10 The intent of the reimbursements authorized under subclauses
11 (iii) and (iv) is to attempt to supplement, and not supplant, 12 necessary funding for required juvenile counsel. Counties shall 13 include in their needs-based budgets required by section 709.1 14 the purposes for which the funds to be reimbursed to the 15 counties pursuant to subclauses (iii) and (iv) shall be used.
16 The counties shall prioritize expenditures of these funds in 17 ways that are designed to maintain, enhance or improve the 18 quantity or quality of legal services provided to juveniles.

19 Amend Bill, page 4, by inserting between lines 13 and 14

20 Section 709.2. Review of county submissions.--* * *

21 (b) The department determination shall consider whether the 22 county's budget is reasonable in relation to past costs, 23 projected cost increases, number of children in the county and 24 the number of children served, service level trends and 25 projections of other sources of revenue. The department
26 determination shall also consider whether the county's budget
27 prioritizes expenditures of the funds reimbursed to the county
28 pursuant to section 704.1(a)(5)(iii) and (iv) in a reasonable
29 attempt to supplement, and not supplant, necessary county
30 funding for required juvenile counsel in ways that are designed 31 to maintain, enhance or improve the quantity or quality of legal 32 services provided to juveniles.
