but are not 29 limited to, the increased risk of contracting the communicable 30 disease for an individual due to age, gender, race, area of 31 residency or connection to a health care facility, school or 32 place of employment. The information under this clause shall be 33 made available on the publicly accessible Internet websites of 34 the department or the local boards or departments of health. Any 35 changes to the information under this clause shall be 36 communicated in writing to the President pro tempore of the 37 Senate, the Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the Senate,
38 the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Majority
39 Leader and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives no
