- 20 (a) General rule. -- A covenant not to compete is deemed 21 contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable to the 22 extent the covenant not to compete restricts the right of a 23 health care practitioner to practice in any geographic area for 24 any period of time after a separating event.
- 25 (b) Exception. -- An employer may enforce a covenant not to 26 compete if all of the following apply:
- 27 (1) The health care practitioner's primary health care 28 facility or office is located in a county of the sixth, seventh or eighth class. 29
 - The geographic restriction is less than a 45-mile radius from the primary health care facility or office of the health care practitioner.

30

- (3) The length of the covenant not to compete is no more than two years.
- (4) The restriction applies only to the primary health care facility or office of the health care practitioner.
- 7 (c) Non-affiliation.--Notwithstanding subsection (b)(1) and 8 subject to subsection (b)(2), (3) and (4), an employer in any 9 county of this Commonwealth may enforce a covenant not to 10 compete if the employer is a provider-owned independent practice 11 not affiliated with any health care system, health care provider 12 or hospital.

 - (e) Construction. --
 - (1) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the enforcement of a provision in any contract or agreement with a health care practitioner that allows for the recovery of expenses incurred by an employer to recruit a health care practitioner or to establish the health care practitioner's patient base, if all the following apply:
 - (i) The health care practitioner did not discontinue employment with the employer for cause.
 - (ii) The expenses are reasonably allocated to the health care practitioner and are reasonably amortized over a period of time not to exceed five years from the commencement of the relationship.
 - (2) As used in this subsection, the term "for cause" includes any of the following:
 - (i) A health care practitioner's compensation or fringe benefits are materially reduced.
 - (ii) A health care practitioner's authority, responsibility and duties are materially altered to the detriment of the health care practitioner.
- (f) Damages clauses.—A contract or agreement with a health care practitioner may include a liquidated damages clause for the expenses incurred under subsection (e) if the amount does not exceed 50% of the health care practitioner's annual compensation, excluding fringe benefits, in the first year of the relationship and is not otherwise unreasonably excessive.
