REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON FINANCE, OCTOBER 30, 2007

A JOINT RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth
2 of Pennsylvania, further providing for exemptions and special
3 provisions relating to taxation.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
5 hereby resolves as follows:

6 Section 1. The rising cost of public education and of 7 providing local government services has resulted in dramatic 8 increases in local taxes over the past decade. In attempting to 9 meet their financial needs, the Commonwealth's local governments
10 and school districts have placed a disproportionate reliance on 11 the levying and collection of residential property taxes.

12 Since 1994, real property taxes have risen at the school
13 district level alone in excess of $1,500,000,000. Not 14 surprisingly, the increases in real property taxes imposed by 15 school districts for purposes of funding public education, and

1 by local governments for purposes of providing services, have 2 placed a significant financial burden on homeowners throughout 3 this Commonwealth.

4 Under the current property tax system, senior citizens and 5 others face the very real possibility that increases in property 6 tax millage rates will force them to sell their homes because of 7 their inability to pay property taxes.

8 In addition, the specter of high property taxes makes it 9 difficult, if not impossible, for newlyweds, young families and 10 other young people to purchase a first home.

11 It is imperative that the citizens of this Commonwealth have 12 quality schools that provide quality educations and that their 13 local governments are able to properly fund and provide 14 necessary services.

15 However, it is also imperative that these areas are funded 16 through a tax system that does not rely on the taxation of 17 residential real estate.

18 The Commonwealth clearly is currently in the midst of a 19 property tax crisis that needs to be addressed immediately and 20 definitively. The continued vitality of this Commonwealth and 21 the safety and welfare of its citizens requires the expedited
22 amendment of the Constitution using the procedure set forth in 23 section 1(a) and (b) of Article XI.

24 Section 2. The following amendment to the Constitution of 25 Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance Article XI:

26 That section 2(b)(vi) of Article VIII be amended to read:

27 § 2. Exemptions and special provisions.

29 (b) The General Assembly may, by law:

30 * * *

1 (vi) Authorize local taxing authorities to exclude from 2 taxation an amount based on the assessed value of homestead or 3 farmstead property. The exclusions authorized by this clause
4 shall not exceed [one-half] 100 percent of the [median] actual 5 assessed value of [all] each homestead or farmstead property
6 within a local taxing jurisdiction. A local taxing authority may 7 not increase the millage rate of its tax on real property to pay
8 for these exclusions.

10 Section 3. (a) Upon the first passage by the General
11 Assembly of this proposed constitutional amendment, the 12 Secretary of the Commonwealth shall proceed immediately to 13 comply with the advertising requirements of section 1 of Article 14 XI of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall transmit the 15 required advertisements to two newspapers in every county in 16 which such newspapers are published in sufficient time after 17 passage of this proposed constitutional amendment.

18 (b) Upon the second passage by the General Assembly of this 19 proposed constitutional amendment, the Secretary of the 20 Commonwealth shall proceed immediately to comply with the 21 advertising requirements of section 1 of Article XI of the 22 Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall transmit the required
23 advertisements to two newspapers in every county in which such 24 newspapers are published in sufficient time after passage of 25 this proposed constitutional amendment. The Secretary of the 26 Commonwealth shall submit the proposed constitutional amendment
27 under section 1 to the qualified electors of this Commonwealth
28 at the first primary, general or municipal election which meets 29 the requirements of and is in conformance with section 1 of 30 Article XI of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and which occurs

- 1 at least three months after the proposed constitutional
- 2 amendment is passed by the General Assembly.
