RULE 3 E

COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

The Committee shall consist of eight Members, four of whom shall be members of the majority party appointed by the Speaker, and four of whom shall be members of the minority party appointed by the Minority Leader. From the Members appointed to the Committee, the Speaker shall appoint a chair, vice-chair and secretary for the Committee. The chair shall be a member of the majority party, and the vice chair shall be a member of the minority party.

The members of the Committee shall first meet upon the call of the chair and perfect its organization. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for it to proceed to business. Unless otherwise provided in this rule, a majority of the Committee shall be required to take any action authorized by this rule. The Committee shall have the power to promulgate rules not inconsistent with this rule or Rules of the House that may be necessary for the orderly conduct of its business.

The chair of the Committee shall notify all members of the Committee at least 24 hours in advance of the date, time and place of meetings and, insofar as possible, the subjects on the agenda. Meetings may be called from time to time by the chair of the Committee as the chair deems necessary. A member of the Committee may request that the chair call a meeting for a specific purpose. If the chair refuses to call a meeting upon such request, a majority of the Committee may vote to call a meeting by giving two days' written notice to the Speaker of the House setting forth the time and place for such meeting. Such notice shall be read in the House and posted in the House Chamber by the Chief Clerk or a designee. Thereafter, the meeting shall be held at the time and place specified in such notice.

The Committee shall not continue to exist after sine die adjournment of the General Assembly. Proceedings on matters before the Committee that have not been concluded or disposed of by October 31 of the second year of a legislative term shall cease on such date and all documents, reports, communications, transcripts and other materials compiled by the Committee for such matters shall be collected, organized and submitted to the Chief Clerk under seal for transition to the reconstituted Committee consisting of Members appointed from the incoming General Assembly. These materials shall be held in a secure manner and nothing in this rule shall authorize the Chief Clerk or any other person to view such materials. Within 30 days
following the reconstitution of the Committee in the next succeeding legislative term, the Committee shall review such materials and determine whether or not to proceed with one or more of the matters under review by the former Committee. Any time period required for any actions of the Committee or others under this rule shall be tolled until the reconstituted Committee has made a determination whether or not to proceed. If the Committee determines to proceed with a matter, the Committee shall continue from the stage in the consideration of the matter where the former Committee ended.

The Committee shall compile, update and distribute a Members' Handbook on Ethics for Members and House Employees on matters regarding the ethical conduct of their legislative duties. Each Member shall complete two hours of ethics education and training and one hour of sexual harassment and discrimination in the workplace education and training each legislative term. A Member shall be excused from one hour of ethics training for any full year the Member was absent due to illness, injury, military service or any other permissible excuse under General Operating Rule 64(a). The Committee shall be responsible for planning and offering [ethics] the foregoing education and training programs.

The Committee shall issue to a Member upon the Member's request an advisory opinion regarding the Member's duties under Rule 2E relating to legislative nonprofit organizations. The opinion shall be issued within 14 days following the request. No Member who acts in good faith on an opinion issued under this paragraph shall be subject to any sanctions for so acting if the material facts are as stated in the request. Opinions issued under this paragraph shall be public records and may from time to time be published. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Member... requesting the opinion may request that an opinion undergo deletions and changes necessary to protect the identity of the persons involved, and the Committee shall make such deletions and changes.

The Committee may issue other advisory opinions with regard to questions pertaining to other legislative ethics or decorum at the request of a Member or House employee. An opinion issued under this paragraph shall be confidential and shall apply exclusively to the requestor. No requestor who acts in good faith on an opinion issued under this paragraph shall be subject to any sanctions for acting in accordance with the opinion if the material facts are as stated in the request.

The Committee may receive complaints against Members and House employees alleging unethical conduct under the Legislative Code of Ethics or the Rules of the House and complaints against Members and officers of the House for violations of Rule 2.1 E.

A complaint must be in writing and be signed by the person filing the complaint under penalty of law under 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 (relating to unsworn falsification to authorities). The complaint must set forth in detail the actions constituting the alleged unethical conduct or violation. No person shall disclose or acknowledge to any other person any information relating to the filing of a complaint or the proposed filing of a complaint, except as otherwise authorized under this rule or Rule 2.1 E, for the purpose of seeking legal advice, as otherwise required by law or to carry out a function of the Committee.

The Committee shall not have jurisdiction over, shall not accept for review or action and shall return to the complainant with a notice explaining the Committee's lack of jurisdiction any of the following:
(1) a complaint filed later than five years following the occurrence of the alleged unethical conduct or violation;

(2) a complaint filed against a former Member or former House employee unless required by Section 7(c) of the Legislative Code of Ethics; or

(3) a complaint filed against a Member during a restricted period.

A five-year limitations period that expires during a restricted period shall be tolled until the day following the election occurring at the expiration of the restricted period.

Within 30 days following receipt of a complaint over which the Committee has jurisdiction under this rule, the Committee shall do one of the following:

(1) dismiss the complaint if it:

   (a) alleges facts that do not constitute unethical conduct or a violation of Rule 2.1 E;

   (b) is objectively baseless;

   (c) is insufficient as to form;

   (d) is a frivolous complaint; or

(2) initiate a preliminary investigation of the alleged unethical conduct or violation.

If the Committee initiates a preliminary investigation, it shall, promptly upon voting to proceed, send the subject a letter setting forth each allegation in the complaint. Within 15 days after receipt of the letter, the subject may file a written response with the Committee. Failure of the subject to file a response shall not be deemed to be an admission, or create an inference or presumption, that the allegations in the complaint are true, and such failure shall not prohibit the Committee from either proceeding with the preliminary or a formal investigation. or dismissing the complaint. The Committee may engage an independent counsel to assist in a preliminary investigation. The subject may be represented by counsel of the subject's choosing at any point during an investigation under this rule.

If the Committee initiates a preliminary investigation of a complaint of a violation under Rule 2.1 E, it shall also send to the appropriate employer a copy of the letter sent to the subject setting forth each allegation in the complaint. Upon the request of the complainant, the employer shall make adjustments to the complainant's work hours, assignment or duties or location that may be appropriate under the circumstances of the allegations in the complaint. The adjustments may include:

(1) removing the complainant or the subject from the physical work location of the complainant;

(2) allowing the complainant to be placed on administrative leave with continued pay and benefits, if applicable; or

(3) any other reasonable accommodation agreed to by the employer and the complainant.

The employer shall keep the letter and the fact of the initiation of a preliminary investigation confidential but may disclose necessary information to Members, officers of the House or House employees as needed in order to implement the foregoing adjustments. No House employee shall retaliate or take adverse action against the complainant in response to the filing of a complaint of a violation of Rule 2.1 E with the Committee.

A member of the Committee who is the complainant, the subject or a witness to the unethical conduct or violation alleged in a complaint shall not participate in any Committee consideration of the complaint. The Member shall be temporarily replaced on the Committee in a like manner as his or her original appointment.

Within 30 days following the initiation of a preliminary investigation, the Committee shall vote to dismiss the complaint for lack of probable cause to support the alleged unethical conduct or violation or to proceed with a formal investigation because it finds that probable cause exists. If a majority of the Committee is unable to agree on either course of action, the Committee shall dismiss the complaint. The Committee shall promptly notify the subject in writing of the result.

If the Committee votes to proceed with a formal investigation, the Committee shall engage an independent counsel unless the Committee determines that the alleged unethical conduct or violation raised in the complaint does not warrant the expense of engaging an independent counsel. If the Committee does not engage an independent counsel, the Committee shall be represented in the investigation and any hearing conducted under this rule by Committee staff attorneys, including at least one from each party.

The Committee, including Committee staff attorneys, and any independent counsel engaged by the Committee shall have the power to conduct investigations and hearings under the guidelines set out in this rule. Where a provision of this rule conflicts with another Rule of the House, the provision of this rule shall govern. This rule shall be construed to empower the Committee and its independent counsel to do all of the following:

(1) act as a neutral fact-finder;

(2) protect due process and other constitutional rights
of a subject;
(3) fully investigate and deter unethical conduct or a violation of Rule 2.1 E; and

(4) protect the public trust.

The Chief Clerk shall pay the fees and expenses of an Independent Counsel engaged by the Committee under this rule.

The Committee may issue subpoenas for documents or testimony as part of a preliminary investigation, a formal investigation or in connection with a hearing before the Committee.

Notwithstanding the provision of any other Rule of the House, subpoenas issued under this rule shall be in the name of the Committee, shall be signed by the chair of the Committee and shall be attested by another member of the Committee who voted in favor of authorizing the subpoena.

A subpoena issued by the Committee may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of a subpoena issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Subpoenas shall be served by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House or another person designated by the Committee when directed to do so by the Committee. Each subpoena shall be addressed to the witness and shall state that such proceeding is before a Committee of the House for which the witness is required to attend and testify at a specified time and place; or to produce books, papers, records, accounts, reports, documents and data and information produced and stored by any electronic data processing system; or both, as the Committee may also require. Mileage and witness fees shall be paid by the House to such witness in an amount prescribed by law. Unless addressed to and served on the subject, a copy of a subpoena issued by the Committee shall be provided to the subject and the subject's counsel, if applicable. A person who willfully neglects or refuses to comply with a subpoena issued by the Committee shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth with respect to such willful neglect or refusal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a recipient of a subpoena issued by the Committee may object to the subpoena by serving notice of such objection on the signatory to the subpoena and the Committee. The Committee may quash or modify the subpoena if it finds the subpoena to be overly broad or without proper purpose. Each member of the Committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Committee.

All subpoenaed books, papers, records, accounts, reports, documents, data and information shall be returned to the person from whom such material was subpoenaed when the Committee has completed its examination of such material, but in no event later than the date of final disposition of the matter.

Following the completion of a formal investigation, the Committee shall conduct a hearing if:

(1) the independent counsel engaged by the Committee recommends that a hearing be conducted and the Committee votes to adopt the recommendation; or

(2) an independent counsel was not engaged by the Committee but the Committee finds that the testimony and documents reviewed by the Committee during the formal investigation indicates more likely than not that the unethical conduct or violation alleged in the complaint occurred.

If a hearing is to be conducted, the Committee shall provide the subject and the subject's counsel, if applicable, with written notice consistent with constitutional principles of due process. The Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence shall apply during the hearing, unless the Committee determines otherwise.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may not infringe on the right of the subject to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, face his or her accuser and be represented by counsel at a hearing conducted under this rule.

Witnesses called to appear at a hearing under this rule, including a subject, may be accompanied by his or her own counsel for the purpose of advising him or her concerning his or her constitutional rights. Counsel may interpose legal objection to any and all questions which in the opinion of counsel may violate the constitutional rights of his or her clients.

The proceedings of a hearing conducted under this rule shall be either stenographically or electronically recorded. The Committee shall determine which parts of such recorded proceedings, if any, shall be transcribed.

The burden shall be on the independent counsel, if one has been engaged by the Committee, or the Committee staff attorneys, if an independent counsel has not been engaged, to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that the unethical conduct or violation alleged in the complaint occurred. Within 30 days following the conclusion of the formal investigation and hearing, the Committee shall make a determination as to whether the burden was met and shall submit its finding to the House. If the Committee finds that the burden was met, the Committee may make one or more of the following recommendations to the House:

(1) a reprimand of the subject;
(2) a censure of the subject;
(3) expulsion of the subject from the House; or
(4) the denial or limitation of any right, power or privilege of the Member granted by Rules of the House and not contrary to the Pennsylvania Constitution.

The Committee shall provide a written report of its findings and recommendations, if any, to the subject and shall simultaneously submit a copy of the same to the House. Only findings and recommendations agreed to by a majority of the Committee shall be included in the report. The report may include a minority report. The House shall not take any action on the findings and recommendations submitted by the Committee and shall not make such findings and recommendations public until a period of at least seven days has passed following the Committee's provision of the report to the subject.

The Committee may extend any of the time periods, other than those relating to the jurisdiction of the Committee, required for any actions of the Committee or others under this rule.

Investigations, hearings and meetings of the Committee relating to an investigation and the existence of such investigations, hearings, and meetings shall be confidential. All other meetings of the Committee shall be open to the public.

Notwithstanding the above, except for hearings on complaints of a violation of Rule 2.1 E, the Committee shall conduct a hearing in public upon the written request of the subject unless the Committee determines that evidence or testimony to be received at the hearing may substantially defame, degrade, or incriminate a person other than the subject. In that event, the Committee shall receive such evidence or testimony in executive session. No evidence or testimony taken in executive session may be released to any person or authority or used in public sessions without the consent of the Committee.

The Committee may enter into a consent agreement with the subject at any point in the proceedings.

The complaint, response and records of the Committee shall be confidential. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(1) consent agreements and final findings by the Committee of unethical conduct and the Committee's recommendations with respect to such findings shall not be confidential; [and]

(1.1) consent agreements and final findings by the Committee of a violation of Rule 2.1 E shall not be confidential, except that at the request of a complainant, the name of the complainant and, unless the House considers a resolution to discipline the subject, any facts that may lead to the identification of the complainant, including the name of the subject, shall be redacted before an agreement or final findings of the Committee are made public; and

(2) the subject may, in his or her discretion, make public a finding by the Committee that no unethical conduct or violation of Rule 2.1 E had occurred or that there was insufficient evidence presented to the Committee that unethical conduct or a violation of Rule 2.1 E had occurred[, except that the subject shall not make public the name of a complainant who filed a complaint alleging a violation of Rule 2.1 E.]

Any member of the Committee breaching the confidentiality provisions set forth in this rule shall be removed immediately from the Committee and replaced by another Member in a like manner as his or her original appointment.

A nondisclosure agreement shall not be imposed on an individual as a condition of the initiation of the procedures available under this rule for the filing and hearing of a complaint of a violation of Rule 2.1 E. The foregoing shall not be construed to prohibit the complainant and the subject from voluntarily entering into a settlement agreement with a nondisclosure provision agreed to by each party as part of the settlement of a complaint or proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Member who is the subject of a complaint of a violation of Rule 2.1 E filed with the Committee shall not benefit from a nondisclosure agreement or provision if a completed formal investigation of the Committee finds that the complaint is credible or a final decision by the Committee finds a violation.

The Committee may meet with a committee of the Senate to hold investigations or hearings involving complaints against employees of the two chambers jointly or officers or employees of the Legislative Reference Bureau, the Joint State Government Commission, the Local Government Commission, the Legislative Budget and Finance Committee, the Legislative Data Processing Committee or other legislative service agencies. No action may be taken at a joint meeting unless it is approved by the Committee. A member of the Committee who is the complainant, the subject or a witness to the unethical conduct or violation of Rule 2.1 E alleged in a complaint under this paragraph shall not participate in any joint proceedings under this paragraph. The Member shall be temporarily replaced on the Committee in a like manner as his or her original appointment.
