7 § 30. Personal reproductive liberty.

8 An individual has the fundamental right to exercise personal 9 reproductive liberty and make and effectuate decisions regarding 10 the individual's own reproduction, including the ability to 11 prevent, continue or end the individual's pregnancy. The 12 Commonwealth may not deny, burden, infringe upon or abridge this 13 right unless justified by a compelling State interest achieved 14 by the least restrictive means.
