6 Section 1106-A. Experimental Use of Electronic Voting
7 Systems.--(a) The county board of elections of any county may 8 provide for experimental use at any primary or election in one 9 or more election districts of said county, of an electronic 10 voting system, and the use of such system shall be as valid for 11 all purposes as if the electronic voting system had been adopted 12 in accordance with the provisions of this act.

13 (b) The Secretary of the Commonwealth may approve the use of 14 an experimental electronic voting system by the county board of 15 elections of any county which complies with section 1306(a) for 16 absentee voters as provided for in the Uniformed and Overseas
17 Citizens Absentee Voting Act (Public Law 99-410, 100 Stat. 924)
18 and for disabled voters if the system allows the elector to mark
19 his electronic ballot in secrecy as provided for paper absentee
20 ballots pursuant to section 1306(a). The system shall be exempt
21 from the requirements of sections 1107-A, 1302, 1303, 1304, 1305
22 and 1306.

23 (c) The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall investigate the 24 use and viability of blockchain technology for the purposes of 25 electronic voting by disabled voters and absentee voters as 26 provided for in the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee
27 Voting Act.
