INTERNET NEUTRALITY

Sec.

30A01. Definitions.

30A02. Internet service providers.

30A03. Rules and regulations.

30A04. Violation of chapter.

30A05. Applicability.

§ 30A01. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this chapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Broadband Internet access service." A mass-market retail service by wire or radio that provides the capability to transmit data to and receive data from all or substantially all Internet endpoints, including any capabilities that are incidental to and enable the operation of the communications service. The term does not include dial-up Internet access service.

"Edge provider." A person that provides any content, application or service over the Internet and any device used for accessing any content, application or service over the Internet.

"Internet service provider." A person that provides broadband Internet access service in this Commonwealth.
"Paid prioritization." The management of an Internet service provider's network to directly or indirectly favor some traffic over other traffic, including the use of techniques such as traffic shaping, prioritization, resource reservation or other forms of preferential traffic management in exchange for consideration, monetary or otherwise, from a third party or to benefit an affiliated person.

§ 30A02. Internet service providers.

An Internet service provider that provides broadband Internet access service may not engage in any of the following:

(1) Blocking lawful content, applications, services or nonharmful devices, subject to reasonable network management practices.

(2) Impairing or degrading lawful Internet traffic on the basis of Internet content, application or service, or use of a nonharmful device, subject to reasonable network management practices.

(3) Engaging in paid prioritization or providing preferential treatment of some Internet traffic to an Internet customer.

(4) Unreasonably interfering with or unreasonably disadvantaging either a customer's ability to select, access and use broadband Internet access service or lawful Internet content, applications, services or devices of the customer's choice, or an edge provider's ability to make lawful content, applications, services or devices available to a customer.

(5) Engaging in deceptive or misleading marketing practices that misrepresent the treatment of Internet traffic or content to its customers.

(6) Advertising, offering for sale or selling broadband
§ 30A03. Rules and regulations.

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission may promulgate rules and regulations necessary to administer and enforce this chapter.

§ 30A04. Violation of chapter.

(a) Unfair trade practice.--It shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice and a violation of the act of December 17, 1968 (P.L.1224, No.387), known as the Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law, to violate any provision of this chapter.

(b) Commonwealth agency contracts.--A Commonwealth agency may not enter into a contract with an Internet service provider found to be in violation of this chapter.

(c) Definition.--As used in this section, the term "Commonwealth Agency" shall have the meaning given to it in 62 Pa.C.S. § 103 (relating to definitions).

§ 30A05. Applicability.

This chapter shall apply to contracts entered into on or after the effective date of this section.

Section 3. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
